

Grass Roots Covid Statement

Grass Roots clubs must adhere to all governmental regulations in effect at the playing location. Directors may adopt a stricter stance but they cannot be more lax. If there should be any Covid-19 cases reported to the director that could have exposed players during a club event, the director should notify all participants as quickly as possible.