President's Column

by David Campbell

The saying goes: “The best-laid plans of mice and men often go awry.” This is true of many plans that people make, and very true with this month’s column.

I had planned to tell the story of how I am often asked about purchasing ACC-branded items. The short answer for now is that they can be purchased at zazzle.com/acccribbage. Next month I will explain more about it, but this month my column has a topic that I knew of only today.

As I write, tomorrow, October 14, is my son’s birthday. My son Damian was born in 1991 and struggled through school because he had a learning disability (ADD). He loved video games and was very well liked by many. His favorite holiday was Halloween.

Last year on July 2 (my fifty-first birthday), I was in Wisconsin preparing to go out to eat for my birthday with my girlfriend Lana Newhouse and her daughter Carley. Around 2:30 in the afternoon my phone rang, and I expected it to be either my son or daughter calling to wish me happy birthday. Instead it started the worst day of my life.

The person on the phone said, “Mr. Campbell, are you with someone? Please sit down.” I can assure you that if you ever get that call and question, very bad news is coming. The news was that my son Damian had passed away after suffering a massive seizure.

The news floored me, and I can honestly say that I would not wish something like this upon my worst enemy. I struggled for a lot of days as we planned his funeral.

What then happened is that friends from high school, relatives, and ACC members from all over the country started contacting me wishing their condolences and love via phone calls, cards, emails, and texts.

I am telling this story now because when I woke this morning I saw on my table a happy birthday balloon my daughter Kesia had bought.

Both my daughter and I still have good days and bad days, but because of the support of people I knew—and many I didn’t even know existed—in the ACC, the struggle has been much easier than if we had faced this terrible tragedy alone.

So thanks to all who took the time to think of my daughter and me last year. It meant a great deal to us both.

Last year confirmed for me that the ACC is a wonderful organization with tremendous people throughout it. I hope that you take the time to promote our wonderful group whenever possible. I sincerely hope that you will do so in the future when Marketing asks for your help as we do all we can to promote and attract new members. CW

Your Deal

Letters to CW will be printed on a space-available basis and may be condensed or edited for clarity and length (150 words maximum). Send letters to cribbage@iserv.net or P.O. Box 313, Ada MI 49301-0313. Please include your name, city, and state.

No Muggins

Valerie Nozick (Seattle WA) had a good column about recruiting in the September Cribbage World. As ACC members, we should all want cribbage to thrive, especially in this era of electronic entertainment, when young people think that a deck of cards is boring. What perplexes me is why, when it is so hard to get new players to come to a tournament, so many tournaments have the muggins option. The overwhelming majority of experienced ACC members don't get mugged. Thus the reason for having muggins must be to take advantage of newer, less savvy players. If you've already gained an advantage because one mistakenly fails to count all their points, hitting them again by taking points they missed almost assures that the new player will not be at future tournaments because of the embarrassment of being mugged. A good cribbage player does not need this edge to beat someone new. It's tough enough to get new players, so why drive them away by mugging them?

Bill Cooper (Savannah GA)

CRIBBAGE ANAGRAMS

Using only the eight letters in the word cribbage, see how many words you can create. You can't repeat any letters except b, which occurs twice in the word, and standard Scrabble rules apply (see next paragraph). The CW editorial staff found 65 words, ranging in length from one to seven letters. If you find 45 of them, you qualify for the cribbage anagram playoffs

Scrabble rules—all words labeled as a part of speech (including those of foreign origin and those that are obsolete, slang, and so on) are permitted with the exception of the following: words always capitalized (with one notable exception!), abbreviations, stand-alone prefixes and suffixes, and words requiring a hyphen or an apostrophe.

My Deal

by David Aiken

Play smart, play fair, play fast—but mostly play nice

Anytime you complete 99% of a task it seems that you have done one helluva a good job. That qualifies you for an A on your final exam, summa cum laude honors upon graduation, a promotion and big raise at work

But if you end up in the dead hole in a cribbage game you have accomplished only 120 parts of a 121-step task, and this is one time when 99.173553719008%

(to be more precise) is not good enough.

Other sports and games have various ways to determine winners. One method is simply to outlast your opponent. Think baseball, where your team could score a single run on the first pitch of its first at-bat in the first inning and then win the game with a 1–0 score by playing defense the rest of the game.

Or sometimes the point of a game is simply to be ahead when time expires. When sixty minutes elapse in a football game, if you have more points than your opponent, you are the winner.

Yet a third method for winning (and there are others) is exemplified by chess or Capture the Flag. Both games have similar goals—to capture a key piece of equipment that the other player or team owns, be it a Flag or a King. Once you do this, the game is over and you are the winner.

But cribbage is different. It has a definite goal—to score 121 points. In order to win, you must reach the finish line, which is 121 clicks from where you start. The first player to reach this target is the winner, and it doesn't matter how close the other player is or how many points the other player is waiting to count in hand and/or crib—only one player can win, and that is the first player with her/his peg in hole 121.

Of course, even the best cribbage players win only 55%–60% of their games. So think of that next time you go 5–4 at club or 12–10 in a weekend tournament.

And here's something that will make your socks roll up and down: just think how much money you could make if your batting average was 99% in baseball, or if 99% of your passes were touchdowns!

We play because we love the game. And if we win, well, that's just a bonus! CW

Tourney Tidbits

Close counts! Three sets of identical scorecards occurred in the Donna's Game tourneys in North Bend OR in September. In the Early Bird tourney, Carole Machado (Roseburg OR) was playing Michael Watson (Yuma AZ) and beat him by 8 points; they both turned in 11/6 +60 scorecards, and Carole edged out Michael by—you guessed it—exactly 8 plus points! In the Saturday night special, Master Tammy Gibbons (Battle Ground WA) and Terry Vanclief (Morinville AB) both turned in 13/6 +102 scorecards, and Terry edged out Tammy by 24 plus points. And in the second main tourney, Master Carole Herron (Waldport OR) and Life Master Peter Jackson (Chico CA) both turned in 28/13 +73 scorecards, and Peter edged out Carole by a mere 2 points!

More Guns of August The October Cribbage World reported that four players won their first tournament on August 6. This month we report that five players won their first sanctioned event on August 27! Denise Fortin (Pahrump NV) won the Pahrump Nevada Open main, and four first-time winners won consolations on this same day: Jay Fulwider (Seattle WA) at Mount Rainier Open, Pierre Olivier (Canoga Park CA) at Pahrump Nevada Open, Don Ferenz (Muskegon MI) at Brat Stop Open, and Mike Parise (Blainville QC) at Daniel Webster Open. Congratulations to all, and may you win many more!

Roseburg Youth Program

Fourteen cribbage players from the Youth Cribbage Program in Roseburg OR attended the first Youth Grand National in Lincoln City. Three of them made the playoffs, with Ayden Johnson placing second in the main event. David Gilkeson's granddaughter, Katilyn Jakubos, placed second in the consolation.

Math teacher Tracy Grauer started a cribbage class in her school, Fremont Junior High, five years ago. With the assistance of many adult helpers, including members of Timber Capital Club 62, seventy young people have learned the game of cribbage. In turn, five of the students joined Club 62.

The Roseburg group has already started a serious moneymaking plan ($3,000+) for a bus and expenses to YGN2 in Reno next June. Tracy made a poster with YGN1 photos that Duane Toll (one of her helpers) is taking to tournaments with a donation jar to raise money for this trip.

GN36 Tidbits

Two members of Newport Club 127 “terrified” players at the last two tourneys at Chinook Winds Casino in Lincoln City OR. On May 6

Terry Ryckman (Toledo OR) was high qualifier at the Oregon Coast Classic with 36/16 +238, and on September 9 Terry Greenawald (Newport OR) was HQ at GN36 with 41/19 +280.

Last month, Cribbage World mentioned the players who took second in Canadian Doubles at GN 36. This month we move up to first place. The winners—Jimmy Yee (Carmichael CA) and Stan Uyeda (Fair Oaks CA)—were playing the CD format for the first time ever! Stan is the husband of Life Master Annett Eiffert, and Jimmy is her GN traveling buddy along with Master Nancy Rojas (Sacramento CA). At each GN that Stan attends, Annett, Jimmy, and Nancy force him to play in one cribbage event—and then he can sightsee the rest of the weekend! He usually picks the Friday warm-up or the consolation, but this time he picked Canadian Doubles and Jimmy for his partner because he thought it would be the most fun—which it was! This was Stan’s first trophy, and his traveling buddies are all very proud of him.

YGN1 Tidbits

Raffle Thanks to all who entered the donation drawing for the Youth Program at GN 36. We received $920. Joan Rein, Jay Shafer, Ron McKee, Jones Hom, and Roy Harel donated the raffle items; John and Meme Shaffer donated $189 to cover the registrations of all youth players in YGN1; and Pat Llewellyn donated boards. The Grand National quilt was won by Lowell Bailey, who donated it back, since he did not have room to display it, and the quilt will be used in a future drawing. We appreciate Rick and Peggy Shea for allowing YGN1 to be held in conjunction with GN 36. Watch for details for YGN2 in 2018.

Cribbage Ace! On Friday night, eleven-year-old Tim Shaw (Sacramento CA) played Canadian Doubles with his grandmother, Terri Watson (Rancho Cordova CA). In a game against Kai Lemrise and Gerald Oxford (both from Crescent City CA), one of Tim’s opponents play an Ace to run the count to 28. Tim played an Ace for two points, and everybody said “go.” And Tim played two more Aces for a total of 22 pegging points! The final score of the game saw Tim and Terri Watson in hole 121, with Kai and Gerald in hole 50—a beat-down of 71 points!

[Kerry's words] Around age six, my Great-Aunt Anne and Great-Uncle Jim said I was too young to play with them, so my mother took this as a challenge and taught me. I played online with my mentor

Michael Green for a couple of years before I joined Club 193 about sixteen years ago. Club members Mel Kranz, Maryanne, Dennis, Brian, Clint, Cy, and Dick Williams

(who told me that eventually I would be able to shuffle with two hands as well as he could using one!) taught me how little I knew, but Ira Deutsch decided to help me become tournament savvy, and we covered many miles on those lessons, for which I thank him profusely. I've been club champion a few times, should be one more, but I paired Ira at the end of fourth street and learnt that lesson the hard way! I'm not sure when or where my first tournament win was, maybe West Covina or my own, not something I really care about. I think some of my second-place efforts have been more impressive than my wins and I have no idea how many I have won. I stumbled over the Life Master line in Vegas after missing two points in the consolation quarterfinals and losing in the stink hole to Bob Bartosh. But I came good in the next main, before Bryan Gurden snotted me in the finals. I love to play the Reno tournaments, with West Covina and Topaz topping my list of favourites. Tons of tough opponents: I seem to stumble the worst against Roland Hall but against Jim Langley, Bob Bartosh, Phyllis, Eric, Winona, Jeanne, and Duane I always feel like a beginner! Last cribbage season was a tough one, losing both my regular houseguests Mike Beauvais and Darlene Dean in the one year was horrible. I like to take photos, especially tiny little bugs and spiders and make them look like something out of Jurassic Park. I have a fabulous garden, because I love to collect seeds. I believe that if you walk past trash near a waterway, it's as bad as if you tossed it, so I spend many hours picking up trash!

Other Recent Award Winners

Life Master (2★) #43. David Campbell (Parsonsfield ME)

Life Master #236. Bob Brumley (Sunnyside WA)

A college roommate taught Dan how to play cribbage back in 1978. He joined the ACC in the early 80s (his number is CA-229, so that means it wasn't too many years after its founding). His cribbage mentor is Joe Wergin. Back in the day, Dan read his books and spoke to him on the phone a lot. His involvement in youth cribbage stemmed from Joe urging him to write a teaching manual. Dan founded Club 140 in Sonora in the early 90s and played there for almost ten seasons and later in Auburn. Dan loves the Reno events, particularly the TOC and JPW/ACC Open. His toughest opponent is Jim Langley ("I've never been able to beat him in the playoffs," he says). Dan's favorite cribbage moment this year was going to a tournament with both of his sons playing in their first sanctioned event. His noncribbage interests are golf, travel, and playing fantasy football and baseball. In his role as director of the ACC's Youth Program and as teacher/superintendent/principal in Grass Valley, Dan has taught over one thousand youth how to play the great game of cribbage—and he looks forward to teaching as many more that he can!

25 Years Ago in the ACC

The cover of the November 1992 Cribbage World announced that Greg Schleusner (Truckee CA) won the 178-player Wine Valley main in Napa CA and that Ron Morgan (then of Missoula MT, now of Reno NV) won 123-player Montana Championship main in Missoula. Both players remain very active in ACC cribbage today.

On page 3 of this issue, editor DeLynn Colvert (Missoula MT) mentioned that the BOD had recently approved Life Master awards up to Five Stars (30,000 MRPs). At that time, DeLynn was the highest rated player with just under 10,000 MRPs. He speculated that no one would reach Five Stars until 2010. As it turned out, DeLynn was the first to do this, and he did it ahead of schedule, reaching the 30,000-MRP plateau on October 28, 2007.

Elsewhere we read that Roy Cook (Oceanside CA) was both high qualifier and winner of the 88-player Monterey Bay main.

The Inside Track

by Rob Medeiros

The last hand of the game often requires great detective work. Let's examine this hand: you are nondealer needing 2; the dealer also needs 2 points. You are dealt A-A-6-6-7-8; what do you keep? You are certainly going to keep an Ace and lead it. The other Ace is a safe play later on in the hand. The 7 is also a good card to keep in this situation since the dealer often plays a 7 if she has no response for the Ace; another 7 is the only card that beats her. So do you keep the 6 or 8; if the dealer plays a 6 or 8 on your Ace lead, it doesn't matter. But if she plays a picture card, I prefer having the 8 to make it 19 rather than the 6 to make it 17. This way another picture card runs the count to 29, and you have the safe Ace to make it 30 in that case. So we hold A-A-7-8. Stayed tuned next month to see how the hand eventually played out.

Life Master (2★) Rob Medeiros never gets his Ace trapped.

ACC Cribbage Code of Congeniality

During a new player’s trial period (four weeks or until they earn points—whichever is longer) . . .

- We pledge to welcome new players warmly and make them feel wanted.
- We pledge to not penalize new players for violating tournament rules. (We will, instead, gently tell them what the rule is and what the penalty would be.)
- We pledge to not let new players underpeg points or undercount hands. (We will, instead, explain errors and then allow new players to take all points they are entitled to.)
- We pledge to not make new players feel inferior if/when they miss points or make a bad play. (We will, instead, let them know that all cribbage players do this and that it is part of the learning process.)
- We pledge to not force new players to play a game in fifteen minutes. (We will, instead, be tolerant and not complain, remembering that we, too, started slow.)
- We pledge to allow new players to play for free or at the minimum cost of club expenses.

After the trial period is up . . .

- We pledge to continue to make all players—new and existing—feel welcome and comfortable at our club.

Oh, the People You'll Meet!

by Tammy Gibbons

As the ACC slowly adds more younger members, I am continually fascinated by how these “youngsters” find us, and even more fascinated by how they came to play this grand old game.

One such younger-than-me is Jason Matheny (Houston TX). He stumbled onto cribbage by a happy accident, and like many of us loves the people as much if not more than the game. Many years ago Jason and his wife, Jennifer, saw some people playing cribbage at a party. Something about the way they were playing didn't ring true. Although he had watched his parents play, he'd never really learned the game, so Jennifer and Jason sat down and taught themselves to play. Much to their amazement, the folks they'd seen at the party seemed to have made up their own rules!

Jason sees the game as a great opportunity to be social, and each time he and his wife have moved they've used cribbage to get acquainted with others. When they landed in Houston, they met Gary McCuskey, who Jason credits as his great friend and mentor. A few years later, Jason became one of the youngest players to win the prestigious Grand National (see the November 2015 Cribbage World for details).

I met Jason for the first time at Grand National in Lincoln City, when I heard about a “fantasy cribbage draft” that he was running. This is something he and another friend came up with, and Jason and Gary tried it out in Reno last year. They ran it at the National Open in Raleigh, solidifying the rules, and did it again in Lincoln City, where I got to participate in it.

It works like a fantasy sports draft. Each participant “drafts” or picks players they think will do well in the main event. Jason wants to keep the draft small, but sees how the popularity of fantasy sports could draw more people into our game and add an element of interest.

In the meantime, Jason continues to closely analyze his play and that of those around him and will undoubtedly graduate to the next tier of playing expertise in no time. He surrounds himself with great friends and mentors, and after winning a Grand National, we know it is just a matter of time before we see his face and name in Cribbage World much more frequently.

From its inception, the ACC rulebook has been a work in progress. The current Rules Committee is soliciting feedback from members to make the rulebook even better. This is your chance to initiate changes or additions to existing rules.

Please submit in writing suggested rule change or new rule to a member of the Rules Committee before January 1, 2018. Please give specific reasons why you would like to see the rule change. A comment such as “I don’t like this rule” or “I think this rule is unfair to the dealer” likely won’t result in the change you want!

The goal of the committee is to act on all issues brought before it within two months of receipt. Since rule changes require BOD approval, they cannot become official until the board meets and approves them. It is, therefore, important that any proposed rule change be in the hands of the Rules Committee three months before the BOD meeting. (BOD meetings are held in March at the JPW/ACC Open and in the fall at Grand National.)

ACC Rulebook

Rulebook Revisions

Despite the care with which the Rules Committee prepared the 2016 revision, two adjustments are needed.

- Pen-and-ink correction: on page 15, change “1” in column B to “9.” This occurs twice: in line 4 and line 10. See correction at right.
- Cut-and-paste correction: rule 12.2 on page 35 needs an additional paragraph, so replace it with the page to the right. Cut on the dotted line and tape or glue the new page over the existing page 35.

TABLE OF ACTIONS FOR RULE 4.4.c

situation			A	B
pone's hand	dealer's hand	crib	before starter turned	after starter turned correct	correct	correct	play	play correct	correct	too many	1	2
correct	correct	too few	3	3
correct	too many	correct	1	X 9
correct	too many	too many	1	4
correct	too many	too few	5	4
correct	too few	correct	6	7
correct	too few	too many	8	8
correct	too few	too few	1	7
too many	correct	correct	1	X 9
too many	correct	too many	1	9

- d. If both cards record a win or if both cards record a loss, with one having points in the plus column and the other having points in the minus column, the one in the plus column gets the win.
- e. If both cards record a win or if both cards record a loss, with the spread points in the same column, it is a loss for both players, and the spread points are moved to the negative column (if necessary).
- f. If only one card records a win but both cards put the spread points in the same column (whether win or loss), the win stands and the spread points on the incorrect card are changed to the appropriate column.
- g. Make sure that game-point and spread-point totals are adjusted, if necessary.
- h. "No harm, no foul": if an apparent qualifier's discrepancy is already to his or her disadvantage, no change is necessary. For example, qualifier D claims a 15-point win; opponent claims a 20-point loss; no change is necessary, and both cards stand as recorded.
- i. If scorecard errors result in a change in the fact or position of qualifying, the tournament director informs the affected player, with the relevant scorecards as evidence.

RULE 13. PLAYOFFS

13.1. Forfeitures during Playoffs

If a qualifier does not appear at the time scheduled to begin the playoffs, the tournament director will allow five minutes before forfeiting the first game to the opponent. Additional forfeitures will be made every fifteen minutes until a match is completed or until a qualifier appears. In any case, nonappearing qualifiers are still entitled to receive prize money and MRPs that would have been awarded to the losers in that round.

EMAIL

The TOC will be here before you know it, and we need your email address in order to send your TOC invitation. Thanks to the efforts of TOC director Don Hannula, the ACC saves hundreds of dollars each year by emailing TOC invitations to players who have earned the honor to play this tourney. If you have recently gotten a new email address, or if you have never put your email address on file, please send your email address to the ACC membership secretary at membership@cribbage.org. Your email address will not be shared with anyone or any other organization, but will be used exclusively for official ACC business. Thanks, and we look forward to seeing you in Reno next March.

ACC Committees

The ACC runs on volunteer power. Many members volunteer their time and expertise to undertake tasks that must be done in order for our organization to run smoothly. These volunteers are organized into various committees set up by the Board of Directors. Here is a list of committees (continued next month), along with a brief description and a listing of committee members. If you would like to make a suggestion or help out in one of these areas, please contact the appropriate committee chair.

Executive Committee

This committee oversees the entire ACC organization.

David Aiken
Paul Gregson
Valerie Sumner
Terry Weber

Marketing Committee

This committee is responsible for building awareness of the ACC, driving new membership growth, and retaining players whose memberships have lapsed. Reversing our membership decline is the number one challenge we face as an organization. We will focus on national marketing and retention, while giving Grass Roots directors, tournament directors, and ACC members the tools to promote us locally.

IT Committee

This committee is responsible for the ACC's underlying infrastructure and technological advancement. Ultimately, our goal is to make life as easy as possible for the ACC's volunteers and members—whether it is automating routine processes, creating guides to help people use our systems, supporting marketing initiatives, or developing cool new ways to do things.

Cribbage Board of the Month

BY JAY FULWIDER

James Jerwers (Folsom CA) is a new ACC member. While exploring some websites for cribbage boards, he found this month's featured board. He thought it so unique that he sent it to ACC webmaster Diane Waite as a potential addition to the gallery of cribbage boards. Diane sent the photos on to me.

Jim included some history of the board that piqued my interest. After talking to Jim, I got in touch with Kristi McWhorter, the creator of the board.

Kristi grew up in Colorado, where she currently lives. During summer vacations, she learned to play cribbage from her grandfather in Iowa. Eventually, she went to college in movies, Kristi moved on to wood laser-engraving design.

Now Kristi is living the dream. She has turned her hobby of designing custom Lego bricks into her vocation.

She built this board in 2012 and later donated it to Creations for Charity (creationsforcharity.org). Kristi is one of nine worldwide distributors for the charity. The money raised goes to buy new Lego sets that are donated to children's charities like Toys for Tots, children's hospitals, and so on. I should note that the black and white photos don't do justice to this beautiful board. Picture in your mind bright blue and red tracks on a black board. The pegs seem to fluoresce.

Check out Kristi's website at custombricks.net or contact her at custombricks@usa.net.

California and later found employment in the movie industry. After working on storyboarding and set design for both animated and action

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards from his home in picturesque Washington State, where he also enjoys golf, fishing, and racquetball. His philosophy on the key to life: "Just keep your pegs moving." Ideas for and questions about this column may be sent to him at budandotis@msn.com (put "Cribbage Board" in the subject line).

Youth Teaching Tip

Inevitably when you teach cribbage to a large group of kids, some will catch on quicker than others. When you recognize your top students, don't hesitate to put them into leadership roles to help you teach your class. There are several ways to do this. First, have them play a slower learner with the objective that they help teach their opponent rather than compete with them. This empowers one student to take on the role of educator, and allows the other student to connect with a peer and build a relationship they may have never had before. Second, match a quicker learner with a slower player to play as a team against another opponent in a competitive game. Both can work together to make decisions, and it is a great way to give a slower player some one-on-one instruction and, at the same time, bolster the esteem of the quicker player.

Youth News

The first annual Youth Grand National was held alongside GN36 in Lincoln City OR on September 9. Twenty-seven youth players attended, with two coming all the way from Maine, two from Washington, sixteen from Oregon, and seven from California. Here are the winners:

		12+ Age Group	11 and Under Age Group
main	champ	Connor Branson (Roseville CA)	Tim Shaw (Sacramento CA)
	2nd	Ayden Johnson (Roseburg OR)	Zack Gregson (Antioch CA)
con	champ	Nina Plowman (age 8, Paradise CA)—also HQ with grand slam!

The winning youth players were recognized at the awards banquet on Saturday night, which brought great smiles from everyone in attendance. The Youth Program would like to extend many thanks to Don Howard for directing YGN1 and to Rick and Peggy Shea for making YGN1 a memorable tournament.

Another youth tournament has popped up in California! The Youth Santa Slam will be held at Antioch CA on December 9. For details, go to cribbage.org and click "Youth Program" in the left column and then click on the link to YSS in the right column.

Grass Roots Corner

Club 317 (Puyallup WA) director Don Zentschel sends us this: “The big Washington State Fair held in Puyallup comes to an end after twenty-four days. It was a great time for all cribbage players. Over two thousand games were played by the ten clubs that sponsored this event. Three players accomplished a rare feat. Dave Berry (Club 243) and Rob Smith (Club 317) had 28-hands, and Rich Wilkens (Club 317) had a 29-hand.”

At Club 72 (Longmeadow MA) on October 3, Jimmy Falzone-Cardinal dealt club director Peter Vangness four 5s. A Jack was cut, giving Peter his fourth 28-hand in Grass Roots competition. Less than an hour later, Ed Kane dealt Matt Piechota four fives. A Queen was cut, giving Matt another 28-hand. As luck would have it, both Peter and Matt lost those games!

At Club 89 (Springfield VA) Pam Saunders, playing in just her third official Grass Roots tournament, had a 28-hand.

At Cereal City Cribbage Club 300 (Battle Creek MI), Ken Holcomb had a short run of great luck. Of course, it’s always helpful to get a barn-burner, and a 28-hand certainly qualifies. When the very next hand is a 29-hand, that is really good luck!

In the second week at Club 161 (Bellingham MA), Rick Montague ran the table and posted his first ever grand slam with a 20/9 +208.

At Club 356 (La Grande OR), Tom Anderson had a 28-hand followed by a 24-hand on September 21.

In an exciting game at Club 300 on September 7, both Paul Crisher and Connie Ewka had 24-hands on the same deal! Paul was dealer, and the pegging went like this:

Connie	4		4 (for 6)		5 (for 2)		go		6
Paul		4 (for 2)		5		5 (for 6)		(for 1)	6 (for 2)

On this one deal alone, they scored 69 points between them (the crib had two points)! Paul won the game.
