

Cribbage World

With this issue, Cribbage World turns 500! That's right, this is the 500th monthly magazine to be published by the American Cribbage Congress since our founding in 1979. Starting with a ridiculously low membership fee of $2/year—and still a bargain at $20/year—this magazine has brought you over 13,700 pages of cribbage news month after month, for over forty-two years. Inside you'll find a few of the significant 500s in ACC history. The entire CW staff looks forward to the next 500 issues!

President's Column

by James Morrow

500

Wow! It's December already! And more importantly it's December 13—three days past my column deadline!

Looking at the cribbage trail, there is a weekend tournament break, for me anyway. I see nothing close enough without gassing up the ACC jet to attend. However, there is also a lot of good stuff happening in the ACC to keep all of us cribbage players busy playing.

The second International Cribbage Day Best-of-Seven tournament is a free, online tournament. The details, FAQs, link to sign-up, and what one should do if you are new to eCribbage can be found on cribbage.org > Play Online > International Cribbage Day Information.

The Marketing Committee has designed T-shirts for the 2022 Tournament of Champions. With several colors to choose from, the playing hall should be a little brighter. So far, sapphire seems to be the color of choice. The shirts are $10 to $14 and can be ordered from the link on either the ACC Facebook page or cribbage.org.

My local Grass Roots club is back in action after a year off (thanks Covid). If your club is like mine, there will be a few missed weeks when the weather turns bad. Snow and freezing rain have stopped a few of our weekly tournaments over the years. But if it works out, you can always reschedule the missed tournaments; one year my club even had a doubleheader New Year's Eve party.

A quick reminder to club directors: Jennifer Johnson designed several fillable print and frame certificates available on the Grass Roots admin page. Some just for fun, like strings of pearls or mini-slams. There is one that every club should print out under the thank you certificate. Not only does it thank the place you hold your club, it also has a time that your club meets. A dual-purpose thank you and advertisement to hang in the playing halls.

On the cover of December's Cribbage World, the Whidbey Island Club claimed their fourth consecutive AWC Tournament Championship. The winner gets to take that awesome title belt home and wear it all year. Dennis O'Neal, 2019 champion, held onto the belt an extra year. Again, thank you, Covid. As this year's tournament approached, he could not find the belt. Dennis had been remodeling his house and moved a dresser into storage. Perhaps, when he wasn't wearing it in parades and on tour the belt was kept locked up in this dresser for safe keeping? Luckily, he did locate it just in time. Dennis enjoyed showing off the belt so much, he almost

Which Is Harder?

Which hand is mathematically harder to get: Royal Ann (A-6-7-8 suited and cut an Ace) or a 23-point full house (5-5-J-J and cut a 5 with suit matching one of the Jacks)?

Eric Jensen (Grand Rapids MI) has been an ACC member since 2009, but he's worked for Virginia Tile Company three times longer—since 1978! Eric found the ACC just prior to Grand National 28 held in Grand Rapids MI, and ever since he's been a faithful attendee at Club 71—and a promoter of cribbage in west Michigan. Here's an article ♠ he recently published in the monthly newsletter of Virginia Tile that is read by 350+ employees in fifteen VTC branches.

Another letter on page 50.

LET'S PLAY CRIBBAGE

Have you heard of cribbage? Have you ever played cribbage?

Besides enjoying a great turkey dinner on Thanksgiving day, Eric Jensen, a customer service rep in Grand Rapids, played in a couple cribbage tournaments over the holiday. Club 71 Beer City Peggers hosted the Wishbone Open and Reindeer Games held in Grand Rapids, MI. Eric belongs to club 71 and they play 9 games every Tuesday night at an American Legion in Grand Rapids. Eric said "I have played cribbage all my life but did not realize there were Cribbage Clubs until 2009. I have been playing ever since".

50 Players representing eight states flew or drove to Michigan to take part in the three day Thanksgiving event. If you enjoy cribbage, check out American Cribbage Congress (ACC) because there are clubs throughout the United States. There might be in your backyard!!

took it home a third year as he finished second.

My special tribute to Cribbage World issue 500: this issue of Cribbage World is number 500! You probably noticed all the 500s throughout the December issue.

I was trying to do something special for the 500th issue, so if you go back and count all the words in this column there are exactly 500 words.

Wishing you all a safe and happy New Year!

My Deal

Play smart, play fair, play fast—but mostly play nice

In the June 2013 Cribbage World, I wrote: “The 500th CW will be published in October 2021.” But we are now celebrating #500 three months later than this prediction. What happened? Was there a break in the space-time continuum?

Well, in 2014 and 2015 I published only eleven issues, combining two months each year into a single issue (March/April 2014 and February/March 2015). That accounts for two months, but we are off by three months. How did that happen?

I’ll let you in on a little secret. The June 2013 Cribbage World celebrated the 400th issue of Cribbage World—but it was actually only the 399th! After doing all the counting to determine which CW was the 400th, the CW editorial staff didn’t discover until many years later that in 1983 then-brand-new editor Robert Madsen combined his first two months into a single issue as volume 4 nos. 8–9. As a result, Bob actually edited 28 issues of Cribbage World, not 29 as originally calculated.

So here we are, celebrating #500 in January 2022. And I assure you that that number—500—is correct. There’s absolutely no way there could be a mistake in the counting this time.

So what has Cribbage World brought you these last 500 issues? Here’s a summary of issues, page counts, and average pages per issue under each of CW’s five editors:

editor	issues	pages	average
Arblaster	42	474	11.29
Madsen	28	376	13.43
Monroe	49	844	17.22
Colvert	202	5,452	26.99
Aiken	179	6,636	37.01
totals:	500 CWs	13,782 total pages	27.56 average pages per issue

Few of my current readers will be around when the Cribbage World odometer reaches four digits in September 2061. But if you are, I wish you the best and hope that the editor of #1,000 will still be publishing all the cribbage news that’s fit to print. CW

DeLynn Colvert All Star Tournament

The 31st annual DeLynn Colvert All Star Tournament will be held Thursday, March 3, at 2p at the Sands in Reno NV. Since last year's tournament was canceled, this year's All Star teams will be chosen from the top players from the 2019–20 and 2020–21 seasons.

Any player finishing in their region's top eight for the first time in either season will automatically be on the All Star team. The remainder of each team consists of players who have the highest combined total MRPs from both seasons. Player seeds will be based on the combined MRPs from both seasons.

All Star players—please contact your captain. Captains—please contact your players and alternates. Captains—please have alternates available in case of illness or travel delays. Players must arrive ten minutes early so we can start on time. Contact Roland Hall (707.738.0799) if you have any questions.

In the following list of All Star teams, captain names are listed first in bold, first-time All Star players in italic, two-year MRP totals in parentheses, with All Star alternates listed below the dark line.

Boo! Jack Chandler (Lowell MA) won his first eleven games  in the twelve-game Spooktacular main in Brewer ME on October 30. But in the final game of the qualifying round, Robert Miller (Bangor ME) played trick-or-treat on him and ruined his grand slam by 14 points.

Fifteen-year-old Parker Corkrum (Reno NV) is a 4.0 student, wrestles, and—of course—loves video games. He's been playing cribbage since age five. ↑ He earned his first MRPs at Grand National in Sacramento and then had a good run at the Veterans Day Classic in Reno NV in mid-November. In the semifinals, he faced octogenarian Life Master (3★) Doug Page (Oostburg WI), ↓ who has approximately 1,000 times as many MRPs as Parker.

Doug won their match and went on to win the tourney, but look out for Parker in future years.

TOC

The Syl Lulinski/Tournament of Champions, held in Reno NV every March, is an invitation-only event. There are multiple ways to qualify and—gulp!—we seem to have gotten the criteria wrong. And perhaps for several years!

The December Cribbage World listed the invitation criteria based on the ACC's Policy Manual, but we have since discovered that an important change to the criteria adopted at the 2014 BOD meeting in Phoenix was never incorporated into the manual. (Thanks to Scott Johnson of Fairfield CT for bringing this lapse to the attention of the Executive Committee.)

If you think you should have received an invitation to the TOC but don't see your name on the online list, please contact the directors: Patrick Barrett (715.424.5059) or Todd Schaefer (651.338.8116).

The following criteria are based on accomplishments as of August 31, 2021.

A. one-year invitation

- (1) top 16 finishers in the previous TOC
- (2) anyone with as many MRPs as the 50th player in a region

B. two-year invitation

- (3) winner of a sanctioned main or consolation
- (4) champion of Grass Roots club
- (5) winner of GRNT
- (6) winner of GRRT
- (7) top 10% of members in Grass Roots
- (8) top 10% of members in internet play

C. three-year invitation

- (9) top 50 MRP players from each region

D. ten-year invitation

- (10) TOC champion

E. automatic/lifetime invitation

- (11) anyone reaching Master level (2,000 MRPs) before the end of the season
- (12) anyone reaching Bronze level (1,000 GRPs) before the end of the season
- (13) anyone reaching eMaster level (2,000 IRPs) before the end of the season

Note: you must be an ACC member in good standing in order to play the TOC.

Cribbage Board of the Month BY JAY FULWIDER

The photos and story for this month’s cribbage board come from ACC member Dr. Bernard M. Kitheka ➔ (Springfield MO). Bernard is an assistant professor at Missouri State University.

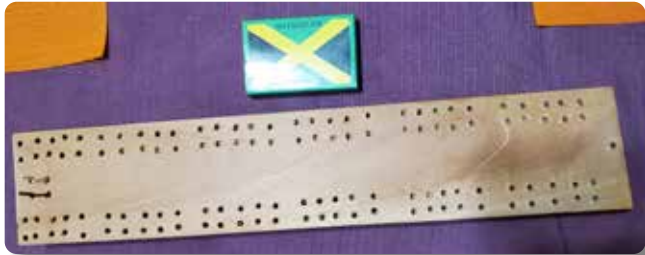

Part of Bernard’s teaching involves eco-tourism. On a recent study trip to Jamaica with students and instructors, he discovered that a colleague was a cribbage player. Unfortunately, there was no cribbage board.

The following day Bernard found a piece of scrap wood. That evening he marked the wood to make a cribbage board. Luckily, his host had a drill, and that night they created a board. The next day they bought some Jamaican-flagged playing cards at a local store, and the cribbage games commenced.

Bernard left the cribbage board for the locals and their group’s next trip in 2022. Just in case the Jamaican board disappears, I sent Bernard a leather folding board for his future travels. That board was made by John Samuels Co. of New York City sometime around the 1940s or ’50s. You have to do whatever it takes to keep on pegging.

CBOM Update

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards in picturesque Washington State, where he also enjoys golf, fishing, and racquetball. His philosophy on the key to life: “Just keep your pegs moving.” Ideas for and questions about this column may be sent to budandotis@msn.com (put “Cribbage Board” in the subject line).

ACC Awards

{Carole's words} Growing up in Montana I learned to play cribbage watching my parents. I don't remember anyone teaching me the game. I moved back to Montana in 2002 and a friend, Ethel LaRock, suggested I join the club in Helena, and I was amazed at the number of clubs and tournaments throughout the country.

I have been champion of the Helena club and my current club in Newport OR. I played tournaments a few years before I got my first win, a main event in Cheyenne WY in 2014. Since then I have won eleven tournaments (two mains and nine consolations). My most memorable was the Grand National consolation in New Hampshire in 2019. I earned my Grand Master ranking in September at the Gem State Classic in Boise ID. My toughest opponent is Jim Langley. I enjoy bowling, golf, quilting, machine embroidery, and knitting. It is rumored that I am James Morrow's nemesis in playoffs.

Charlene's grandfather taught her how to play cribbage. She joined the ACC in 2012, and her first of many cribbage mentors was Ray Wanke. Her first tournament win was Daytona Beach in 2015; she has now won one main and five consolations.

She earned her Grand Master ranking at the Sacramento Grand National. C.C.'s favorite tournaments are the Montana roundups. Her toughest opponent is Mary Gates. And her favorite cribbage moment this year? Winning Canadian Doubles and then being high qualifier in Helena MT in the fall roundup! In between tournaments C.C. enjoys traveling and visiting cribbage family and friends.

Charlene Cohen
(Saint Cloud FL)
Grand Master #449

{Barb's words} My best friend Peggy Shea got me involved in cribbage. She said, "Come on, you can add"—and that was the beginning of my cribbage life. My first Grass Roots club was River City Peggers in Sacramento CA. It still ranks as the best with me. I've never won a main (a couple of second places), but I have captured four consolations. Favorite cribbage moment: in the GN 38 main playoffs in New Hampshire, I went five games in one match and needed a 24-hand to win—and I got it! I said "I am so sorry" and got up and gave my opponent a big hug. How crazy was that? Me-time involves quilting, walking, reading, but my family is my pride. I have made great friends through cribbage, and the impact on my life is unbelievable.

The Inside Track

by Rob Medeiros

Let's revisit my hand from November: I need eight with first count, and the dealer needs three. My hand is A-5-5-6-9-J, and I kept A-5-5-J, reasoning that I wanted the Jack to lead because two 5s are out of circulation and dealer would tend to keep peggers instead of picture cards. The Jack also provides a 25% chance of picking up an extra point with the right cut, just in case the cut card provides no help to our hand. The dealer ended up having A-2-3-Q, so there was no way for me to avoid him no matter how he played the hand.

I asked for feedback from readers, and the two emails with the best reasoning were from Dan Selke, who advocated for A-5-5-9 with an Ace lead (it wouldn't have worked but the logic was sound), and Don Brown, who would keep 5-5-6-J and lead the Jack (this one would have worked with the particular cards the dealer kept). The cut card was a King so I had enough in my hand in case I navigated the pegging landmines.

Thank you to all who sent in emails. I thoroughly enjoyed the feedback!

Rob Medeiros—who always holds the right Jack—can be reached at mrob2199@aol.com.

An advertisement for the game Cribbage JD. At the top, five playing cards are fanned out: 5 of diamonds, 10 of hearts, Jack of clubs, King of spades, and 5 of clubs. Below the cards, the text "CRIBBAGE JD" is written in large, bold, white letters with a black outline. Underneath that, "cardsjd.com" is written in a smaller, plain font. In the center is a wooden cribbage board with a blue and red track. At the bottom, there are two buttons: "Download on the App Store" with the Apple logo, and "GET IT ON Google play" with the Google Play logo.

The Magedanz Chronicles

Get Their Cut The semifinal match of the Wishbone Open main between Clay Collier (Beatrice NE) and Ann Trotter (Green Bay WI) was tied at 2-2. With Ann leading, Clay needed a big cut. He gets a dandy 24-cut, only to have Ann go out before he can count it. 5-cuts will do that. Speaking of 24-hands, Jane Vander Loop (Sun Prairie WI) needed her second 24 of the game to beat Susie Hannibal (Grand Rapids MI) by only six and advance to the semifinals.

Dreaded Covid Hand Before leaving Grand Rapids MI to head home, Kathy Pacocha climbed on a chair for our traditional good-bye hug. Troy and Kathy host Club 345 at their home in Loveland CO. She explained that when someone gets a 19-hand or 19-crib, they call it a “covid.” A covid was called out by a player, Kathy cried out that she also had a covid; from yet another table was heard: “We got a major outbreak here—I got one too!”

Moving Out It’s never a good time for a 3-hand unless you’re only three points from winning. If you’re gonna get a 3-hand it’s best to get it early in the game and even better when the dealer has nothing. That’s what happened at the Wishbone Open consy to June Fordham (Annapolis MD). Stingy John Hazlett (Grand Rapids MI) was dealer and after dust cleared and hands counted, June was in hole 3. Not to fear, John was also in hole 3.

Double Covid? At Grand Rapids MI, Jim Mahan (Appleton WI) was complaining about how he couldn’t deal out from ten and ended up losing the game. The “38 special” of 19 and 19 was to blame. Mark Smith (Marshalltown IA) was also the recipient of the famous 38. Mark said it was his first ever since joining the ACC eleven years ago. I wonder if they call this a “double covid” in Loveland CO?

GN40 Director Scott Kooistra (Yankton SD) retired on July 21, 2021. His plans are to travel the USA from August to August promoting GN40. He hopes to pick up some $ and MRPs along the way and play golf. Seems to be working, as he has already played golf in twenty-one states and amassed 15,000 miles. He is pictured ♠ playing at Appleton WI, where he codirected the Madison Master tournament.

Finally Over I’m happy to report Keith Widener’s run of skunking me is over! Now if I could only remember how to beat him. Maybe if I dealt him lots of 2-hands (T-U-E).

Pegging Machine Jimmy McCarty (Racine WI) previously pegged eighteen twice in one tournament and had Ann Trotter raise the bar to nineteen. Jimmy was not about to stand still for that. While playing Jim Mahan (Appleton WI) at the Jingle Bell consy, he raised the bar to twenty. Here is how the play went:

Jim	3	3 (for 6)	1	2
Jimmy	3 (for 2)	3 (for 12)	5	4 (for 6)

While Jimmy was busy picking up holes, Ed Balcer (Duluth MN) was busy picking up pearls, or should I say a string of pearls.

Gay Apparel Can anyone guess who's wearing these sparkly red elf shoes? His favorite saying is "Don we now our gay apparel." It comes as no surprise when I say tournament director Al Karr (Green Bay WI). He loves to dress the part ➡ at his Jingle Bell Open.

Big Hands I've always had big hands, measuring 10½" from thumb to pinky.

This makes palming the basketball easy. During our match at the Jingle Bell Open, Jim Swett (Crystal Lake IL) was complaining about the size of my hands. Not my actual hands, but my cribbage hands of 12 and 14. So as not to disappoint him, I cranked it up a notch. I had back-to-back 24s, but still couldn't skunk him. Now, Dan Pluff (Saint Paul MN) wasn't as nice to sweet Bonnie Anderson (Gladstone MI): Dan had a 28 and a 24 to skunk her.

Rings It Home Low qualifier Henry Brandner (Medford WI) "rings" home the gold. ➡ The Jingle Bell Open main was a test of the best. In the final game, Wayne Steinmetz (Hartland WI) was no match for Henry.

COOL STUFF WE FOUND ON THE WEB

The police log from Forest Grove OR had a cribbage-related post that will resonate with anyone who's ever played license-plate cribbage. On January 28, 2021, "a citizen flagged down an officer to let him know that his license plate numbers would be a good cribbage hand." To read the report, go to forestgrove-or.gov/police and type "cribbage" in the search box. Thanks to Jodi Smith (Waldport OR) for the heads-up on this. Side note: Forest Grove is the hometown of Jodi and her uncle, cribbage fanatic Frank Ornie, who introduced her to the ACC.

ACC tournaments will not be held on Christmas or New Year's day.

We mourn the passing of Debra Moulies (debncorbin), longtime ACC member and eCribbage TD. Deb had just earned her eMaster Award and was very proud of it! She also participated in bowling tournaments. Deb was a fixture at eCribbage as a player from its beginning and a TD and greeter for over a dozen years. She will be sorely missed.

The second annual International Cribbage Day event, a best-of-seven tournament, is fast approaching. Please see last month's Cribbage World for info, with more details at this link: cribbage.org > Play Online > This Month's News.

Please pay extra special attention to everything listed by ICD TD Teri Murdy to explain specifics, plus the FAQ link. You do not have to be on the Facebook ACC Community page to participate. Every participant will be sent an email list to use to contact their opponent in order to set up their match, and all match results can be emailed to Teri or James. However, your ACC membership must be paid up by the close of tourney registration on January 7 as this is an ACC members-only, special tournament sanctioned by the ACC for IRP. Join us!

I am looking for PRO donations from players. Prizes will be awarded to the ICD event final four and also to winners of each regular eCribbage ACC tourney during the week of February 7. If interested in donating, please email me at accjudgetest@gmail.com. I will send you easy directions to follow. Thanks in advance!

GAME ON

Teaching Tip

I recently taught a class of nineteen fourth graders. We met twice a week for 45-minute sessions. For the first two weeks the students did not touch a cribbage board or cards (except five-minute warmup drills to practice shuffling). Instruction was done on an oversized cribbage board with a giant deck of cards, and we learned to identify 15s, runs, pairs, flushes, and so on. We spent a full class on just the pegging process. In week three, I invited a fellow cribbage player into the classroom with me. We split the class into two groups, and each supervised a team as they played their first game of cribbage. Kids worked together, sharing their limited knowledge of the game. It took the entire class time to move one street, but then the lights went on! Now, students are playing cribbage confidently on their own, learning more about the game with every hand. I hope this inspires others to get out and work with our kids. My teaching manual is available to assist you in the classroom by requesting it at danthefan@yahoo.com.

News

The 28th annual Sierra Youth Cribbage Tournament will take place Saturday, February 26, in Grass Valley CA. Any child or young adult eighteen or younger is eligible to play. An informational flyer is available by sending a request to danthefan@yahoo.com. Please note, if your child has played in this event before, you are on our mailing list and will be emailed a flyer soon.

A huge thank you to Bill and Bambi Klem (Auburn WA) for their generous donation of fifteen cribbage boards. The boards were given to students learning cribbage at Ready Springs School in Penn Valley CA so they can practice at home.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

Vol I Nr 1

March 1980

OUR STORY

It began at the National Open Cribbage Tournament last August in Raleigh, North Carolina. Here is how it happened.

Cribbage leaders and players from across the country, each of them competing in the National Open, were vocal in their concern about the game of Cribbage on a national basis. They were aware of the proliferation of local and regional associations everywhere & they agreed to a man that this was good for the venerable old game. But, they were concerned that there might be a fly in the ointment.

Among the many regional groups promoting the game was the International Cribbage Association based in Gardena, California. The ICA is headed up by John Mixer, undoubtedly one of the finest players anywhere in the world. John, in fact, won the National Open in 1978, breezing through the double elimination event without suffering a loss.

At the time of last year's National Open, the ICA was involved in a vigorous campaign to solicit members and sell stock. This, in a nutshell, was what was bothering the players in Raleigh. They were openly anxious about a cribbage organization which was obviously structured for personal profit. They didn't like this approach & wanted to do something about it.

The result of their concern was a meeting in Raleigh of about 15 players from different regions of the country. When the dust had settled, following this meeting, the American Cribbage Congress had been formed. Its goal to promote the game of cribbage on a truly national basis, at a minimum cost to its members, and under the guidance of a national Board of Directors which in turn would be given direction by an Executive Committee made up of acknowledged cribbage leaders from not just one region but from a large geographic area.

Specifically, the Congress was to be an incorporated, nonprofit organization with a definite constitution and detailed set of by-laws. We are very pleased to inform you that each of these steps have been completed and we're off and running.

There have been some bumps along the way, but thanks to the generosity & diligence of those 15 people, and many others who first saw the need for a national organization, the bumps have been paved over. The original members of the Board contributed $250 to get the Congress off the ground, and have made subsequent donations to cover formation expenses such as legal fees, mailing permits, bonding of our Secretary-Treasurer, printing costs for our new and beautiful stationery, and other sundry items that were felt to be beyond the realm of cost underwriting from membership dues.

There has been only one cloud on the horizon, one which the Congress has had no part in, and which we have steadfastly tried to ignore simply because it was felt that any type of comment or reference to it might lend it credence it does not deserve.

The problem is a campaign of vilification which has been waged for the past six months by the ICA through its newsletter and series of letters to individuals associated with the Congress. Our Executive Committee has soundly rebuffed these smear tactics, and though the inclination has been strong to counterattack, we have refrained since we honestly believe that the best interest of Cribbage would not be served by such a step.

We intend to continue with this approach, but it was strongly felt that a brief explanation was in order, in this, our very first Congress edition of Cribbage World.

We have no beef with the ICA, in fact, several of our members have attempted to help ICA. The mailing list for the National Open for instance, which was evolved over the past seven years, was sent to the ICA to assist in a membership drive. Congress President Joseph P. Wergin of Madison, Wisconsin, one of the world's leading authorities on card games, has traveled to Gardena and has carried on a long interchange of letters with ICA officials in an attempt to bring an end to the ICA's apparent purpose of sabotaging the Congress.

These steps however have so far made no difference to ICA officials, with one exception. The ICA has apparently changed its corporate structure following correspondence with Congress officials. They tell us they no longer are in business for profit, and if this is true, we are extremely happy about it. There is no room for self-aggrandizement in the promotion of our game. Nevertheless, the ICA which is basically a West Coast organization, continues its attack. So be it. The Congress will continue to disregard these attacks and apparent jealousies so far espoused by the ICA.

Following the organization meeting last August, a 26-member Board of Directors was named and a nine member Executive Committee was appointed. The Executive Committee met in closed session in Cincinnati in January and began the nuts and bolts steps involved in making the American Cribbage Congress the most visible association of its type in the country.

Under the expert guidance of President Joseph Petrus Wergin, committees were formed in the important areas of constitution and by-laws, tournament and league playing rules, awards program, tournament and league sanctioning, player ratings and several other areas where it was felt that input from the national headquarters would be consequential.

The Executive Committee members, who met in Cincinnati at their own expense, shared their ideas and concepts in each of these areas, and agreed to personally chair each of the committees formed.

Such specific items as incorporation, membership newsletter production, etc. were also discussed and acted on. It was decided to incorporate in North Carolina because the National Open is held there and Board meetings would be easy to organize during the big tournament every August. A prominent North Carolina law firm, one of whose members is himself a nationally prominent Bridge and Cribbage player, agreed to undertake the process of incorporation, a process that has been completed. Membership dues were to be kept to an absolute minimum, and the figure of $2 was agreed upon. The production and distribution of our newsletter was delegated to Secretary-Treasurer Jim Ar-Master of Kissimmee, Florida. In other words, the Congress was in business....

This is our story. But, it is only the first chapter. There is more, much more to be written, and that is where you can play a part. We hope you already belong to a Cribbage Association for there are many fine organizations in the states of California, Colorado, Florida, Hawaii, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Rhode Island and Wisconsin. The Congress actively supports this organizations and has already begun dialogue with many of the officers of these fine groups to help in

Grand National 40

It's not too early to make plans to attend Grand National 40 in Omaha NE on September 23–25. You won't want to miss the first Grand National in the state of Nebraska!

The first thing to do is make your hotel reservation.

Room rates are $89 for a king or two queens (slightly higher for suites). You must call Comfort Inn directly at 402.934.4900 and mention cribbage to receive this rate.

This great week of cribbage also includes a midweek tourney: the Cornhusker Cribbage Classic on September 20–22. This is held at the same hotel, so be sure to make your hotel reservation accordingly.

For more info, call or text GN director Scott Kooistra at 605.661.7081.

Best Lifetime Scores from All Three Divisions

This list contains ACC members who appear in all three lists on the previous pages: MRPs, GRPs, and IRPs. Their ranks from these three lists were added together to obtain a total (third column), which was then sorted numerically. The lower the total number, the higher the player's ranking. ➡

CBOM Update

by Jay Fulwider

I have new information on the brass board (top photo) in the November 2021 Cribbage Board of the Month column. It was listed as a new product in The American Stationer catalog on February 24, 1900 (page 14). The board was manufactured by H. D. Phelps of Astonia CT and sold through the catalog.

Thanks to Cec Bradshaw and Terry Coons of the Cribbage Board Collectors Society for alerting me to this. Also, thank you to all ACC members who have provided update information over the years.

Patrick Ward
(Bothell WA)
Gold #159

{Patrick's words} I learned to play cribbage in my early twenties, when I worked for Boeing. I joined the ACC in 1988 when I attended my first ACC tournament in Oregon. A short time later, twelve of us who played in the local tavern circuit started Sno-King Peggars Club

108—and we have been going strong ever since. My cribbage mentor was my father-in-law, Tom Markham, a formidable opponent who learned to play cribbage in the Navy. Our club's biggest asset is our members. Everyone is a good player, and an easy game is rare. My toughest opponent is the same as for everybody in club: Lowell Bailey. My wife and I are both retired, with five married kids and ten grandchildren. It is with good fortune that we all live in the same area and can spend a lot of time together, sharing holidays and other life events.

{Barri's words} My mom taught me to play cribbage in Illinois when I was in second grade after a bout of cold weather. After moving to Atlanta, a friend told me about a club at a local watering hole. We checked it out, and I met the players of Club 119. I got my first Grass Roots points in the third week, and a few weeks later got my first 28-hand—in my crib! I was fortunate enough to win the club championship once. Tom Calvert is my toughest opponent on a week-to-week basis, but Dave O'Neil taught me board position and Steve Angier taught defensive tosses. My first tournament win was Savannah 2002. I was low qualifier and had to play my riding partner Dave O'Neil in the first round; after making him promise not to make me walk home, I won all my subsequent matches. My favorite tournament is National Open in Raleigh, where I have been fortunate enough to take third and fifth. In the year I placed third, I was playing John Morch for the 2/3 position, having already split the fabled Henry Douglass side pool with him when leading 6-0 in our match. I was feeling good, with second place minimum within my grasp. Bystanders playfully needled me about splitting the pool, but John reeled off three wins in row. In game seven, I am up fifteen points on late second street only to give John a 28-hand followed by a 20. My only solace was letting the bystanders know I was glad I split the side pool. Neither John nor I have forgotten that day, and we speak of it often. One day revenge will be mine, John!

Club 96 (Rapid City SD) has seen two grand slams so far this year, by Tony Bifulco and Frank Webb. In addition, Howard Pearson found a 29-hand.

Club 194 (Eureka CA)—Russ Owsley

deserves a pat on the back. This semiretired millworker not only supports the cribbage community, he and his wife Jacky often volunteer, most notably at the local St. Vincent De Paul dining facility, preparing and delivering meals to folks stuck at home during Covid lockdowns. The folks at Club 194 want us to know about this truly nice guy!

Best club announcement of the month!

Bring a jacket tonight. Furnace still broken.

Club 22 (Greater Orlando FL)—Howard Terry shows off his very first 29-hand!

Club 360 (Pahrump NV)—Mike Green displays his first-ever 29-hand. He needed only one point to win. Pretty good for a guy who has never had a 28-hand!

Club 368 (Ishpeming MI)—club director Tom Butcher had the first grand slam of the season on November 24.

Club 295 (Rochester Hills MI)—the hits won't stop! On November 23 Laurie Sagal ➔ got a 28-hand, and the following week it was the turn of new member Pierre Moncion.

◀ Pierre has been playing cribbage for many years but joined our club and the ACC just a couple of months ago. We have now had three 28s and a 29 in only a month!

Club 71 (Grand Rapids MI)—the ACC's favorite astronaut, Christina Hammock Koch, was in town recently. While she didn't have time to stop by club, she did autograph an official NASA photo for us and also posed with her uncle, club member William Homrich. ⬇ Christina holds the record for longest continuous time in space by a woman and is a member of NASA's upcoming Artemis program to return to the moon.

Club 110 (Honolulu HI) was stuck in limbo for twenty-two months but is now back at the tables. After being seven points short of getting Gold, Roy Wong won game nine in week #1 to get the necessary twelve points! We had a hearty crowd of fourteen in attendance, with guests John Kern from CA and Amanda Moquin from FL joining us. In week #2, Roy was 0/0 –177 after four games, having gotten skunked by Karel Kon, Angela Shiro, Amanda Moquin, and John Kern; he then skunked Ken Ching and rattled off four more wins to almost get points with 11/5 –107. Roy also had to play an extra game with Angela, and he skunked her by 42. Roy has been club champion ten times.

Never Give Up ♦ by Ann Trotter (Green Bay WI)

At the Gold Dust West Fall Festival in Carson City NV on November 6, I won only five games after playing eleven games and breaking for lunch. I said to myself: "You can lose only two games after lunch." And here's what happened. Never say never! (Maybe I should buy a lifetime supply of the box lunches they served.)

Never give up!

championship twice—in 2020 and 2021.*

IN MEMORY OF CRIBBAGE FRIENDS

Chuck Carpenter

Chuck Carpenter (Kalamazoo MI), a member of Club 321 in Kalamazoo passed away on November 21 at age seventy-five. Chuck was a quiet, unassuming player and will be sorely missed by his family and all the members of our cribbage family.

Debra Vandermoss Moulies

Debra Moulies (Ellenton FL) passed away on December 4 at age sixty-one. A member of Club 328 in Bradenton FL, "Tie Dye Deb" is now playing with fellow Floridian James Coffey in cribbage heaven. The loss of her leg fourteen years ago did not stop Deb from playing in cribbage tournaments throughout the country, as well as online. Deb had just received her eMaster trophy and was very proud of it! Deb excelled at wheelchair bowling tournaments for the last eleven years and enjoyed life to the fullest. Deb was a crucial part of eCribbage for over a dozen years, as both eCribbage TD and ACC TD, usually on Tuesdays. She started the greeter program to help new players and to help the TD in the lobby during check-in. Players and TDs missed Deb during the last couple of months of her hospitalization and feel a gaping hole now. A memorial tournament is being held in her honor at eCribbage. RIP Deb.

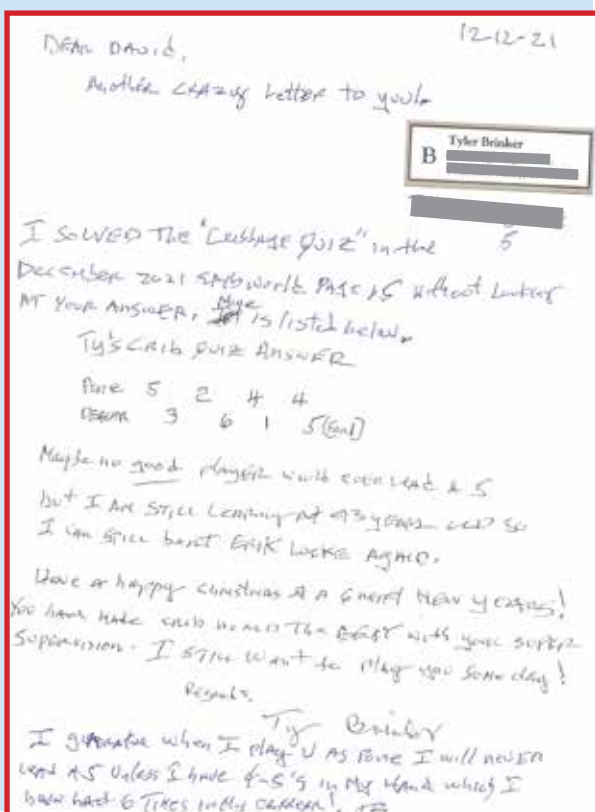

Marie Osterback

On September 20, Alaska Club 177 lost an amazing lady who lived an amazing life. Born in 1928 in a community where public education ended in grade school, Marie Osterback (Anchorage AK) was orphaned before she was a year old but went on to build and run a movie theater, roller skating rink, bakery, restaurant, and variety store. She and her husband fished Bristol Bay in a forty-foot boat built by her husband with Marie at the helm and her husband manning the nets—and their first two toddler children onboard! After her husband was elected to state government, they both earned their GEDs and received their diplomas on the floor of the Alaska State Legislature. As a cribbage player, Marie was quick to laugh and always had a twinkle in her eye. Although Covid restrictions prevented her from playing with us for the last year, in her late 80s Marie took first place in an all-day cribbage tournament and then went out dancing with her friends. Congratulations, Marie, on a life well lived.

Robert D. Watkins

Robert (Bob) Watkins (Brookings OR) passed away on November 15 at the age of eighty-one. Bob helped start the cribbage club in St Johns OR. He enjoyed playing cribbage and the people he met through cribbage. He acquired numerous cribbage boards and enjoyed the game immensely.

Think Big!

by Joseph Parnus Wergin, President

We are thinking big for 1983. We are in contact with officials in Reno and Las Vegas for the purpose of staging the second annual Congress Convention and Tournament in one of these convention centers. They are anxious to have us. This writer and Dick Graham, our director from Denver, are in contact with the Nevada hotel people.

Attention Cribbage Generals: Let's have some kind of a get-together at the Congress gathering in Milwaukee come September. Generals, do you have any ideas?

You cribbage and sports fans will enjoy the Marriott Hotel in Milwaukee as it is the hub for visiting athletic teams, especially members of the NFL. The hotel officials have indicated that the Marriott is interested in housing the Cribbage Hall of Fame.

In the future, entry forms should include the membership number of tournament players so that Bob Head, our Master Point statistician, will have an easier time of recording rating points.

John Blowers Tops In Florida

John Blowers, a player from Canabow, FL, came away with the 136-player Florida Open. Blowers is a member of the United States Cribbage Club, and is competing for the title of 136-player champion with 175 MPP's (total qualifying this year 1830).

Ron Cantrell, a player from Blaine, NC, is the ACC's Master and he can add the name to his list of titles. He won the 136-player Florida Open in 1982, and after qualifying for the MPP this year 1830, he finished a year 1830.

Chris Hagerman, Illinois, FL, and John Cantrell, England, FL, finished 3rd and 4th.

Chris Lutz, Danvers, FL, had the tie-break in the qualifying round, ending between the two players in a tie-break. Lutz had a combined score of 1830.

"Cribbage" started in the 18th century. The game was created by a player named John Blowers. It was first played in 1830, and it was first published in 1830.

40 Years Ago

The cover of the January 1982 Cribbage World again displayed President Joe Wergin's signature slogan: "Think Big!" Following his habit of tossing out ideas, among other things Joe proposed a match between the top ten rated men and the top ten rated women. Elsewhere we find this tidbit: ➡

My wife Agnes says, "Sure God created man before woman - but then you always make a rough draft before the final masterpiece."

25 Years Ago

The cover of the January 1997 Cribbage World announced that John Blowers (FL) won the 136-player Florida Open. Elsewhere we read that the late, great Paul Hatcher (OR) became the ACC's 24th Life Master. Paul was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2005.

COOL STUFF FROM THE WEB

An article in the Wall Street Journal, entitled "The Most Over-the-Top Board Games In Existence," features upscale (read: "expensive") versions of many classic games: backgammon for $1,995, chess for $2,890, tic-tac-toe for $1,025, dominoes for $2,400, mahjong for $40,000 (nope, not a typo!). The featured cribbage board—priced at $6,000—is made of polished aluminum. The sterling-silver pegs have crowns of jasper, malachite, and lapis lazuli. For the cribbage player who has everything . . . now you don't! To read the full article, go to wsj.com and type "cribbage" in the search box (you may have to create a temporary WSJ account). Thanks to Jeff Gardner (Lewis Center OH) for the heads-up on this.
