Fumi Halucka Scores $1,100 29-Hand!

Darren Black Tops 348

Reno, July 5: Darren Black, a Master pegger from Portland, OR, is making a late-season charge to repeat his 1996 All-American honors by winning the huge Independence Day Classic in Reno. In topping the 348 peggers, Black scored 252 MRP's...running his 1998 total well over the 700 mark for the year, giving him an outside chance of making this year's top 10.

Brenda Palmer (MA) is also making a late-season charge and ran a hot run into second place...and to add frosting to the cake, came away with the ACC's 31st Life Master (6,000 MRP's). She winged over the mark after scoring a first round win, and continued on to garner 196 MRP's.

John Jenkins was a long way from his North Carolina home, but a 3rd place finish more than paid for his trip. Glenn Hefner (OR) nailed down 4th. Syl Lulinski (IL) finished 5th...and is inching in on 8,000MRP's as this top 20 (lifetime) player continues his fine play. Master Kollie Heath (OR) took 6th and remains in the hunt for top ten honors (at the 900 mark). Grand Master Jeanne Hofbauer (WA) took 7th, with Chris Wilson (CO) finishing 8th.

Robert Iacopi (CA) was smoking in the qualifying round, winning 20 of 22 games to take honors (40 20 +143). This fine performance earned Iacopi 70 MRP's.

Marion Quackenbush, the travelling Master pegger from Pennsylvania, won the 236-player Consolation. Tom Markham (WA) took 2nd, followed by Master Phillip Martin (CT), and Robert Chevalier (OR) in 3-4. Master Bill Wakeman (CA) won 9 of 10 to top the qualifiers.

With the season winding down, this event drew contenders from throughout the USA, with Duane Toll (WI) and Paul Hatcher (OR) faring the best of those in this year's top ten race. Toll finished 9-16, and Hatcher came in with a 17-32 finish. Both players are in a virtual dead-heat for top honors this year.

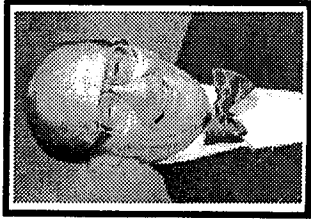

The satellites:

Early Bird: Bob Julian (WI) 9/9 20 GP
High Roller: Rod Marshall (WA)
Sunday: Ron Sargent (CA)

A highlight of this event saw Fumi Halucki (CA) come out of the gates smoking. In the very first game of the qualifying round she played the ACC's 20th 29-hand of the season...and it had the best financial results. This gem was worth a whopping $1,100 ($1,000 from the Sands, and another $100 from the ACC).

Grass Roots Controversy

You may have heard that there is a controversy between the Grass Roots program and its sponsoring body, the American Cribbage Congress.

Rumors surfaced at the recent July 4th tournament in Reno when an anonymous letter was distributed detailing what some see as issues of contention between the two groups.

Last year's audit of the ACC's books by Roger Wilson point up one minor practice that needed correction. Grass Roots and other ACC-affiliated programs were using ACC's IRS identification number without following through and combining financial reports.

If there are any Grand National or other tournaments using the ACC IRS number, please conform or desist.

To correct this, National Grass Roots Commissioner Gene Mikulsky transferred the Grass Roots funds to his personal account, until I pointed out that he could be liable for income taxes on some $25,000-$30,000 in Grass Roots money that temporarily went into his checking account. Reacting to that comment, Mikulsky applied for a separate IRS identification number for the Grass Roots program.

At the same time, in order to qualify for an interest-bearing account...and it means a few bucks every year...Mikulsky also consulted an attorney and proceeded with incorporation of the Grass Roots program. It already has that status under the ACC corporate setup.

Here's where misunderstanding began. Gene insists (and I believe him whole-heartedly), that there is no intent to divorce Grass Roots from the ACC and start a separate organization. Others see it differently!

Grass Roots is an integral part of the ACC. We cannot, and will not, permit it to go off on its own. Proposed revision of the Grass Roots manual of procedure is also underway, but I have requested Mikulsky to put it "on hold" until it can be fully discussed by the ACC Board of Directors at its next annual meeting at Daytona Beach in October.

Several years ago, the ACC Board authorized the printing of the annual financial statements of the ACC as well as the Grass Roots in Cribbage World. Unfortunately, this was not done on a regular basis. I feel that if this had been done, if the membership had been fully aware of our financial transactions...both income and expense...we would have avoided suspicions about the operations. If this procedure had been followed, nobody could accuse the Grass Roots leadership of operating secretly or behind a cloud.

If there is an "ever-widening gap between the Grass Roots and the ACC," as perceived by some members...and as the anonymous critic wrote...I can assure you it does not stem from the ACC, its Executive Committee nor the Board of Directors.

We're proud of the Grass Roots program and its accomplishments. We're more than willing to continue our support for its activities because it helps to continue to build ACC membership.

In return, the ACC provides invitations to the Tournament of Champions for Grass Roots winners, includes Grass Roots prizewinners on the awards program at the Grand National; and devotes news space on the Grass Roots program in the monthly Cribbage World.

Together we can overcome these misunderstandings and go on to build an even greater ACC and Grass Roots program for the tournament followers as well as the hometown players.

Keep peggini'... Ev Bey, President

The veteran's once again benefited from the players, with 15% donated to their cause. However, with the Sands added prize money, the paybacks were generous. The Early Bird paid 100%, the Main had a 90.7% payback, the Consolation saw 90% in prize money, and the Q-Pools paid 100%, as did the High Roller.

The Sands continues to pamper the players with cakes and coffee, and reasonable lunches, attested to by yet another whopping crowd. Directors Bill and Dorthalee Irons, Roberta Huff, and staff did another outstanding job of administering the huge crowd. And MC Jesse Jarrell kept the players riveted in their seats with his explicit instructions.

Anna Abbott (CA) killed some time on the poker machines and hit an amazing three royal flushes. She carted home $3,250. One of these gems was a "natural" with no draw needed!

Annett Eiffert (CA) was spotted wearing a tee-shirt that read "Fifteen This..." on the front and back. Others from her Sacramento club had similar shirts.

Brenda Palmer earned her Life Master wearing a lucky necklace made for her by her 8-year old son, Dakota, for her birthday a week earlier.

Walt Christenbury (WA) scored a 20 GP Early Bird card, good enough to win most events, but perennial winner Bob Julian (WI) put on a show with his 9/9 20 GP Grand Slam.

168 In Yankton Mikulsky's Nail Lewis & Clark Classic

They're partying in the Sobieski, WI area after the wife and husband duo of Aggie and Gene Mikulsky claimed titles at the 11th Annual Lewis & Clark Classic in Yankton, SD. Aggie rolled through the playoffs and defeated ED Heinowski (WI) 3-1 in the championship match to claim the $2,000 top prize. Aggie said it was her second main-event title, but her first trophy and biggest prize in her cribbage history. Just last month Aggie had earned her Grand Master, and she continues her roll. Gene is also a Grand Master.

Don Patrin (MN) and Life Master Jerry Gruber took home 3 & 4.

Master Bob Sommer (MN) was smoking in the qualifying round, scoring a nice 38 16/22 +345. The 6 skunks really added to his spread point total.

Gene Mikulsky nosed out Grand Master Lloyd "Gabby" Kraft (2-1) in the 102-player Consolation's final match to give the Mikulsky's a clean sweep of the sanctioned events. Jerry Fischer (WI) and Master Bill Sperry (WI) finished 3-4.

The Satellites:

Friday: Bob Julian (WI)
Saturday: Andy Teets (CO)
All-Events: Ray Hansen (IA) 61 GP's

A moment of silence was held for Robert "Mick" Michaelis, a 4-time winner of this event, who died earlier in the week. A memorial was collected and a number of sympathy cards were signed to give to Mick's wife, Shirley.

This popular event, played many miles from most player's home, nevertheless draws a large crowd year after year, attesting to Scott and Linda Kooistra's expertise in running a tournament. This year, four of the top seven players (nationally) were on hand in an attempt to add late-season MRP's...and none advanced.

Harvey Glass Tops Hockomock

106 peggers were on hand for the annual Hockomock Classic in Norwood, MA on June 28...and Harvey Glass from West Hartford came away the winner.

But for Emil Chrabaszcz (MA), earning 2nd was very special...he vaulted over the 6,000 MRP mark (lifetime) and earned the ACC's 31st Life Master.

Fayanne Salerno (MA) and Dan Moore (NT) came home 3-4.

Dwight Christiansen (CT) also had a special match, qualifying tops with a nice 20 9/12 +129. The 30 MRPs earned zipped Christiansen to Grand Master (4,000+). He earned another 42 MRP's with a 5-8 finish in the playoffs.

50 players stayed for the Consolation and Estill Elliott (NV) took home the bacon. Bob Cunningham (MA), Bob Andrews (NC) and R.D. Haskell (MA) finished 2-3-4.

Director David Clemmey reports no 28 or 29 hands, but he will give the players another crack at it next June 27, 1999.

Bayard Litteras Cops Towne Crier High Roller

On the Towne Crier's huge 8-foot TV screen Mark O'Meara was grinding down the opposition at the British Open on Sunday, July 19...and across the room Grand Master Bayard Litteras (ID) was doing the same to the field at the Towne Crier High Roller event in Richland, WA. His final match was no easy task as Life Master Roy Hofbauer (WA) was his opponent. And Roy Hofbauer was his final opponent at Grand National XII in Missoula, MT in 1993. Same result. This time around, Litteras took home $950!

Two-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) nailed 3rd (and kept his slim hopes alive for a repeat of last year's national championship), followed by local Jo Kirby in 4th.

Local Ken Cochlin is nearing his Life Master (5,900+) by taking qualifying honors and top Q money with a nice 32 GP card (20 games).

Director Willie Evans kept a little prize money for his hard work by copping the Consolation (and is getting close to his Grand Master). Mike McDaniel (WA) took 2nd, followed by Graeme Gossett (OR) and John Haller (OR) in 3-4. Jack Moritzky (WA) took the Friday event, and Lowell Bailey (WA) won the Saturday night match. Wayne Larson (WA) teamed with Cochlin (WA) to take the team-play action.
