DALE MUNROE NEW CRIBBAGE WORLD EDITOR

Beginning with the February issue of the Cribbage World, your new editor will be Dale Munroe of Unionville, CT. For the past 2 years and 5 months it has been a pleasure serving the members of the American Cribbage Congress as your editor. My wife Elda, my son Mark and I, Bob Madsen, have learned many things regarding the publishing and printing of a monthly newsletter. We have received many fine compliments for which we are very grateful and we have also received some constructive criticism from which we tried to learn. We are thankful to Dale for volunteering to take on this task and we wish him all the success in the world.

All further news items that any of the members of the Congress may write and want published should be sent to Dale Munroe, 109 River Rd., Unionville, CT 06085. Dale can be reached at (203) 673-4007. Good luck Dale.

We wish to thank all of the people who have contributed to the Cribbage World and we hope that you will continue to help your new editor as you have helped us in the past.

All tournament reports must be sent to Jim Fabian and all correspondence regarding the Secretary-Treasurer of the American Cribbage Congress shall continue to be sent to Bob Madsen, P.O. Box 48893, Niles, IL 60648.

WINE VALLEY CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT
SEPT. 28, 1985 NAPA, CA

Tournament director Jack Monroe tells us that 141 eager players turned out at the Town and Country Fairgrounds for this event. The cribbage players enjoyed the cribbage and the wine tasting that went on as the day progressed. Good fun was had by everyone who attended.

All of the top 4 players were from California. Taking first place was Nancy Harris from Vacaville. She outlasted Jesse Jarrell from Pittsburg. Finishing in the 3rd spot was Frank Zabrowski from Monterey who is the director of the Pacific Coast Tourney which was held Sept. 7th. He nosed out Morton Dibble of Alameda who finished 4th. There were no reported 28 hands.

SIERRA NEVADA CRIBBAGE FEST
OCT. 26-27, 1985 SPARKS, NV

Karl's Casino was the setting for this Octoberfest of cribbage under the directorship of Bill Irons. 98 participants attended with Jeff Monroe of Concord, CA finishing first and J. Michael Weger of Tanoe Vista, CA in second. Mike Paborski was third place winner over Jerry Olsen of Sparks.

The consolation tournament had 48 players with an all California finish. Jesse Jarrell, of Pittsburg, who had taken 2nd place at the Wine Valley on Sept 28th, took first place over Nick Ayoob of Quincy. In 3rd was George McLeod, Willows, with Steve Harding of Graeagle finishing 4th. No 28 hands were reported.

MINNESOTA VALLEY OPEN
OCT. 26, 1985 CHASKA, MN

Joan and Jim Rein welcomed 102 cribbage players to the VFW in Chaska. Returning to defend his first place win of a year ago was Gene Biegler of West Bend, WI but Gene had to be content with second place as Ray Jones of Prescott, WI snatched the first place honors. Third and fourth were taken by Minnesotans Bonnie Jennie of Chaska and Gregg Trytten of Albert Lea.

GREAT PLAINS FALL CLASSIC
NOV. 3, 1985 LINCOLN, NE

Jack Wunderlich, the tournament director for this 4 time a year get-together, reported 92 players attended the fall classic at the Airport Inn in Lincoln. A local player, Mickey Griffin of Lincoln, took the top honors by defeating Bill Gandy of Sioux City, IA. Another Lincolnite, Victor Seidell, beat out Charlene Rea, Sioux City, for 4th place.

Three Nebraskans took the top 3 spots in the consolation tournament. Walter Mack of Omaha edged out Bill Krause of Seward to take 1st place. Marv White of Lincoln nosed out a tough Des Moines, Ia. player, Alan Lichty, for 3rd place.

There were no 28 hands reported. Jack is preparing for his next date on February 2, 1986 at the same place.

RIVER CITY CRIBBAGE CLASSIQUE
NOV. 9-10, 1985 LA-CROSSE, WI.

It was the ladies turns to take top honors at the Ramada Inn in La Crosse, the site of this popular Wisconsin tournament. Dick and Barb Sjolander did their usual fine job running this affair. A familiar name on the midwest trail, Barbara Buntrock of Cedarburg, WI, walked off with 1st place. She beat Leonard Davy of Madison. 3rd place was captured by Herb Arndt of Luck, WI over Nancy Welch.

The ladies continued their domination in the consolation as Joy Jerdee of Robbinsdale, MN defeated Betty (what's her name) Ward from Menominee Falls for the first place honors. Our famous President, Joe Wergin, took 3rd place from Walt Chowanec, of Milwaukee, who was 4th. There were no 28 hands.

A SPECIAL NOTE

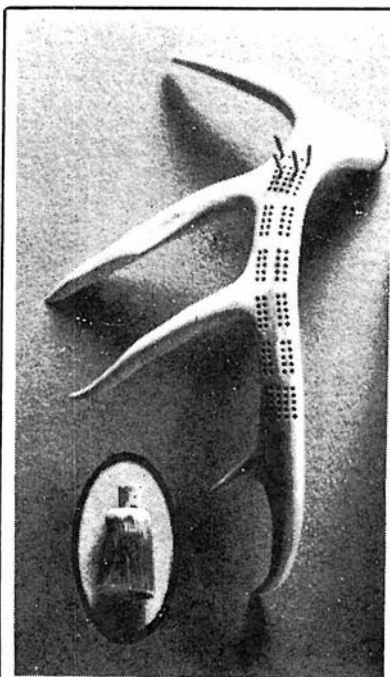

In the December issue of the Cribbage World we inadvertently reported the winners of the consolation tournament at the Colorado Championship in Boulder on Oct. 28, 1985. That portion of the tourney was not sanctioned because there were no playoffs.

FLORIDA OPEN CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT
NOV. 23-24,-1985 KISSIMMEE, FL

We received this tournament report from Haley Johnson who tells us that Jim Arblaster was in the hospital. We hope everything is okay with Jim and wish him a speedy recovery. It seems that Joe Seigle likes to get out of the cold weather in Coventry, CT, get down to Florida and win cribbage tournaments. Joe not only was the top qualifier, he also took 1st place over Lindsay Peever of Waynesville, NC. Luis Lizarribar came down from Martinez, GA to take 3rd place from Howard Burman of Hollywood, FL.

The consolation was won by Russ Cummings, the director of the Portside Open. Russ is from Portsmouth, VA. He topped Jim Shea of Shalimar, FL. Taking 3rd place was Woody Stokes of Ellenton, FL and 4th was won by Howard Moran of Ft. Walton Beach.

Joe Seigle not only won the main tournament, he also got a 28 hand as did Jasper Nichols of Orlando, FL.

MASTER POINTS

With the new reporting system that the American Cribbage Congress installed this year, there have been some misunderstandings regarding what must be reported by tournament directors. Most of the time directors have been quickly and efficiently sending in their reports along with their sanctioning fees. Because the reports are not complete, master points cannot be awarded. Those people that have master points coming from tournaments that have not been fully reported will receive them shortly. Please be patient. Tournament directors have been notified and are diligently trying to update their reports.

The master points shown below include all tournaments thru December 31, 1985 except the following:

SNOWBIRDS BRING CRIBBAGE TO ARIZONA

Four "SNOWBIRDS", Charlie Fletchall from Iowa, Norm Burlile from Washington D.C., Harry Anderson from Wisconsin and Eugene Durbin of Colorado, have organized what they believe to be the first Grass Roots cribbage club in Arizona. A meeting was held in the card room of the beautiful Venture Out Travel Trailer Park in Mesa on Nov. 9th. Twenty-six eager players attended the first meeting. Play will be twice monthly November thru March with a special playoff the first Saturday in April.

Gentlemen, organize an open tournament in that part of the country during the winter months so we can all enjoy some of that sunshine and warm weather!!!
