

CRIBBAGE WORLD

Volume 7 - Number 5

May 1986

ELECTIONS

Ballots will be mailed within the next few days to each member of the American Cribbage Congress for the 1986 elections to the Board of Directors.

31 members in good standing from 17 states have "tossed hats into the ring" and have declared their candidacies for 12 board positions.

Jim Arplaster - Kissimmee, Florida

A founding member and charter member of the ACC, a Board of Directors member since the inception of the ACC, the first secretary-treasurer and first editor of Cribbage World, former Rules committee chairperson and organizer of the Cribbader Generals.

I have always fought for and pledge to continue to speak up for the rights of all cribbage players wherever they reside.

Gene "Moose" Beigler - West Bend, Wisconsin

Tournament Director of the biggest it-the one-day tournament in the ACC, charter member, co-chairman for the development of international tournaments.

Barbara Buntrock - Cedarburg, Wisconsin
Education: BBA - Accounting. CPA.

Occupation: Internal Audit Manager.
Past Treasurer of Condominium Association. Campaign promises: Will attend all meetings and work for the betterment of the ACC.

Interest is high, among all those in the running, toward improving the ACC and making it an even better organization in the future.

Listed below, in alphabetical order, are the names of the 31 candidates and a brief autobiography where one was received by the Cribbage World.

John E. Chambers - Esmund, Rhode Island

Charter member and original director of the ACC, Judge at the National Open Cribbage Tournament, Founder and President of the Rhode Island Cribbage Association, Director of the Rhode Island Cribbage Open, Author of "Cribbage: A New Concept."

Al Dinwoodie - Slocum, Rhode Island
I'm 43 years old, married, with two grown children and live in Slocum, RI. I've been a Golf Course Superintendent for 20 years. I have recently returned to Quinnessett Country Club in North Kingstown, RI, a private 18-hole golf course.

I went to my first cribbage tournament four years ago--the 2nd Annual Rhode Island Cribbage Open. Until then I never knew there was competitive cribbage played. I've been hooked on competitive cribbage since then. We've met so many nice people at the tournaments and have traveled all over the country.

DeLynn Colvert - Missoula, Montana
I am director of the Montana Open and Montana Championship tournaments. I have authored a book "Playing Winning Cribbage," representing a 20-year study of data resulting in my "26 Theory." I was the first Congress member from Montana.

Shirley Fitzpatrick - Milwaukee, Wisconsin
Use my past experience in organized activities to help build on the foundation already created by the ACC and to promote the game of cribbage along with goodwill of the members.

Robert Gilbert - Ankeny, Iowa
Retired; I have attended all meetings since my appointment to the Board of Directors. I am publicity director for the Cornbelt Classic and I have worked diligently to sign up new members and to increase tournament attendance. The Grass Roots is of great interest to me and I pledge to promote the ACC whenever possible.

Diak Graham - Englewood, Colorado
Age 59, lawyer, present Chairman of the Board, charter member, Director of the Rocky Mountain Cribbage Tournaments (3) for nine years, Director of the 1985 ACC Grand National, former Coordinator of the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas.

Harriette G. Haight - Ann Arbor, Michigan
Broker-Owner, Haight Realty, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Director of four sanctioned tournaments since 1984. Signed up 29 new ACC members and added many more through my promotion. I'm and I are active participants in many cribbage tournaments. I plan to organize a local "Grass Roots" club in the fall.

Scott Kooistra - Yankton, South Dakota
Charter member and ACC Director for 4 years; All-American Team 3 times; Co-Director of Minnesota Open and Capital City Tournaments; Director of the 1986 ACC Grand National. I hope to increase tournament participation through better organization and added enjoyment.

Bill Irons - Sparks, Nevada
Born in a chicken coop, Crow Wing County, MN. Sioux Indian, disabled American veteran, parachutist in WWII, professional boxer. Worked Indian roles in the movies and national television. Peggin' 51 years.

Bob Julian - Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Luis Lizarribar Martinez, Georgia
Born: January 22, 1921 in Juncoos, Puerto Rico. Parents: Spanish. College: University of Puerto Rico, BBA. Business: worked both with steamship owners and as steamship agent. Married: Delia Buxo-Selles. Children: Three; Lydia, Lawyer; Luis, CPA; Jose Luis, MD. Hobbies: First, Cribbage; Second, Cribbage; Third, Cribbage.

Syl Lulinski - La Grange Park, Illinois
I am the Tournament Commissioner of the ACC and a member of the Board of Directors. I have played in tournaments in nine states. There are six of the Lulinski clan in the ACC.

Ivan Lux - Minden, Nebraska
Sod-house-born Nebraskan; 40-year cribbage player; founder of the first Nebraska Grass Roots Cribbage Club; ex-school teacher; 25 years of manufacturing experience; retired; father of four grown children.

Bob Madsen - Niles, Illinois
I am a charter member of the ACC and I am presently the Secretary-Treasurer of the ACC. I was the Tournament Director of the Grand National in Chicago in 1984 and a former editor of the Cribbage World. I have been an active member of the Board of Directors and the ACC and I pledge continued diligence if elected.

Bob McCabe - Brown Deer, Wisconsin

Fred McGibney - South Burlington, Vermont
Vermont Cribbage Tournament, Co-founder and Co-director; National Open Tournament, Raleigh, NC, Chairman; Losers, Losers Tournament, 1985, Chairman; Sunday Special Tournament, 1986; Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, The Merchants Bank in Vermont.

Jack Miller - Northfield, Minnesota
I have been a member of the ACC for over 5 years, have assisted with the operating of a few major tournaments. Being practical about players' concerns, I recognize the need for a good working relationship.

Dale Munroe - Unionville, Connecticut

I am a self-employed partner in an engineering consulting firm and have the time, energy, and interest to devote to the obligations and responsibilities of a member of the ACC Board of Directors. As the present editor of Cribbage World, I am devoted to making it the best publication possible. Your vote will be appreciated.

Dick Orden - Des Moines, Iowa

I am 49 years old, have been playing cribbage for 43 years. Member of the ACC for 4 years, director of Des Moines, IA, Charter #17 Grass Roots Cribbage Club. Have played in 11 major cribbage Tournaments. Play approximately 150 games of cribbage a week. I'm a self-employed roofing contractor. I thank everyone for the opportunity to run for the Board of Directors.

Bob Plourde - Unionville, Connecticut

I am a space and layout consultant for a large corporation and the current associate editor of the Cribbage World. I ask for your vote and pledge to work on behalf of all the membership if I am elected to the ACC Board of Directors.

Robert A. Reed - Winter Garden, Florida

I am one of the founding members of the ACC, a member of the Board of Directors from 1979-84, served as assistant secretary as Master Rating Point statistician from 1980-83, and a member of the Rules Committee from 1979-84. I have received the "President's Special Award" and was a member of the committee that developed our current master point system. I am active in the Florida Cribbage Association and am currently the director of the Greater Orlando Cribbage Club. I am presently co-authoring a handbook on the "Grass Roots Project." I was the runner-up at the 10th National Open. If elected to the Board, I will strive to further the concept of the "Grass Roots Project."

Joan Rein - Carver, Minnesota

An avid cribbage player who enjoys people, co-directs a couple of tournaments, runs a weekly league and wants to "keep on pegging" for you as a director for the Congress.

M. K. "Butch" Reynolds - Santa Maria, California

Leo Shwedersky (Shad-us-kee) - Lyndon Station, Wisconsin

Inumbent, Director of local Grass Roots, Charter #19, Mr. and Mrs. Cribbage 1983, winner of Tournament of Champions 1983, sponsors Wisconsin Dells Classic Tournament, travels on job promoting cribbage everywhere. Platform: Election of Directors by regions, improving Cribbage World Magazine, stronger youth program, more advertising Congress ideals and programs, and will attend meetings.

Joe Seiple - Coventry, Connecticut

I am dedicated to improving tournaments by encouraging Directors to experiment with formats that will help the average player to finish in the playoffs. I also feel there should be more assistance to Tournament Directors by the ACC.

Jeff Shimp - Allegan, Michigan

A founding member of the ACC; Board of Directors since the inception of the ACC; frequent judge and helper at tournaments; devoted many hours toward rules revisions for consideration of the Board of Directors for revised rules booklet; advocate of player protection policy and uniformity of tournament rules and operations.

John Williams - Robbinsdale, Minnesota

Current member of the Board of Directors; 2 years Assistant Director Minnesota Open 1983-1984; 2 years Director Minnesota Open 1985-1986; 2 years runner-up for Guy Pence Award for recruiting new members.

Paul Woytovich - Hickory, North Carolina

Born: Shamokin, PA. Age: 55. Married with 3 children. Graduate of University of Maryland, BBA. Military Service: U.S. Army, Korean War. Worked as a Federal civil servant (bureaucrat) in the areas of finance, budget, administration starting with the U.S. Navy Department in 1948. Transferred to NASA in 1961 and continued similar work until retirement in 1979. Cribbage enthusiast participating in sanctioned tournaments since 1979. Interested in the expansion and promotion of the game of cribbage not only with the "zillions of cribbage games over the kitchen tables" but with organized grass-roots clubs and ACC sanctioned tournaments.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Joseph Petrus Wergin

THE YOUTH PROGRAM

Several people have been involved attempting to get a Youth Program rolling. Pat and Frank O'Connor in Dedham, MA, have staged tournaments for the young people, and they were probably the most successful. Charlie Steinhauer and Leo Schwedzsky had side tournaments for the youth while their major tournaments were operating at Mt. Horeb and Wisconsin Dells, WI. Ralph Madsen and John Swett did the same thing when the Crystal Lake majors were playing. In the two latter promotions, there were only 8 or 10 players. The program has been more or less a failure.

A Youth Program must start at home. The O'Connors taught all their children, and the Swett family did the same. Almost everyone I ask, replies: "Why dad taught me" or "Grandfather taught me when I was just a kid."

Every member of the Congress must get into the act. Take the time to teach your own children or grandchildren how to play. The kids will always be grateful to you.

There are a number of teachers on the middle school level who have instructed their students in the fundamentals of cribbage during the recess periods, especially in the northern states. The teachers always remark that grades in mathematics shoot upwards for these cribbage neophytes.

HOW THE MEMBERS OF RSYVP CAN HELP

A program coordinator for the Retired Senior Volunteer Program called me last week and asked me to teach cribbage at the Orchard Ridge Middle School here in Madison. These people are teaching various skills such as golf, knitting, fly casting, bird watching, etc., in which they have particular proficiency. The school allotts 2 hours a day for one week each spring to this program. There will be two groups in cribbage, each for one hour of time. That is about the concentration limit for children of this age.

The Jupiters play once a week for 40 weeks. Rating points are based upon the number of entries. About 30 weeks have been completed.

PLAN AHEAD

If you want to organize a club for Grass Root competition next fall, begin the foundation work now. Locate a site to play, decide upon the night you wish to have the club meet and then start signing up players. Be ready for the kickoff in early September.

EXCITEMENT IN BEND

"What a night! We had 38 players with 12 guests," writes Dale Brandon in his weekly report.

"Two 28 hands by Carl Larson and Paul Dyer," continued the Director of Oregon's Best #12 Charter, "and then a 29 hand by Marty Symons, who did not even make the prize list."

Carl Larson scored .17 and gained 26 rating points after the 12 guests were deducted.

Symons' twenty-niner was the fourth of the season in the Grass Roots.

SONDERICKER AND MICHAELIS

SEEN STREAKING IN CRYSTAL LAKE, IL

The 1985 and 1984 Master Point Leaders kept their clothes on but had one hot challenge match with a best six out of eleven play-off series. Warren started off winning the first four games. Mick stuck in there and found himself down five games to two as he started dealing the eighth game. As luck would have it, Mick then matched Warren's streak of winning four games in a row to take the match six games to five. As Yogi says, "it's never over until it's over."

CAPAUL REGAINS LEAD

"Vince, what's the reason for your being a big winner in the Grass Roots this year?" asked Jim Fritz who travels about 50 miles to the Madison tournaments. "Consistency," answered the recently retired Monoma cribber.

"Please note that I have been on the rating point list in 14 of the 30 tournaments we have played here in Madison," added the veteran cribbage addict. "On every hand I try to do what I should, and the Law of Averages takes care of me."

DID YOU KNOW?

When playing cards first appeared in the 14th century, the four suits were known in Germany as hearts, bells, leaves and acorns; but in Italy they were known as swords, batons, cups, and money.

ROOTS SEASON EXTENDED TO JULY 31

Snowstorms, floods, and flu epidemics caused the postponement of Grass Root tournaments during the past winter. The season has been extended to July 31 to make up these sessions.

Two ACC members from Allegan, Michigan, will be running into a future together on Saturday, June 21. Jeff Shimp and Jackie Grabbert will be getting married after 90 miles of a 100-mile fund-raising run. The run is for the benefit of the American Cancer Society and lasts for 4 days, beginning in Battle Creek and progressing through Kalama-zoo and Holland on the way to Grand Rapids.

For those of you who do not plan to participate in the Milwaukee Challenge that same weekend, Jeff & Jackie challenge you to join in the run in Michigan. Even if you choose not to run, they would welcome donations (check payable to Strides for Life/American Cancer Society) to assist in sponsoring them for their run. They plan to earn $2,500 in contributions to go toward the $25,000 goal for the run this year. Their address is 2164 116th Ave., Rt. #7, Allegan, MI 49010.

While they are sorry to have to miss the inaugural event in Milwaukee, they claim, contrary to popular opinion, there may occasionally be something more important in life than a cribbage tournament.

LETTERS TO CRIBBAGE WORLD

Edwin Marso, a Grass Roots player of the Western New York Cribbage Club, achieved a perfect score of nine wins out of nine games for a total of 18 game points at the April 7 semi-monthly tournament.

In the annual sanctioned tournament sponsored by the club in March, Ed scored third place in the consolation round.

This accomplishment was achieved by a real gentleman—a gentle man of NINETY years of age as of last December 11. An appropriate certificate will be awarded to our Ed Marso. Congratulations!
