Board Making on Whidbey Island

by David Aiken

On a trip this past summer to the West Coast, I enjoyed spending a couple weeks in my home state, Washington. Most of the time was spent with family, but I also got to see some cribbage friends and play my favorite game. One highlight of my trip was visiting a cribbage board-making facility on Whidbey Island in Washington State. And what an eye-opener it was!

If you envision a couple of old guys drilling holes in boards, you'd be only partially right. But this is cribbage board-making with a modern twist.

Once known for its loganberry farms, Greenbank WA is now a small community that is home to cribbageboard.com. The company got its start back in the late 70s as Seattle Custom Gift, but made the switch to personalized custom-made cribbage boards when the internet came along.

The creative genius behind cribbageboard.com is Bruce Howard, who designed the process from blank board to finished product. Bruce sold the company to Chris Franko six years ago, and business is still booming.

The secret to making such high quality cribbage boards is a complicated machine called a CNC (computer numerical control). This computer-controlled machine drills holes and makes precise cuts to produce the beautiful boards.

After the boards are cut and drilled, they are coated with a special resin to give them a smooth, protective surface.

When someone orders a board, Bruce and Chris put the finishing touches on it by incorporating whatever personal touches and memorabilia the customer wants. One of their specialties is four-player boards for personnel in the US Submarine Service, but you can have boards customized with names and initials, family photos, favorite quotations, fraternal organization logos, school colors, coins, pins—you name it! With multiple woods and finishes to choose from, the combinations are endless.

So, when you want that perfect gift for a friend or family member, check out cribbageboard.com at cribbageboard.com! You'll be glad you did. CW

Alaska Cruise

With nearly ninety cribbage players signed up so far, the 2017 Alaska–Inside Passage eight-day cribbage cruise on the Carnival Legend is one of the most popular cribbage cruise to date! The logistics we are dealing with make it essential that we know exactly who is intending to play. We are already pushing the envelope with the number of cribbage players we can accommodate. (A wonderful problem!) Therefore, if you are booked on this cruise and haven't received the tournament entry form, please contact Jeanne Jelke (jjelke@charter.net or 509.521.3153) or Roger Wilson (cruisesbyroger@aol.com or 303.254.4670). Entry fees must be paid in advance (the registration deadline is April 7). There are still a handful of cabins available. If you are still considering this cruise, please contact Roger.

Thank You

Milwaukee Peggers Club 6 would like to publicly say “thank you” to Marlene Lazachek for her long and dedicated hours of building and running our club. She often has taken care of members when they were sick or in need of help, even giving a ride to club/tournaments. After twenty-seven years she decided to step back and concentrate on her other duties and activities for the ACC. Enjoy your time, stop by when you can, and God speed.

Ellen Kutz (Club 6 director)

Thank You, Cribbage Family

We want to publicly thank our extended cribbage family for the generosity and kindness demonstrated to helping support our surrogacy fund. Fifty-six cribbage players have collectively donated a generous total of $2,325! Numerous others have been supportive of our parenting journey as expressed by their concern, love, and prayers for continued healing from our recent pregnancy losses as well as expressing hope and best wishes for a positive future. My husband and I are humbled and extremely appreciative. If you care to read more about how we came to this point in our lives and/or want to follow our surrogacy journey, go to gofundme.com/2jmjpsp8. Thank you so much for your continued support, love, positive thoughts, and prayers! God bless! Best of luck to all on the cribbage trail!

The 2016 rulebook is now available (see the November Cribbage World, pages 19–21). All current judges have been mailed a free copy of the new rulebook. Other members may order a rulebook by sending a $2 check to the following address:

ACC Membership Secretary
PO Box 2444
Roseburg OR 97470-0510

For orders of ten or more copies, contact the secretary at 888.734.4464 or acc@cmspan.net.

Ruling Points . . .

When special situations happen, the rules do not change to accommodate them, unless specifically noted in the rulebook. A player recently asked if a flush could be counted when they had a short hand or crib (three cards). That is, if all three cards were the same suit, does this constitute a flush for three points (four with the cut card). No, it does not. The scoring chart in rule 1.7 (page 10 in the 2016 rulebook) is very clear about what card combinations make scoring points, and if not listed, none are available.

Ruling Points is written by Patrick & Michael Barrett (Wisconsin Rapids WI). The brothers have been ACC judges since the early 1990s, and Patrick has been a senior judge since 2002. If you have a question about the rulebook or a judge call, send it to them at barrettsauctions@gmail.com.

GAME ON

by Dan Zeisler

Teaching Tip

I know you have never heard of “cribbersizing,” because it’s a word I made up. It means incorporating physical exercise into a game of cribbage. This is a fun and great way to add interest when teaching youth. What I do every now and then is declare that today is a cribbersize class. Students then know that if they get a twelve point hand or higher, their opponent must immediately do a series of push-ups, sit-ups, or jumping jacks. Kids love this, as it balances a sedentary game with movement. I tried to get my wife to agree to cribbersize, with the loser of having to do a lap up and down the stairs. I thought the idea was brilliant, but it was a no-go. ☹️

Youth News

There is no doubt that youth cribbage is growing in popularity. There are already three sanctioned youth events on the 2017 Tournament Trail:

- February 25: Sierra Youth Cribbage Tournament (Grass Valley CA); contact Dan Zeisler (danthefan@yahoo.com or 530.263.7468)
- June 3: Cribbage Memorial Youth Tournament (El Dorado Hills CA); contact Don Howard (grumpydopey@sbcglobal.net or 916.212.2465)
- September 8: 1st Youth Grand National (Lincoln City OR); contact Don Howard or Dan Zeisler

If you have information about a youth event taking place in 2017, please let me know so I can help promote it. Also, if you are interested in hosting a sanctioned youth event, I’ll be happy to direct you on how to do that as well. Contact me at danthefan@yahoo.com.

Teaching Manuals

Recent requests for youth teaching manuals were received from the following people. Watch for a youth boom in these areas!

- Dave Adams (Forest Acres SC)
- Tami Hoenig (Port Orchard WA)

Dan Zeisler is founder of Sierra Youth Cribbage Tournament. Send info about youth cribbage to 530.274.3124 or danthefan@yahoo.com.

ACC Awards

Paul C. Barnes
(Daytona Beach FL)
Life Master #227

Paul learned to play cribbage from fellow workers at GE—Al Lokiz, Art Button, and Ernie Semsky—during lunch. He joined the ACC in 1988 after returning from work in Germany. His cribbage mentor is the best player he knows—Frank Danielski. Paul has been Halifax Area Club 230 champion three times, and he has earned his Silver Award. His first tournament win was the Lewis and Clark Classic in Yankton SD. He currently has nine tournament wins. The National Open in Raleigh is his favorite, though the JPW/ACC Open is close behind. His toughest opponents are David Fournier and Barri Gehrand, so it is no wonder that his top cribbage moment this year was beating David in two games to win a recent consolation. Paul also enjoys square dancing, computers, and yard sales.

Bob's father introduced him to cribbage when he was about ten years old. In college he played mostly bridge and setback. When he was selected for promotion to the home office with his employer, the joke was that in order to be eligible to work in that department you had to know how to play cribbage as it was a lunchtime tradition. Bob joined the ACC and Hartford Metro Club 26 in early 1997. He had been told that in that club "we beat each other up" pretty regularly, and Bob learned this to be true, as his Silver Award is still over 300 points away and approaching very slowly. Bob tries to attend National Open, Grand National, TOC, and JPW/ACC Open regularly (except when snowed in). He considers his regular traveling companion Bill Shoemaker to be his toughest opponent. Bob is an active participant in his church choir and in the Freemasons, having just retired following twelve years as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut.

and Life Master (Missoula, 2016). My most memorable tournament was in Missoula this year. I beat DeLynn Colvert (my mentor and favorite opponent) in the finals when he had me down 2-0 and achieved my Life Master. And later the same week, I retired. One of my favorite comments is, "In what other sport can you see the great country of USA, meet wonderful people and, if you're lucky, make a few bucks?" I play at Club 261, and I can proudly say I have had four generations play at the club. I am blessed with three sons (and their wives), nine grandchildren, and one great grandson. I do want to say thank you to the members of the ACC: Bless you—each and every one.

Sanders took me under their wings and allowed me to tag along with them. In 2005 my son, Terry, started coming to some of the tournaments. Thank goodness he did because he is the one who told me when I got my Master (Edmonton, 2010), Grand Master (Reno, 2013), Laurie's parents taught her to play at a very young age, and she played with family all through childhood. She currently belongs to Boise Peggers, after starting with the Quincy Club in the early 90s and then belonging to the Arizona Roadrunners for twenty years. She joined the ACC in 1985 when she and Ron (now her mentor) were dating. Her first two tournaments were the Quincy World Championship and the National Open in Raleigh NC. Her first tournament win was in the 1994 Oregon Coast Classic main in Lincoln City. Her favorite tournament is Grand National, as it allows her and Ron to travel all over the country seeing wonderful places they would not have visited otherwise!

Laurie enjoys being a grandma to ten+ grandchildren and eagerly awaits her first two great-granddaughters before the end of the year.

The Inside Track
by Rob Medeiros

You are holding A-2-3-4, and your opponent leads a middle card. How should you respond? In general situations I would play an Ace on a 6 lead, 4 on a 7 lead, 3 on an 8 lead, and a 2 on a 9 lead. So four different responses to the four middle-card leads. However if you are feeling somewhat adventurous—which sometimes crosses my mind—you could play a 4 on opponent's 6 lead, and see what interesting complications ensue!

Cribbage Board of the Month

BY JAY FULWIDER

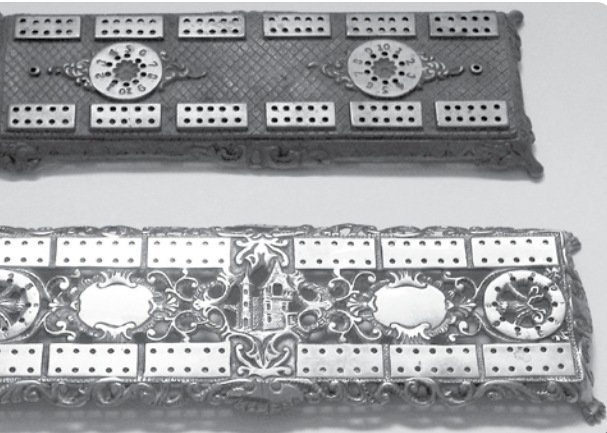

Last September I attended the seventeenth annual Cribbage Board Collectors Society (CBCS) convention in Denver. The highlight every year is getting together with old friends and meeting new ones. An added bonus this year was the silent auction of a former CBCS member's collection.

Marvin Maxell passed away a few years ago and left his collection of around one thousand boards to the CBCS. It was a huge undertaking for the CBCS to get Marv's collection to Denver and give our members first ment, rented a trailer and transported the boards from Salt Lake City to Denver. A big thanks also goes to Ed and Jane McLaughlin, Terry Coons, Cec Bradshaw, Jim Herzog, and Peter Leach, who sorted through the boards and helped with the auction. A final thanks to Larry Snow, who sponsored a great convention. Knowing the amount of work that these folks and others put in, I seriously doubt that the CBCS will be accepting any more collections. I hope my nieces and nephews will like my collection.

The two boards in the photo came from the auction. The top board is brass and the bottom board is silver or nickel plated. I have no history on the brass board, but the other board was manufactured by the George C. Allis Company (Derby CT). It dates to the mid- to late 1800s. Both boards have Whist markers (counters) at each end.

According to Encyclopedia Britannica, the first record of the game Whist was in 1529 and it was shot at these wonderful boards. On behalf of all our attending members, I want to thank Dan Betz who, on his way home from a Reno tourna-

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards from his home in picturesque Washington State, where he also enjoys golf, fishing, and racquetball. His philosophy on the key to life: "Just keep your pegs moving." # IN MEMORY OF CRIBBAGE FRIENDS

Gayle Lelandais

Gayle Lelandais (Fair Oaks CA) passed away peacefully on October 17 after being placed in hospice care. She was a recent member of the River City Peggers, having moved to the Sacramento area after residing in Paradise CA for many years. Gayle was also a Soroptimist, in the Pilot Club in Paradise, and a volunteer grandparent in the Paradise schools. She enjoyed crafts, collecting antiques, and the holidays, especially Christmas. She will be missed by her many friends in the cribbage family.

Beverley J. Ross

Beverley Ross (Modesto CA) passed away on November 5, from Alzheimer's. She and her husband, Frank, were longstanding members of Sonora Club 140. You could always count on Bev for a warm smile and a friendly hello. She loved the game and played as long as she could before the disease took away her ability, even then she still had that sunny disposition that made everyone who knew her love her. All of us at Club 140 send our deepest sympathy to Frank and her family. She will be greatly missed.

Harold L. Schmelzer

Harold Schmelzer, who spent winters in Oregon and summers in Alaska for over forty-five years, succumbed to a failing heart on October 5. He was 85. He served in the Army in Panama from 1952 to 1954 and spent the rest of his life building, investing in real estate, and enjoying artistic pursuits. Many cribbage players play with pegs he made, and a few are lucky enough to have his specially made cribbage boards. His last wish was for his friends to cheer his great long life.

Lucy Ann Wilkinson

Pahrump Peggers Club 360 lost a lovely member on October 10 at the age of 76. Lucy and her husband of 57 years, LeRoy, lived in Henderson NV but would drive an hour to Pahrump to play cribbage most Thursdays. Lucy always smiled and had a good word to say about everyone. She loved to talk about her children and grandchildren, her life while living in Alaska, and working for the school district in Fairbanks. She and LeRoy originally retired to Washington and belonged to Chehalis-Centralia Club 232. Lucy talked about how she learned a lot about cribbage from Ras. She was a joy to have in our club, and she will be missed by all her knew her.

called "Trump." It had several other names until Whist was adopted in the 1700s. The markers are used for scoring, but could also be used for cribbage "games won."

Thanks again to all involved with the CBCS convention. Our members got a chance to add some interesting boards to our collections. CW

The President's Column

by Jeanne Hofbauer

As we all know, it sometimes gets pretty crowded at our tournament playing tables. I have been asked to talk about “personal space.” Luckily, most of us are not “territorial.” In my experience I see mostly politeness and a friendly sharing of space. However, it would be just good manners to keep your personal items to a minimum it is a wonderful arena to share good ideas about cribbage. I love to see the pictures of people playing, tournament trophies, and good hands. Many members post the brackets on Facebook, and it is fun to see how our friends are doing in tournament play.

I think that Facebook has the greatest

“Be kind whenever possible. It is always possible.”
— the Dalai Lama

because of the limited area. Let's take a leap and say that “personal space” could also include your scorecard. Please refrain from writing anything on an opponent's scorecard other than your initials and seat number, unless you are a judge making a correction or notation.

Speaking of good manners, it has come to my attention that some of the chatter on the ACC Facebook page, and other pages dealing with the ACC, isn't always so polite. I do not participate in Facebook, but I know several members who do, and they share with me sometimes. I think that potential of anything else we are doing to attract new members. But how can we expect people to want to join us if bickering, discontent, and meanness pervade this platform? I am suggesting that before you post something that might not be seen as interesting or friendly you consider the possible harm you could be doing. People seeking entertainment are not going to go where they are made to feel uncomfortable. And why would you want to hurt anybody's feelings?

Jeanne

Ev Bey had a huge influence on the ACC. His Quincy World Championship predated the ACC, and it became the first sanctioned tournament on the West Coast. Ev served on the BOD for twenty years, including a stint as ACC president beginning in 1994. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1983. And he had an outsize influence in northern California throughout his career as a newspaperman. The newspapers that he owned and operated are still in existence, and one of them recently published a sesquicentennial tribute to the 150-year history of the company. Go to plumasnews.com and type “paying tribute” in the search box. A picture of Ev and Fey Bey appears on page 6.

Timber Capital Club 62 (Roseburg OR)—during the summer session and the beginning of September, Tracy Meyer had two grand slams back-to-back. Frank Ornie slammed the club twice in July and September. Raymond Burns got the last slam of the month.

In Century Peggys Club 100 (Napa CA), when it rains, it pours! It was founded in 1989 and during the twenty-seven-year period up until June of this year, they had only two 29-hands in weekly play. Then it hit! Garrett Van Scyoc had one on June 7, and Yvonne Bowers had one on October 10. Finally, Thelma Weber, visiting from Club 21, hit one on November 11!

Halifax Area Club 230 (Ormond Beach FL)—Paul Engle wins two weeks in a row, with a grand slam on November 1!

Twin City Peggys Club 240 (Maplewood MN) congratulates Mary Thacker, who had a grand slam on October 26.

Club 306 (El Dorado Hills CA)—John O'Donnell recorded a grand slam on September 7, in his first tournament—a happy new member with a very nice 20/9 +180 card!

Central Wisconsin Club 120 (Wisconsin Rapids WI)—Elliott Havitz scored his second 29-hand (and sixteenth in club history) on November 3.

Granite State Cribbers Club 314 (Hudson NH)—Patti Jones cut the case five to earn her first ever 28-hand!

Dennis Morin of Boxcar Peggys Club 371 (Citrus Heights CA) had the first grand slam of the season in that club.

Club 309 (Kelowna BC) has been active: Al Topham a 28-hand on October 12; Gary Kerrison had a 29-hand on October 19; Jill Rix had a 28-hand on October 26; and Al Topham had a grand slam on November 2!

Club 328 (Bradenton FL)—on October 22 Steven Amaral and Mary Ann Snell were battling head-to-head. Steve emerged the victor even though Mary Ann had a 28-hand in the crib! Since the start of the Ross learned cribbage from his father and his wife. He joined the ACC in 1992 and attends Monterey County Club 82 in Seaside CA; he has been club Champion four times. For two long months at the end of last season, he needed only 4 GRPs to reach Gold, but he finally made it on the first week of the new season! Ross won his first sanctioned tournament at Alamo CA in 1998; he now has nineteen wins. His toughest opponent is Jim Langley. Ross enjoys collecting wine, cooking, and taking road trips with his wife; they have driven to Alaska three times.

Jerry learned to play cribbage at age sixteen when he worked at Streib's Drive-In. He got his first 29-hand one week after learning how to play and finally got another one in 2009 (it was dealt to him by Fran Ward, when Jerry needed 28 points to win the game!). Jerry joined the ACC in 1986 when he played his first tournament—the National Open, which is still his favorite. Jerry has been champion of Raleigh Club 58 three times and has several mentors there—Jeff Raynes, Cathy Perkins, and Larry Phifer. Jerry won his first tournament in Fayetteville NC in 2006 and went on a spree, winning three of his next four tournaments! His toughest opponent is his wife, Barbara. They play four games every evening for five bucks per game. He won't give the exact amount, but he nearly had to take out a loan to pay her at the end of last year! Jerry's greatest cribbage moment occurred in Portsmouth VA in 2000 when, after losing his first five games, he then won the next seventeen games (with five skunks to become high qualifier) plus the first seven games in the high roller that evening (he won it)—for twenty-four consecutive wins! Jerry joined the US Navy in 1964 to see the world (he did: North Atlantic, Arctic Circle, Mediterranean, Vietnam, South America), then worked at IBM until 1992, when he became a real estate appraiser. After re-retiring in 2015, he plays cribbage and golf—his other favorite past time.

season, the club has had four 28-hands, including Bob Labossiere (9/17), Donna Lindsey (10/01), and Roy Klementti (11/12).

During play at Valley Eagles Club 198 (Spokane Valley WA), Bob Kemp and Dick Froehlich were the last two players. Bob was dealing from 34 holes out, with Dick 10 holes out and counting first. They teased each other: Bob told Dick that a “good player” could make it out from there, while Dick smiled and said “Show me!” Bob dealt himself 3-3-3-9 and threw 5-K into his crib. Dick threw 10-K to the crib, and the cut card was the case 3. After the pegging, Bob’s 24-hand and 8-crib gave him the victory. This was the last hand of the night, so Bob won the 24-prize, added 12 GRPs to his season total, and also took first place with 12/6. It doesn’t get any better than this!
