My Deal

by David Aiken

Play smart, play fair, play fast.

I enjoy travel—seeing parts of this country I haven't seen before, or revisiting the same cool places again. And I like the opportunity to see old friends and make new ones.

I just returned from a 5,500-mile, 26-day excursion to the Pacific Northwest. The primary reason for the trip was my nephew's high school graduation in Wenatchee WA and a family reunion in Monroe WA. But I squeezed in some sightseeing (fifty-four years after I first saw it, the Space Needle is still groovy—an appropriate adjective given this tower's origin in the 60s—and the rugged North Cascades are, quite simply, awe-inspiring) and antiquing (I returned with thirteen more cribbage boards for my collection).

As you probably guessed, I also played a few (read: 193) games of cribbage during my trip. I played some tournaments, but the real cribbage fun came when I visited four local clubs in Washington: Wenatchee (#379), Federal Way (#148), Olalla (#204), and Whidbey Island. I am happy to report that cribbage is alive and robust in my home state, and if the first three clubs in this list (the Whidbey Island club is nonsanctioned) are representative of the ACC, our future looks fairly secure.

Each of these clubs is full of vibrant, active members who love the game and play for the sheer enjoyment it gives. Even in summertime, these clubs had lots of players in action. The club directors—Rick Westerman (Wenatchee), Hal Lamon (Auburn), and Larry West (Seabeck)—are enthusiastic and have great ideas for bringing in new members and retaining them. May their tribe increase.

I also spent two days with Jay and Lois Fulwider in West Seattle. Jay is a longtime member of Club 148 and writes Cribbage Board of the Month. Since I asked Jay to write the first CBOM in the May 2008 CW, he has been my best columnist—always on (or ahead of) schedule, always educational, and always entertaining.

We have become good friends in the intervening years, and our shared interests—playing cribbage, collecting cribbage boards, following the fortunes of the Seattle Seahawks—were evidenced in full during my stay. When not drooling over Jay's extensive collection of cribbage boards, I was staring at Mount Rainier from his back porch.

Travel, friends, cribbage. Life is good. CW

Target practice: feel free to take aim at the CW editor whenever we play—but be careful, or your name might end up in the center column!

By playing in 134 Grass Roots tourneys this year (#9 in the list on page 1), Ralph Turco (Tacoma WA) earns this year's "Iron Man" award. Ralph is fortunate to live in the Seattle area and have access to many nearby clubs. His home club is Pierce County 243 in Tacoma, but he regularly visited three other clubs this season: Sea-Tac Peggers 148 (Federal Way), Puyallup River Peggers 317 (Puyallup), and 29 Seekers 415 (Auburn). Here are Ralph's yearly stats:

day	club	miles from Ralph's house	sessions	total points	average points
Monday	243	7.6	35	316	9.0

4 is normally reserved for letters from members. But this month's selection was filled with negativity that wasn't moving the discussion forward. We've had enough of that lately, so how about some positive news? Let us know about the good things happening in your club and in your hometown. Yes, this is your forum, so also let us know what is on your mind, but keep it civil—and printable.

Tourney Tidbits

Double Flush At the Pacific Coast Saturday Night Special, Life Master (★) Jeanne Jelke (Redding CA) was playing Mike Frantz (Monterey CA). Jeanne was the pone and held A-2-3-J all Clubs, and the 2 of Hearts was cut. As it turned out, Mike (dealer) held A-2-3-J all Diamonds, and so both players had identical flushes (except for suit) for 18 count! Not only is this a pretty rare hand, but the odds of both players having it at the same time must be phenomenally small!

New Illinois Open Only two 28-hands showed all weekend, and both were in the playoffs—Life Master (2★) Rob Medeiros (Dorchester MA) held a 28 while playing Life Master (4★) Wayne Steinmetz (Hartland WI) in the main semis, and Grand Master Dan Selke (Arlington Heights IL) had a 28 versus Grand Master Clay Collier (Beatrice NE) in the consolation final. Dan had made Grand Master just minutes earlier by topping Collier's traveling partner, Master Don Thienel (Omaha NE), in the semis.

Betty and James In the last five tournaments that James Morrow (Sunnyside WA) has directed, Grand Master Betty Brumley (Sunnyside WA) has won four events: Summer Classic doubles, Weekday Challenge consolation, World Championships consolation, and Washington State Open main. The word on the street is that Betty is now paying James to direct even more tourneys!

Walk Softly and . . . John Gray (Weaverville CA) presents a handcrafted walking stick to Rickie Mack (Gold Hill OR) at the first annual Jerry Montgomery Memorial in Redding CA. John plays Grass Roots with the Redding Peggers, and for the last several years, he has handcrafted and decorated a walking stick to give away at each Redding tournament as a drawing for early registrants. This particular walking stick was created from a 106-year-old Douglas Fir on John's property.

Twenty-eight ACC members embarked from Long Beach CA for a cribbage cruise in late April. Five nonmembers on the cruise saw a sign announcing "Private Event—Cribbage Tournament" and joined in the fun.

The President's Column

by Jeanne Hofbauer

I really enjoyed the June 2016 Cribbage World. It had good articles about our members and some well-needed input from our members. Jack Shumate's story about Stan Wilson was so interesting, if I did not already know Stan, I would be trying to find a way to meet him! Likewise, Bill Jones and the story about his service to our country being recognized. I especially encourage others members to write, as Ira Deutsch did, with personal stories about their own ACC experiences. And our editor did a great job in showcasing new Grand Master Haley Hintze so we can see her as more than just a formidable opponent across a cribbage board!

Also noted are the "25 years ago in the ACC," where we can see past glories, and "In Memory of Cribbage Friends," where we recognize the loss of our friends and fellow competitors.

But one of the things that really resonated with me was the letter from new member Scott Lee, titled "Frustration." As our editor wrote, this particular issue is an easy fix, we just need to remember to explain our particular cribbage "jargon" from time to time, and new members need to know that there are many resources to ask how things work, what things mean, and how to access help. But a thought occurred to me: Could this be an example of why we have a problem with retention of new members?

Entering a new group or new society can be intimidating. Remember your first day of school? Well, probably not, but you get my drift! How about your first day on a new job? We need to facilitate the concept of "belonging" with new members. They need to feel they are accepted because they have an interest in playing cribbage. This is why they have come to us, this is our point of commonality. We need to make them feel they are welcome and wanted.

The need to belong is what drives humans to participate in social activities such as sports, clubs, religious groups, and community organizations. We have an emotional need to affiliate with and be accepted by members of a group. We need to have not just acquaintance, but acceptance, attention, and support from fellow members, as well as the acknowledgment that we can give those attributes back to others in the group.

I know that this concept works, it worked with me. Our first contact with the ACC was at a Grass Roots club in Portland OR in 1985. We were greeted by a fellow named John Hardy. I will never forget his warmth and interest in having us participate. Even though John moved to Colorado years ago, he is still a good friend. We were fortunate to enjoy some time with him recently as he was visiting friends and family in Oregon.

IN MEMORY OF CRIBBAGE FRIENDS

Mike Beauvais

Our good friend Mike Beauvais (Tehachapi CA), known affectionately as “Beavis,” died of laryngeal cancer on April 1 (we suspect he picked the date) at the VA hospital in West Los Angeles. His name was never on the ACC leaderboard, as his farming life near Bakersfield CA demanded his attention year-round, but when he needed a break from rural isolation, he sought it in the companionship of his ACC family. Few knew about the three Distinguished Flying Crosses he earned in Vietnam, or that he sang and played guitar like a CMA recording artist, or that he had an almost mystical communication with dogs, but many a tournament director and player has been grateful for his help at events. Some might remember Mike as the van driver who picked them up at the Reno airport and took them to North Lake Tahoe for GN 21, others as the gentle giant who could be counted on to step in and smooth a rough patch, others as the mentor who taught a young player a focusing technique. The Beav was one of a kind. Long may his memory be treasured.

Donald R. Kelsen

Donald Kelsen (Centennial CO), director of Mile High Peggers Club 23 and Bronze Award winner, passed away on April 28 following a courageous fight with esophageal cancer. Don’s roots were in Minnesota, but he and his wife, Julie, came to Colorado ten years ago to be close to grandchildren. Don was a “giver.” He gave of his time helping neighbors and friends; he gave of time and money supporting a variety of charities; and he always gave a warm and welcoming smile to friends and strangers alike. He will be deeply missed by cribbage players throughout Colorado.

Jim Markowitz

Jim Markowitz (Seaside CA) passed away in April from a heart attack. An original member of Monterey County Club 82, organized in 1987, he moved away for about ten years but returned three years ago and immediately proved his reputation as a superior cribbage player; he had earned his Bronze Award. His career as a police officer in Los Angeles was ended by a severe injury suffered in the line of duty. A lasting result was a life of almost constant pain, yet he was always cheerful and loved the game. He will be missed.

O’Dean Osborne

O’Dean “Ozzie” Osborne passed away on March 11 just a few days shy of his seventy-sixth birthday. He left behind these words: “I’d like the memory of me to be a happy one. I’d like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I’d like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times, and bright and sunny days. I’d like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done.” And this note from Club 198 in Spokane Valley WA: “Ozzie loved music and cribbage along with his family and friends. We miss you very much.”

Betty Jean Scott

Longtime member Betty Scott (Coloma MI) passed away on March 31. She enjoyed playing cribbage with Club 107 (St. Joseph MI) and her brothers, Dick and Jack Stakley. Betty was known for her humorous comments while playing cribbage, such as: “When are you leaving for dealer’s school?” and “What school did you go to? That adds up to —.” She will continue to be fondly thought of and missed.

Cribbage Board of the Month

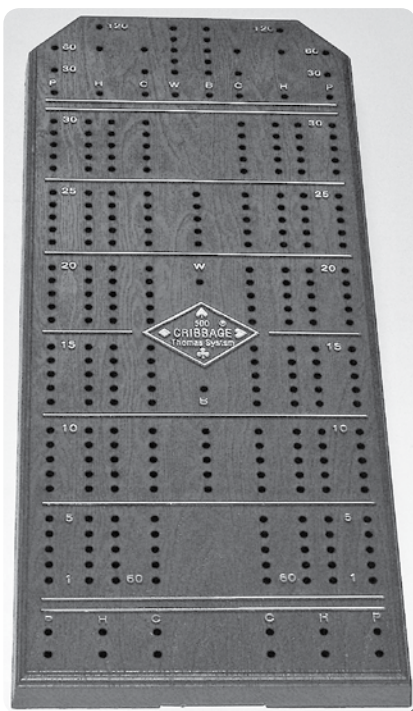

BY JAY FULWIDER

The featured board this month was sent to me by ACC member Jerry Burgess (FL-1467) of Lake Wales FL. Jerry plays with the Haines City Grass Roots Club. He found this board at a yard sale and after reading over the instructions, he felt it was quite unusual. It appears to be a standard board with some extra holes. It could be used for playing a standard game, but is designed by Thomas Stauff to be, according to him, a modernized, updated, scientific version of the old game of cribbage.

Stauff felt that “American cribbage” needed to be changed from the old, stuffy English style. He came up with a variation to the old game that he called “500 Cribbage Thomas System.” In his introduction to the game, he writes that the old rules were written by “Englishmen writing to Englishmen, about an old English game. But times have changed, the game has changed [note: he is speaking of the original five-card game changing to six cards] and the rules most certainly should have been changed accordingly. . . . Like hoop skirts and bustles they have long since served their day and now represent just pages in ancient history.” He goes on to say, “We have therefore taken over this ‘unpolished gem,’ have ground down its surface inequalities and polished its facets to enable it to take its rightful place as the Crown-jewel of all card games.”

This 500 Cribbage board was made in 1982 by “500” Cribbage Inc. of Van Nuys CA. However, the rules and introduction were copyrighted in 1939. I don't know when the first boards were manufactured. I am guessing it was in the early 60s because the "500 Cribbage" logo was trademarked 2-2-1960. The trademark has expired along with the continued manufacturing of this convoluted version of cribbage.

Just a few more notes, and I will put 500 Cribbage back on the shelf (where it belongs). First, the rules are twenty-eight pages long, and the game incorporates American poker with cribbage. Because of that, a point value of 15 is given to a straight flush. Therefore 3-4-5-6-7 all Spades is worth 15-4 plus 15 points for the straight flush, for a total of 19. Really?!

Thank you, Jerry, for a very interesting addition to my collection. I will be taking it to the Cribbage Board Collectors Convention this September in Denver. CW

The Inside Track

by Rob Medeiros

It is sometimes important to out-wait our opponents during pegging sequences. You are nondealer with 2-5-J-Q. The dealer plays an Ace on your 2 lead. What do you do? It's easy to just play a picture card and avoid potential trouble, but is that the right play? Many times the dealer plays a low card to induce you to play a picture, so why fall into the trap? Play the 5 and don't be surprised if dealer plays a J or Q, which you happily match—a big four-point swing that could be a factor in the eventual outcome of the game.

Jim's brother taught him how to play cribbage, and Jim joined the ACC in 1999. His cribbage mentors were Santa Clara Club 48 members. Now a member of Club 43 in Fremont, Jim has been club champion four times and has earned his Silver Award. He has won twenty-eight tourneys, including the 2005 ACC Open and the 2004 Grand National. His favorite tournament is Lincoln City OR; he says, "The facility is top notch and the setting overlooking the ocean is fabulous!" Jim's toughest opponent in the playoffs is Erik Locke. Jim has never won a playoff match against Erik in four attempts, three of which were the main finals! Jim's noncribbage interests include hiking, golf, gardening, and movies. He is also the first registered weather observer/rainfall total reporter in Santa Clara County as a member of CoCoRaHS (Community Collaborative Rain, Hail, and Snow Network).

A native Oregonian, Nancy learned to play cribbage from her older brothers when she was six. She joined the ACC in 1991 and is a member of Club 46 in Salem, where she has earned her Silver Award and been club champion four times. Nancy has won many satellite events, but has never won a sanctioned tourney. Her cribbage mentors are Rolie Heath and Paul Hatcher, and Lincoln City OR is her favorite tourney. Nancy married young and had five children and many grandchildren. She spent most of her working life as a bartender and bar owner in Portland, Salem, and Dallas OR. She is a recovering alcoholic thirty-two years come November. Nancy enjoys reading, working crosswords, and playing bingo.

Matt's grandfather taught him to play cribbage at eight years of age. He joined the ACC in 1993. His cribbage mentor is Rick Bryant, who also doubles as his toughest opponent, along with Bruce Sattler. After his first tournament win, the Fayetteville consolation in October 1997, Matt has now won six sanctioned tournaments. His favorite tourney is National Open in Raleigh, and his favorite cribbage moment this year was pegging out on Sara Sanner, who was in the dead hole with first count and Matt was 9 out. Matt enjoys hockey, maps, and reading. He grew up in Canada where, Matt says, cribbage is much more common than in the States.

A member of Club 3 in Algonquin IL, he has earned his Bronze Award. Dan's favorite tourneys are Reno and Topaz, and his toughest opponent is Tony Danihel. Other regular players (not pictured) are Joe Zimmitti (Cromwell), Grand Master Barbara Barbour (South Windsor), Karl Russo (South Glastonbury), Brian Parsons (East Hartford), and Master Bruce Hassan (Glastonbury). Nineteen young cribbage players from northern California came to play in the fifth annual Cribbage Memorial Youth Tournament in El Dorado Hills CA on March 21. This sanctioned event featured a rematch between Tristan Bacocho and Conner Branson, who played for the championship in the 12+ division a month earlier at the Sierra Youth Cribbage Tournament. Other highlights included a second place finish by seven-year-old Nina Plowman, playing in her first ever event; another strong showing by the Gregson brothers; and a 28-hand scored by eight-year-old Piper Pagan. A special thank you to Don Grumpy Howard for directing a well-organized, fun event, and to several members of the Gold Country Cribbers Club 306 for volunteering their time.

The Grass Root National Tournament is complete. There were 2,035 players, and all the results have been compiled by statistician Bob Joslin! To see the full results, go to accgrassroots.org and click on the "Results" link at the top of the page. San Diego Club 79 took the most money out of the prize fund mostly due to the huge 37/16 card that Steven Stanley posted. His stellar day won him a nice payout and Grass Roots bragging rights for a year. Thirty-four players posted 30-point scorecards or better. There were eight grand slams (first nine or last nine games), fourteen 28-hands, and two perfect 29-hands, held by Lawrence Switala of Arizona Roadrunners Club 24 and the previously mentioned Steven Stanley. Only one club had two players in the top twenty: Jerry Rice and Gerald DeVowe of Club 390 in Bergland MI.

We have posted a lot of stories, championship battles, and reports of 28-hands on Facebook, the second best way to see even more about your fellow players' years! Here is one way to foster cribbage. On June 7 fifteen students were pegging away in the fourth annual Fremont Middle School youth cribbage tournament. Winner Daniel Burky and runner-up Ethan Leaton, both sixth graders, were awarded trophy boards. Gift cards for special hands, cribbage boards, and pegs also were given out. In four years ninety-six students have played in these tournaments, with seven adults helping each year.
