Terry Hurtgen: Record 44 GP's Qualifying! GN XV: Mary Herrmann

The Napa, CA County Fairgrounds were alive with peggers from 27 states and Canada September 27, 28 and 29 as Grand National XV held it's annual bash. This time around some 428 peggers descended on the wine country for some good old-fashioned pegging...and Terry Hurtgen showed the crowd how to pick 'em up and lay 'em down. In the 22-game qualifying round, he nailed 19 wins, scoring a record 44 GP's (+374) to easily take honors and the top "Q" prize. Scott Milo and Cedric Larson, two Californians, posted 39 GP's and earned their share of the "Q" prizes also.

But when the chips were down and head to head play began the next day, Mary Herrmann, a veteran pegger from Alamo, CA never missed a lick. After qualifying 9th (with a nice 36 GP card), she rolled on to the championship...and her Masters rating! Not only did she take home the $2,200 top prize, but hauled in a huge 434 combined MRP's. Earlier this cribbage year, she won the Redwood Classic and the combined wins have propelled her into the MRP lead (553) for the new cribbage year.

Gaylord Matti, Madison, WI, finished 2nd (after qualifying 11th), and the combined 377 MRP's zipped him to his Masters rating. Scott Milo, a local pegger from Fairfield, was hot all weekend. He qualified 2nd and finished 3rd. Peter Setian was a long way from his Ludlow, MA home, but lately he is at home wherever a cribbage board can be found, as he continues to burn up the tracks. After finishing first at Raleigh's National Open, he continues a fine run by taking 4th in Napa.

Some 308 peggers played the Consolation and Helene Sontag, Vacaville, CA, took home the bacon (after qualifying 2nd). Grand Master George Bickford, W. Springfield, MA, nailed 2nd, followed by Frank Bodogh, St. Catharines, Ontario and Margaret Larson, Hayward, CA, in 3rd and 4th. Canadian Linton Walker scored the top qualifying card with a nice 18 8/9 +132.

Director Jeff Monroe had a full slate of satellite events, beginning with a Friday doubles match. This event was won by two peggers from Las Vegas who are no strangers to card playing...Bob Gromek and John Bourgon. Friday also saw a High Roller event and Jim Hornbacher from the Pacific Northwest continues a fine streak and nailed this event (and $800). Clarence Van Orsow from Oregon took home the Cry Baby prize with a 5/5 11 GP card.

Some 85 5-person teams played the 110-game qualifying match (5x22) and Rollie Heath anchored the winning team with a nice 36 GP card. Other team members were Keith Forrest, Darrel Miotke, Delynn Colvert, and Mick Michaelis.

New MRP System Postponed

The recent Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Cribbage Congress at Napa, CA had two important agenda items affecting the general membership.

The first was the proposed revision of the Master Point System.

Unfortunately, the Board could not come to an agreement on Ed Horigan's much-studied revision of the MRP system, in effect postponing its adoption until the start of the 1997-98 tournament year, by a vote of 12-7. Unless agreement is otherwise reached at the next Board meeting in Reno, NV on January 30, 1997, Horigan's proposed MRP system will go into effect August 1, 1997.

The revised system seeks to award equal points for equal effort in all sanctioned tournaments, regardless of size or the number of participants, without drastically reducing or enlarging the number of points and to keep it compatible with the present system. A 70-point cap in the qualifying round is the most recent modification.

Several other proposals are being considered, but they must make their presentation prior to the Reno meeting or the Horigan revision automatically goes into effect next year.

Election of Officers

The second matter of import to the membership was the election of officers. I was again unanimously elected to the position of President, for which honor I express my sincere thanks to the Directors. It's a privilege to be able to serve the ACC in this capacity again.

The Executive Committee which I head includes Syl Lulinski, replacing Scott Kooistra as Executive Vice-President (Scott opted not to seek re-election due to an increased workload in his radio station job); Cathy Perkins and Joe Ramos, re-elected as Vice-President, Policy and Operations respectively; and Paul Hatcher, joining us as Executive Member-At-Large.

In his new position, Hatcher continues as chairman of the Ethics Committee, which also includes the four Tournament Commissioners... Martha Fingleton, National Commissioner, George Bickford, Eastern Region Commissioner, Joe Bernard, Central Region; and Roy Hofbauer, Western Region...as well as Cathy Perkins and Ron Morgan.

Hatcher also assumes the position of Rules Committee Chairman, which also makes him Director of Research & Development for the Judges Program.

The 15th Annual Grand National at Napa, under the direction of Jeff Monroe, attracted record-breaking participants, with everyone having a great time with tourney play, great food and annual awards presentations. (Details elsewhere in this Cribbage World.)

Next year, the 1997 Grand National, "Sweet XVI", is scheduled at the Holiday Inn in Wisconsin Dells September 26-27-28, under the direction of Pat Barrett. Plan now to attend.

Keep peegin'..... Ev Bey

The Annual Awards Banquet followed Saturday's qualifying round. This year's banquet had a unique feature...wine and cheese tasting. In addition, all those attending the banquet received a souvenir engraved wine goblet. Many varieties of wine and cheese were enjoyed by those attending the banquet, followed by the evening meal and award presentations. A bumper crop of awardees were on hand to receive their honors for 1996 season's play. Joan Rein kicked off the proceedings by awarding 57 players their Masters award, followed by Grand Master, Life Master, One-Star, Grass Roots awards, 29-hand awards, President's Award, All-Regional team awards, and All-American team awards. Executive Vice-President Scott Kooistra was able to catch a late flight and made his entrance in the nick of time to wind down a very pleasant evening.

Jeff and Jack Monroe did yeoman's work in directing Grand National XV, and handled the large crowd in fine fashion. The County Fairgrounds location and the large convention building was more than adequate to handle the crowd, and the usual souvenirs were available to all the players.

Parity?

Many members of the ACC have been noticing the improved play of the general membership. In fact, the whining about blind draw unfairness is rarely heard lately.

To illustrate the improved play, consider that the top four ranked players in the ACC (all One-Star) that were in attendance at Grand National XV all failed to qualify for the Sunday playoffs.

New Judges

These new Judges are certified using the ACC book of rules (1993):

Phyllis Kitts, Midlothian, VA
Carl Nicoletta, Port Charlotte, FL
Thomas Paap, Virginia Beach, VA
Betty Schaeffer, Kissimmee, FL
Bob Wikstrom, Port Orchard, WA
Bob Wintersteen, Aloha, OR

10 Year Old Scores 29-Hand

Bobby Grossman is a new ACC member from Succasunna, NJ, and he is 10 years old. He attended the New Hampshire Open, but his age kept him from playing in the meet. Killing some time, he picked up a game on the side...and scored a 29-hand! The state ruling on not allowing minors to play saved the ACC $100!

Rollie Heath Last Longest

Rollie Heath is at home on the beach as he came from Lincoln City (an Oregon beach town) and he played at Long Beach, WA (on the beach) and won the Longest Beach Classic September 22. Feeling at home breathing the salt air, Rollie nipped Irving Busby...a landlubber from Spokane, WA in the final match to take home the $1,525 top prize.

However, Busby did quite well in qualifying 1st, scoring a nifty 37 17 +208, taking home a combined $1,315 (Q and 2nd).

Bernie Saueressig, Richland, WA finished 3rd (and garnered a hefty 219 MRP's), followed by Don Smith, Oregon City, OR in 4th.

With the added $2,000 prize money (by local merchants), players were lured from far and wide. Mimi and Rit Alkas, Lee Norris, Ford Jewer, Steve Angier, Joy and Paul Barnes from the Eastern Region were on hand. The Central Region sported Moose Biegler, Al Schaefer, Bob Julian, Iris and Bob Fletcher, among others. The Main Event had 227 players and the Consolation drew 158 peggers, making this event one of the largest in the Northwest this cribbage year.

Floridian Paul Barnes nailed the Consolation, with Alaskan Dennis Dooley in 2nd. Rit Alkas from Connecticut finished 3rd, and Helen Jackson (WA) took 4th...an event that had winners from the four corners of the USA.

An oddity had Charlie Ball (WA) qualifying with 10 wins. A bevy of skunks (8) kept him alive. His cards were really wild, as he got double-skunked by 81 in one of his 12 losses.

The Satellites:

Friday Time Passer: Dick Walcker (OR)
Doubles: Darrel Miotke, Ian Travers (OR)
High Roller: Mac McNeil (OR)
Saturday Night: Jim Gogolin (OR)
Cry Baby: Bob Julian (WA)

Directors Hal and Arlene Halldorson, Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer had the full house on track for the weekend...and they hunted that the Chautauqua Lodge may even put up acoustical tiles on the ceilings to quiet the noisy crowd for next year's match! And, of course, the seaside setting added to the charm of this event.

Wisconsin Dells Classic

Todd Schaefer Tops Huge Central Region Crowd

Todd Schaefer zipped over from Minnesota and nailed the huge (189 peggers) field at the recent Wisconsin Dells Classic (WI). And he had a challenge in the final match as he had to get by One-Star Joe Bernard, the ACC's 4th ranked player (lifetime). Bernard, from Libertyville, IL, picked up another 180 MRP's for 2nd and is off and running in the new cribbage year.

Don Tofte (WI) is nearing his Grand Master by finishing 3rd...needing but a scant 150 MRP's to earn the honor. Denise Vetter (WI) nailed 4th (after qualifying 10th).

A rare event had Bob McCabe, the ACC's Statistician from Milwaukee, qualifying 1st in the Main Event, and after getting eliminated in the playoffs, trying again in the Consolation...and qualifying 1st once again! He scored Master Points in all four categories. Only McCabe will be able to figure out all the MRP's earned!

Frank Schweig, Sr., an Illinois pegger won his first sanctioned event ever as he nailed the 128-pegger Consolation. He has amassed well over 3,000 MRP's but a sanctioned win has eluded him. He did win the TOC in Reno a few years back, however.

Rit Alkas, CT, on his way to GN XV in California in his motor home, nailed 2nd, followed by Norb Upton (MN) in 3rd. Ray Wileman (WI) finished 4th in this large event.

The Satellites:

Friday $20: Gloria McLeod (MN) 19 9/9 +169
Friday $50: Bill Shirland (CO)
Saturday $20: Jerry Goedert (WI)
Saturday $50: Doug Henderson (WI)
Last Chance: Ginny Duresky (MN)
All Events: Ginny Dantelski (WI) 60 28/40

Nicky Kniech (WI) picked up yet another 28-hand, and Betty McSparin (IL) nailed TWO 28's!

Director Patrick Barrett ran another first-class event, and is getting in shape for his upcoming Grand National XVI next September 26-28. This granddaddy event comes complete with an Awards Banquet and players nationwide will be in attendance. Well over 400 players are expected to compete for national honors. And Barrett reports he will again schedule this event September 5-7, to fine tune his directing abilities!

Sally Peters Tough On Home Court

Sally Peters hails from Salem, OR, and she nailed the recent Capital City Classic in her hometown. In winning the 130-pegger championship Peters claimed 140MRP's and a sizeable purse.

Rollie Heath, a pegger from Lincoln City, OR finished 2nd...and coupled with a win at the huge Long'est Beach Classic in Long Beach, WA, has zipped out front in the Western Region's MRP race for 1997! Another pegger on a roll is Jim Hornbacher. This Bothell, WA pegger finished 3rd, followed by Jerry Blackman, Bend, OR in 4th.

Roger Leuschow (WA) was high qualifier with a nice 35 GP card.

88 peggers played the Consolation and Paul Nolz, Redmond, OR took home the bacon, followed by ACCBOD member Larry Hasset (OR), Frank Ornle (OR), and Darrell Miotke (OR) in 2-3-4. Miotke's MRP's are among the nation's leaders in the early going this cribbage season.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Phil Yager (OR)
Doubles: Chas Baldwin & Horace McGee (OR)
High Roller: Herb Jenner (OR)
Cry Baby: Dorothy Westerlund (OR)

Directors Fabian Nelson and Paul Hatcher ran a first-class event, sporting many exquisite trophies. And they even sported a porta-potty for the parking lot, charging all the players 54 cents a pop for its use! However, the donuts and coffee more than made up for that extra charge!

Jeanne Hofbauer Wins Battle of Sexes

Director Ken Capper pitted the best two male peggers (lifetimeMRP's) vs. the best two female peggers (lifetimeMRP's) in an exhibition match in Hermiston, OR. This 3-game round robin was won by Jeanne Hofbauer, a Grand Master from Washougal, WA. The male losers? DeLynn Colvert (MT) and Paul Hatcher (OR)! Betty Johnson (WA) finished 2nd.

Mary Herrmann won the Grand National, Sally Peters won the Salem Open, and Donna LaFleur won the Eastern States Championship this cribbage year ...1997 is simply going to be the "Year of the Ladies!" Ed.

Fabian Nelson Not Fazed by Ghosts and Goblins

Fabian Nelson, a newly crowned Master pegger from Salem, OR, played the Ghosts and Goblins match in Hermiston, OR...and the spooky surroundings didn't distract him in the least as he zipped to the championship, besting an even 100 peggers in the process. Gary Rose (WA) nailed 2nd, followed by Ron Morgan (an ACC BOD member from Montana), and George Rasmussen (WA) in 3rd and 4th.

Rookie Brad Abbott put on a show in the qualifying round as this local pegger posted a great 40 17 +273 card to easily take honors.

One-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) took the 72-pegger Consolation, followed by Sue Anderson (WA), Jim Jackson (ID), and George Mackie (WA) in 2-3-4.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Joe Dunn (ID)
Doubles: Iris Sundquist & Thomas Wilson (OR)
High Roller: Clifford Allen
Cry Baby: Mary McKinney

As usual, Directors Ken & Betty Capper put extra effort into their halloween motif, and the Calcutta had spirited bidding. Once again Paul Hatcher picked the winner (Nelson), proving that he is a great judge of horseflesh...or is that pegging skills?

Pegger's Barn Burns

Anna and Olaf Anderson were busy pegging on their farmhouse kitchen table in North Dakota after a day's work. Olaf glanced out the kitchen window and...horrors! His barn was on fire!

He ran to the phone and called the fire department. In a state of panic he pleaded with the fire department to "Come quick, hurry, help!"

The fireman responded: "Calm down, calm down...tell us how to get there!"

Olaf replied "Don't you still have that little red truck?"

I'm a Swede from North Dakota, and I have my tongue in my own cheek...if you can't have a little fun with yourself...or your fellow peggers, well, you just ain't enjoying life! So, fellow Swedes, don't get excited...it's just a joke! Ed.

Two 29-Hands! Tom Lingenfelter Tops in Montana

In April, 1995, Tom Lingenfelter copped his local sanctioned event in Helena, MT...and in 1996 he came away with another Montana title. This time around it was the 91-pegger Montana Championship played in Missoula, MT Oct.4-6.

Coming away the "bridesmaid" was Wayne Forrest, a Bitterroot Valley pegger.

Mike Haggerty, a local pegger, took honors in the qualifying round (37 16 +224), and continued his winning ways by taking 3rd. Tournament Director DeLynn Colvert finished 4th.

A rarity saw TWO 29-hands scored within three games in the qualifying round. The first was by I. V. Graham, Libby, MT and the 2nd by Jerry Blank (Helena, MT). This Montana tourney pays $300 for a 29-hand (for a $1 entry), and Graham decided to save his buck...no $300! The directors breathed a sigh of relief when they discovered the $300 savings...only to have the $300 snatched away some three games later by Blank. However, Blank is not an ACC member, so no $100 for him! Graham will receive his $100 for a sanctioned 29-hand!

Mike McDaniel (Spokane, WA) nailed the 59-pegger Consolation, taking qualifying honors and winning the playoffs. Ozzie Osborne, Post Falls, ID finished 2nd, followed by Tana Conell (Helena) and Bob Heriza, Baker City, OR in 3rd and 4th.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Tana Conell (MT)
Doubles: Jim Hornbacher & Dick Petek (WA)
High Roller: Clifford Allen (WA)
Saturday Special: Paul Hatcher (OR)
Last Chance: Sandy Sands (MT)

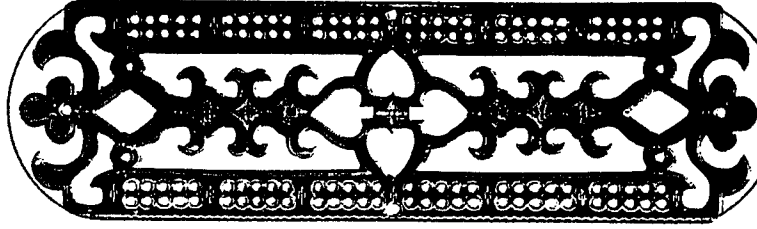

This event is played at the Joker's Wild Restaurant and Casino in Missoula...and once again, owner Dick Williams kicked in $100 added money for the Cry Baby event. Williams is a great supporter of organized cribbage in Montana. Directors DeLynn Colvert and Rex Paddock invite our ACC members to stop in and make a pit stop at the Joker's Wild when travelling on I-90 in Montana (take exit 101).

Paul and Joy Barnes, two Floridians making an extended cribbage tour through the west, were in attendance. They are scouting for players for their upcoming Grand National XVII (to be played in 1998 in Daytona Beach, FL).

English Cribbage Board Finds Home In Oregon

Frank Radford, a silversmith in England, made the ornate cribbage board shown below, circa 1898.

Radford is Jean Hatcher's grandfather, and he immigrated to San Francisco in 1913. He brought this finely engraved board along with him...and it is now safely at the Hatcher homestead in Salem, OR.

Ken Capper Gets Frosty Stare

Ken Capper, Hermiston, OR, was in line for the Wine and Cheese tasting at GN XV. The sophisticated hostess asked Ken "Can I be of any help?"

Ken replied "Yes, where's the bologna?"

Oops....no reply. All he got was a frosty stare!

And another thing...no Olympia Beer! Only fancy wines and cheeses!
