Hall of Famer Sets MRP Pace

Syl Lulinski Tops 358 In Reno

Syl Lulinski, LaGrange Park, Illinois, is off and winging on a torrid Master Point pace for the 1994 season. After nailing Grand National XII's 406 peggers for a third place finish, he came west once again...this time to Reno for the Annual Veteran's Day Classic, and came away with the championship. And with some 358 peggers in attendance, the 319 MRP's Syl earned has vaulted him to the 750 MRP mark for the year. This mark currently sets the pace nationally in the fastest MRP race in the history of the ACC.

A member of the Cribbage Hall of Fame, and former Executive Vice-President of the ACC, this Grand Master moves from 16th place (lifetime) to 14th with wins in these two major events.

Dan Zeisler, the pegging school teacher from Sonora, CA, picked up nearly 300 MRP's for a fine 2nd place finish and also joins the race for 1994 honors. George Petievich, Nevada City, CA, finished 3rd, followed by John Thiems, Winston, OR, in 4th.

Top qualifier Larry Williams, Sun Valley, NV, took home a nifty "Q" check by scoring a nice 38 (16) +264 in the 22-game qualifying round.

Merry Christmas and a
"29" New Year

Hello...Syl Lulinski?
You want how many
Master Rating Points
in 1994?

212 In Appleton (Capacity Crowd)

Life Master Duane Toll Wins Again

Life Master Duane Toll had an "off" year in 1993, but he has come alive in the current 1994 season. After a fine 2nd place finish in the recent Minnesota Valley Open, Duane nailed first place in the Polish Open at Appleton, WI, November 14. This double win added some 400 MRP's to Duane's total for the year...and moves his lifetime standing from 6th nationally to 5th place.

Ted Hokenson, Marquette, MI, also picked up over 200 MRP's with his second place finish. Another Life Master--Joe Bernard, Libertyville, IL--took 3rd, followed by Master Frank Trojan, New Brighton, MN.

Local Marsha Mahan had an excellent 40 GP's to take top qualifying honors.

George Verbski, Madison, WI, took honors in the 120-pegger Consolation, followed by Roberta Schweig, Carpentersville, IL, Jack Willborn, Germantown, WI, and local Ken Rehm in 2nd, 3rd, and 4th.

Satellite winners: All Events (40 games), Joe Bernard (66 GP's); Early Bird, Dan Hemmeter, Milwaukee; Leaski, Tubby Dahl, Blair, WI.

Directors Frank & Ginny Danieski had a full house, setting an attendance record with 212 peggers...and had to turn one player away!

Grass Roots Players

Don't Miss Grass Roots Regional and National Play

Gene Mikulsky, Sobieski, WI, recently informed Cribbage World about upcoming Grass Roots play. Players wanting to earn Grass Roots National Rating Points should play in upcoming Grass Roots Regional tournaments (play by January 31, 1994), and the National Grass Roots tournament (February 1 - May 31, 1994).

The top 20% in these two events will receive GR Rating Points. Club Directors will receive packets for the National events in January.

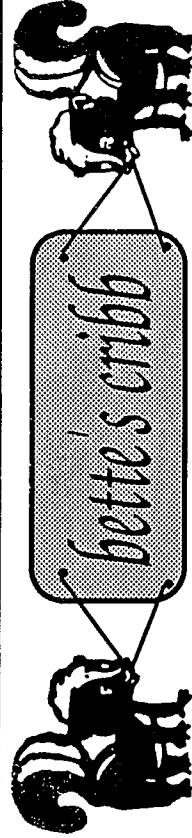

10 Minutes Too Early

Raymond (Farmer) Wileman, Edgerton, WI, decided to play a warm-up game before the regular Madison GR Club 1's play on November 4.

Oops, there it was...a 29-hand! No framed award from the ACC, no one-half of the skunk pot, no nothing! Except, of course, congratulations from his fellow club members!

Anyone in the Madison area wishing to play in Grass Roots competition (and score early 29-hands): every Thursday evening, VFW Club, 133 East Lakeside Street, Madison, WI.

George Mackie Cops Consolation

The Consolation event drew some 216 peggers and George Mackie, Des Moines, WA, copped the title, and with the 110 MRP's earned is edging in on his Master rating (over 1,700 lifetime). Sue Temple, Beaverton, OR, nailed 2nd (buying a few more bales of hay for her horses), Bob Iacopi finished 3rd, followed by Jerry Hartman, Mesa, AZ, in 4th.

In addition to finishing 3rd in the Consolation, Bob Iacopi played that elusive 29-hand in the third game of Sunday's Consolation qualifying round, earning $100 from the ACC for this 4th 29-gem of the 1994 season. Three games earlier (during Saturday's play) this perfect hand would have garnered Bob another $1,000 from the Sands Casino. Alas, the bonus was for Saturday play only.

Vincent Catalano (Santa Cruz, CA) teamed with Jerry Solt (Cameron Park, CA) to win the early bird doubles, scoring a nifty 19 7 +217. Skunks played a key role in their win in this 9-game match, picking up five of them.

Delynn Colvert, Missoula, MT, ran a 9 for 9 grand slam to win the Saturday High Roller event, and Sundae Webb-Wiley nailed the Last Chance event. Sundae was the last entrant to sign on (to make the match even-numbered)...and this decision was worth a cool $400.

And once again, Bill and Dorthalee Irons (and their clan) ran a well-run tournament, aided by Jeff Monroe's computer expertise in scorekeeping, and the ever-present Barbara Woodward of the Sands Casino giving a helping hand. The Veterans were benefited with 15% of the entry fees...and the vets (in full uniform) helped earn this donation by running scoresheets to the computer workers.

Lulinski Uses Psychological Tactics

Syl Lulinski, in his playoff drive for the Veteran's Day Classic, was seated under his Hall of Fame photograph. No one complained about this devious method of play!

Wild Cards in Minnesota

John Crouch Takes

Minnesota Valley Open

The cards were running "wild" in Chaska, Minnesota October 30, as six 28-hands were scored, and that elusive "29" also showed. The most bizarre game had Betty Johnson (St. Paul) scoring a 28-hand, then picking up the cards and thoroughly shuffling, and proceeded to deal her opponent--Veryle Jensen (Burnsville, MN)--another 28-hand! On successive deals! In addition to the six 28-hands, Gene "Moose" Biegler, West Bend, WI picked up that $100 gem...the 3rd sanctioned "29" scored this cribbage year.

But the steady play belonged to John Crouch, Indianola, Iowa, as he winged his way to the championship in this 146-pegger event. His final match with Life Master Duane Toll, Kenosha, WI, made the win well deserved.

Butch Shelstad, Hastings, MN, took 3rd, followed by Gloria McLeod, Minneapolis, in 4th.

Ed Blecker, Roseville, MN edged the 78 Consolation players for that title, followed by Gary Paulson (Minneapolis), Dick Neunsinger (St. Cloud, MN), and John Stamschror (Waukesha, WI) in 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

Jim and Joan Rein continue to hold well-run sanctioned events, and this 1993 edition set a new attendance mark.

November 13 & 14 "Hot"

The "hottest" weekend in ACC cribbage history was the 2nd weekend in November.

Only 92 peggers were on hand in Prineville, Oregon for the Lions Benefit event...and TWO 29 hands were scored!

On that same weekend in Appleton, Wisconsin, a sizeable crowd of 212 peggers produced a whopping TEN 28 hands. John Kolvek, Muskego, WI, nailed TWO of them during the weekend's play!

1994 appears to be heading for a banner year...both for "hot" cards and Master Rating Points!

Check Those Motor Homes

Rick Rickmeyer, Concord, CA, recently purchased a used motor home, and immediately set sail for Prineville, OR, for a little pegging action. Six other California players went along for the ride.

With but 35 miles to go, in Bend, OR, the brakes failed at a stop light, and WHAM! A tail-end collision!

Helen Bolstad was taken to the hospital for facial damage, but managed a 4th place finish in the Consolation two days later, and another passenger--Art Fisher--won the Saturday Night game.

Cribbage World doesn't know if this prize money covered the rental van to get these players home...

Brian Heroux Earns Master

Brian Heroux, the Woonsocket, RI, whiz has been on a roll this cribbage year...and with some 90 MRP's earned at the Portside Open October 10, becomes the 168th ACC player to earn Master.

Heroux is probably the youngest player to have earned this honor. He will also be a member of the Eastern Region's All-Star team in Reno February 3...that is, if he is 21 years old!

158 in West Springfield

Robert Tomasini, address unknown, is a prime candidate for ACC membership, as he nailed the recent Dante Club Open in West Springfield, MA, and another non-member, Marie Frank, took 2nd in this 158-pegger event.

But a regular on the tour took 3rd... Tony Del Tufo, from W. Bridgewater, MA, followed by another regular... Emil Chrabaszcz, Ware, MA.

George Taylor, Swansea, MA took home the marbles in the 108-pegger Consolation, with Frank Gallo, Cranston, RI, finishing 2nd.

Arthur Martin, Northboro, MA, had the "hot" hand in the qualifying round to take honors.

Gary Motley 11th Life Master

Gary Motley, Gresham, OR, became only the 11th ACC member to earn Life Master with a fine 16th place finish in the 358-pegger Veteran's Day Classic in Reno November 7. Motley has amassed 6,102 MRP's to date.

Haystack Rock Backdrop For Unique Pacific City Open

One mile out to sea in the Pacific Ocean is a rock named "Haystack." This rock towers some 300+ feet above the surface...and this picturesque scene was the backdrop for the recent Pacific City Open.

The Sunset West Restaurant hosted this event, and offered the players a panoramic view of the surf and "Haystack." And only Larry Hassett, Roseburg, OR, could keep his concentration intact to sweep this event.

Don Dutcher, Vancouver, WA finished 2nd, followed by Master Louine Lyda, Forest Grove, OR, and Betty Frost, Newport, OR, in 3rd and 4th, in this 105-pegger event.

Todd Malmgren, Clackamas, OR, nailed the qualifying round with an excellent 40 GP's to win the "Q" prize.

Ralph Hart, another Roseburg player, took the 71-pegger Consolation, with local Bob Hicks in 2nd. Fabian Nelson, Salem, OR, and Master Gene Sissel, Baker City, OR, took 3rd and 4th. Sissel nailed the qualifying rounds of both the Main and Consolation with 38 and 16 GP's to complete an excellent pegging weekend.

Grand Master Roy Hofbauer, Washougal, WA, won the High Roller, and Ed Park teamed with Jim Gogolin to take the doubles event. Horace McGee, Salem, OR, won the Saturday night game. Bob Nunamaker went 5 for 5 to pick up the Crybaby.

Bernie Nelson and Rollie Heath rolled out the carpet for the players, and the owners of the Sunset West gave the players exclusive rights to the building for the weekend, furnishing excellent service and food for the players. And their bar was a lively place with several players celebrating their birthdays on Saturday night. A repeat performance next year should attract more players...when the "cribage grapevine" spreads the word!

Grand Slams Galore!

Kay Fisher, Mary Ryan Hot in Newark, CA

Clendennings Clan (GR club 43), Newark, CA is off and running this cribbage season. In the first four meets, three Grand Slams have been recorded.

In the very first tournament of the year, Kay Fisher, fresh from a runner-up spot the year before, began the year with a bang! A Grand Slam! 18 (9) +103!

But more impressively, Mary Ryan nailed weeks 3 and 4 with a double Grand Slam! 18 for 18! Week four was doubly impressive as her card included 3 skunk wins for an astounding 21 (9) +234! This has to be one of cribbage land's better runs. In the 18 games, her score was 39 (18) +394!

Emil Lubinski No. 160...Not 166!

Brooklyn Park, MN's Emil Lubinski was reported to be Master No. 166 in last month's issue, when, in fact, he earned this honor two weeks earlier than Cribbage World reported...making Emil No. 160! Bragging rights are bragging rights!

Sondericker's String Ended Roland LeBlanc Vermont Champion

Local Roland LeBlanc not only became the first repeat champion of the Vermont Open (winning in 1988), but he stopped Life Master Warren Sondericker's string of wins in the final match. Sondericker, the king of cribbage in the Milwaukee, WI area, had reached the final two seven times...and had won all seven. But LeBlanc won two straight to take the title and stopped Sondericker's string.

LeBlanc's uncle, Gabe LeBlanc, from Barton, VT, plowed through the competition in the consolation tournament to make it a clean sweep for the family.

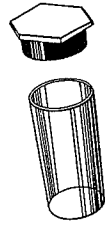

In this 10th annual match, 4 have been won by Vermont players, 3 by Massachusetts players, and 3 by players from Rhode Island. Sondericker very nearly became the first to take the title out of the region.

Director Fred McGibney, the ACC's Treasurer, continues to run an excellent tournament.

Erv Koehler Nails "Moose's"

Erv Koehler, Milwaukee, WI, nailed Moose's W. B. Classic in Fond du Lac's annual cribbage fest...and in winning this 130-pegger event, picked up some 140 MRPs.

Jim Gogolin was a long way from his Idlewild Park, Oregon home, but he helped pay for his trip with a fine 2nd place finish. Norb Kniech, Brown Deer, WI, took 3rd, followed by 1993 All-American Deb Schisel, Kenosha, WI in 4th.

D. M. Peterson, Pound, WI, captured the 84-player Consolation event in a star-studded final, edging Larry La Gassie, 2nd, (Green Bay, WI), Life Master Mick Michaelis, 3rd, (Marinette, WI) and Life Master Duane Toli, 4th, (Kenosha, WI).

Not only did Koehler take the title, he picked up a 28-hand in the process...as did Frank Schweig, Pat Barrett, and Marge Nyc.

Bay Area Hosts 106 Peggers Dale Kochenburg Takes Bay Area Title

Dale Kochenburg, from nearby San Jose nailed the 106 peggers at the recent Bay Area Championship in Fremont, CA. Dale won the hard way, as he had to get by Master Al Tenenbaum, a seasoned Eastern Region player from Cranbury, NJ.

Phil Hollenbeck, El Granada, CA, finished 3rd, followed by Barbara Ruiz, San Lorenzo, CA, in 4th.

The Consolation event drew 58 players, but was not sanctioned.

This event donated some $1,664 to the Elks Charity (aid to handicapped children), with $305 of this amount from raffle sales.

Director Robert Atkinson plans on a re-match next October 15, 1994. Watch "Tournament Trail" in Cribbage World for details.

All-American Ken Cochlin Nails Prineville Lions Event

Fresh from receiving his 1993 All-American honors at Grand National XII, Ken Cochlin, Kennewick, WA, is off and running in the 1994 cribbage season by picking up a win at the Prineville Lion's Benefit in Prineville, OR, November 14. Ken was also top qualifier in this 92-pegger event, making this a memorable weekend.

Another player who is off and running is Denny Van Orsow, Culver, OR, and by finishing 2nd, continues to pile up MRPs this season. In event after event, Denny has scored a steady stream of MRPs, and is well over the 600 mark for this season's play. The Northwest's Van Orsow clan boasts three Master players (Ray, Bo, and Denny), and with this current run by Denny, he becomes the king of the clan.

Another player on a "run" is teenager Jason Hofbauer, Washougal, WA...and he made his stay in Prineville quite rewarding, as he not only picked up 3rd in the Main Event, but was 2nd in the Doubles, 5th qualifier in the Main, and 2nd in the Super Q. Gas money? Ask Roy and Jeanne (Jason's parents).

Bend, OR's Scott Harbison took 4th.

Jim Hornbacher, Bothell, WA took the 72-player Consolation, followed by Dan Hansen, Bend, OR (2nd), Ray Rangila, Madras, OR (3rd), and Helen Bolstad, Martinez, CA (4th).

In the satellite events, local Loretta Williams won the High Rollers, locals LeRoy Grady teamed with Ray Lebow to win the doubles, and Art Fisher, Seaside, CA, took the Saturday Night game. Len Wahlig, Norfolk, VA, won the early bird event.

Paul Nolz, Ike Endicott Score 29's

A rare double 29's were scored...one on Saturday by Paul Nolz, Redmond, OR, and another on Sunday by Ike Endicott, Bend, OR. Both players cut the 5 of clubs for this gem...the 5th and 6th of this cribbage season. A lonely 28-hand was scored by Bob Gorden, Redmond, OR...in the "CryBaby" event.

Director Bob St. Yves reported each player donated $.50 to the Lion's charity

The Three P's of Cribbage

by Russell Adams

POSITION, or relative board location. Players soon learn the key 50-50 positions, especially beyond the game midpoint, such as 15 holes to go out for the dealer and 10 for the non-dealer; 30 holes for each, hole 65 for dealer and 60 for non-dealer, etc. Being at a positional advantage, one should play conservatively to preserve the status quo. If in a positional disadvantage ("short"), aggressive play--pairing and running, holding for good cuts, etc.--is in order. Excellent players, such as Toll and Michaelis, have won many games by varying their tactics between offense and defense according to position.

PROBABILITY (odds), the basis of winning in all games of chance. In cribbage, the shuffle and cut activate the odds in a finite (52 card) deck. We all play the odds, some better than others, relative to position. Remembering one's discards and noting the cut (starter) card affects the odds. If you've thrown a pair of 3's to the crib, and a 3 is cut, it is quite safe to play a ten-card after a deuce lead; taking 3 of a kind in pegging is safe, although position may over-rule doing it; pairing stops runs, etc.

PSYCHOLOGY, which includes bluffing (such as faking the flush), psychic hesitations in discarding and pegging, exploiting opponent's proclivities (such as never, or always, do this or that).

Among experienced players, psychological tricks are of lesser value; a series a few years ago in Raleigh backfired on me: needing 12 holes to go (opponent about 20), I held 5-J-Q-K and didn't get a cut. I led the 5, hoping for a pair and a later "go." My opponent paired my 5 and the subsequent king, paired my queen, leaving me with a 1-point "go" and scored 22 points with the crib! I was out--psyched.
