BOD ELECTION

Every odd-numbered year the ACC holds elections for its 25-member Board of Directors. The next two-year term of office begins on September 1, 2017, and runs through August 31, 2019. All ACC members age 18 and above are eligible to vote. Joint members will receive two issues of the April Cribbage World this month so that each eligible voter has a separate ballot.

This election cycle the ACC is again offering a choice of voting by mail or online at cribbage.org. To guard against duplicate voting, each eligible voter has been issued a random four-digit alphanumeric code that must be used when voting. Located to the right of your ACC number on the back of this issue of CW, this code will be used to gain access to the online ballot. It must also be written on all ballots sent by mail. All ballots must be mailed separately; no group ballots will be accepted.

This year thirty-three candidates are running for election to the BOD. Candidate biographies and photos (presented in random order) are printed on pages 16–25. Please read these paragraphs carefully, for they contain statements by the candidates about their qualifications, cribbage accomplishments, contributions to the ACC,

ELECTION ISSUE

All eligible voters will get a copy of this CW because it contains the BOD ballot. This means that joint members will receive two CWs. Don't panic—next month you will be back to one issue.

My Deal

by David Aiken

Play smart, play fair, play fast.

Psst! Don't tell anyone, but I've got the scoop on who to vote for in the upcoming BOD election. During my ten years as Cribbage World editor, I have not listed the candidates I recommend, but this year I'm gonna specifically tell you who to vote for—almost.

But before I do that, you should turn to pages 16–25 and read all of the candidate biographies. There are two operative words here. First, by “read the bios” I mean read as in apprehend or learn—not skim, dip into, or thumb through. And second, by “read all” I mean read all of them—not just those you have already decided to vote for.

Study the bios to figure out what the candidates have done, are doing, and will do to promote the ACC. Then vote for candidates who have the best interests of the ACC at heart. Do not vote for someone who thinks only about his/her region, or state, or tournament, or—especially—about himself or herself. Those candidates will not contribute in a meaningful way to the ACC's future.

So yeah, I'm not gonna tell you which names to vote for, but your guiding principle should be this: vote for the candidates working for the ACC. If you vote for self-serving candidates—of if you do not vote at all—and we end up with a BOD that you are not happy with, guess what? You will have only yourself to blame.

Okay, Your turn. Go vote. CW

Target practice: feel free to take aim at the CW editor whenever we play—but be careful, or your name might end up in the center column!

Doc Bauman

On February 15 we lost Dr. H. Dean Bauman. I met Dean at Iditarod (the Alaskan Sled Dog Race) at McGrath Checkpoint in 2009. I immediately liked Dean, with his veterinary knowledge, his great sense of humor, and obviously his love of cribbage. My appreciation and love for this man continued to increase in the ensuing years, as we met annually to take care of the amazing canine athletes. I even managed to best him in cribbage occasionally. He will always have a place in my heart. As we say in Alaska, "He is on the trail."

Chance of a Chance at 29-hand?

The odds of getting a 29 hand are 1-in-216,580. What are the odds of being dealt a hand to have an opportunity for the cut?

Michael Grage (Elk Grove Village IL)

Contrary to popular belief, the CW staff does not have all the answers to every cribbage question—but we know where to find them! For this one, we turned to Steve Lumetta, professor at University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (see the October 2016 cover story). Here is how Professor Lumetta responded: "The chance to get three 5s and the Jack of the other suit, but not also have the remaining 5 among your six cards, is 1 in  $216,580/46 = 4,708.26$ ."

Reshuffle

Excellent card-mixing article [March CW, page 4] about making a random deck. I want to encourage others to reshuffle if they don't get a reasonable mix from the dealer. Why? Cards get melded into high-scoring similarly ranked cards. You cut into them and the dealer gets two hands to your one. You also have to discard similar cards, and lead into similar cards. Poor shuffler gives a huge advantage to dealer. We all want a fair, random deck, don't we?

I would like to thank all the BOD members who brought a cribbage board to Reno (eleven were donated). We will use them for youth tournaments.

COOL STUFF WE FOUND ON THE WEB

Cribbage is alive and well in Washington State. Not only that, it is officially sanctioned by a government entity: King County Water Taxi, which moves people from the Seattle waterfront to Vashon Island with a 99.1% on-time performance!

King County is the most populous county in Washington, and Vashon Island is the largest island in the southern part of Puget Sound. So if you want to visit the island, you take the KCWT. And what better way to enjoy the trip than by playing cribbage!

Mike Sudduth (Vashon WA), founder and director of Club 339 on Vashon Island, supplied cribbage boards for the Sally Fox, a vessel that runs the water route to Vashon every day. To read the full story, visit

Tune in next month for a full report on the Reno tourneys.

Tourney Tidbits

First Tourney Playing in his first tournament, Tracy Ferguson (Las Vegas NV) was high qualifier and finished in the final four!

Wacky Hand Dennis “Slick” Johnston (Concord CA) was playing 147-year old Boyd McDonald (Mountain View CA) during the main. He was dealt 5-5-Q-Q-K-K, and it was Boyd’s crib. Slick tossed K-K, and then he cut a 5. No problem right?—because this gives him 22 points. After Boyd counts his hand, he flips over the crib and wouldn’t you know it: 5-K-K-K-K!

CW Contest

What if they held a contest and nobody came? That’s almost what happened with CW Contest #15. Apparently “free-form contests,” as the announcement in the September CW called it, are not to the liking of our peg-in-a-straight-line membership. Only two entries were received, by Ken Key (Madison WI) and by Paula and Henry Bergeron (Webster NH). With their permission, CW declared the contest a draw and will submit the grand prize, a cribbage board, to the youth program.

2017 Member Survey Results

by Valerie Nozick (Seattle WA)

Who are we in the ACC? This is not just an existential question. It's an important one for the Marketing Committee to answer, to figure out how to grow the ACC and what can be improved.

The Marketing Committee conducted a membership survey in the early part of this year and learned several interesting things. Thank you to the 1,105 people who filled out the survey online.

Our membership is almost  $\frac{3}{4}$  male, and the average age is 64 years old. 59% of us are retired, and our median income is between \$70,000 and \$79,999. This tells us that when recruiting new members, we should target people 50–64 years old, at the point in life when their kids are independent and people are looking for new activities to fill their new free time.

Recruitment efforts should focus on three key areas: word of mouth, local clubs, and Google/search engines, since more than 90% of us found the ACC through one of these sources.

The most popular websites we use are

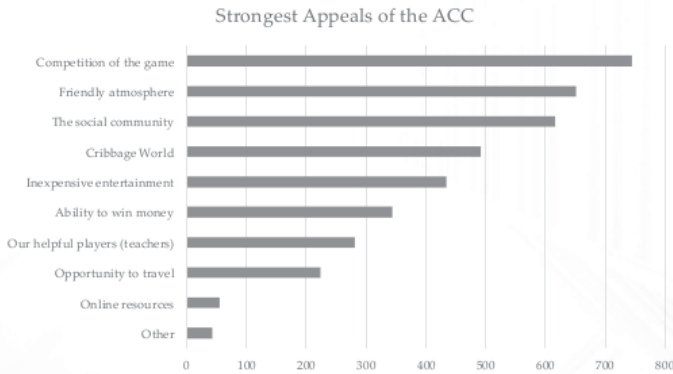

Google and Facebook. More than 20% of respondents also use the ACC sites—cribbage.org and accgrassroots.org—on a weekly basis. Facebook is increasingly popular, used weekly by 54% of the respondents, and many have joined the 800-member strong ACC Facebook Community. When it comes to online cribbage play, the breakdown is split fairly evenly between Cribbage Pro, Game Colony, and ecribbage, with Cribbage Pro holding a slightly edge.

We are an active group. About half of us are sports fans, and in our spare time, we walk or run. Other popular interests are other card games, cooking, and poker, plus golf, fishing, and volunteering.

Grass Roots clubs are the most popular way to play cribbage: 64% of us play at least once a month. Weekend tournaments are less popular: 42% of us report playing at least three tournaments a year. ACC internet cribbage has a lot of potential to grow: only 21% of us play internet cribbage weekly.

The top three things people like about

Top appeals of the ACC are competition, friendly atmosphere and the community

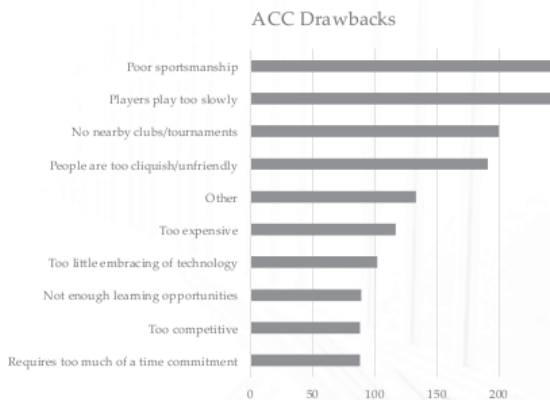

the ACC are competition, friendly atmosphere, and social opportunities. The ACC's top drawbacks are poor sportsmanship, slow play, lack of nearby clubs, and cliquishness/unfriendly players. This is something we can all improve on.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the survey. The Marketing Committee shared the full results with the Board of Directors, and the results are posted on the ACC Grass Roots website. Additionally, the Marketing Committee is using the survey findings to better identify and recruit new members, both nationally and working with Grass Roots directors and our membership on the local level. CW

Top drawbacks are sportsmanship, speed of play

- Overall, far fewer drawbacks chosen than appeals
- Also important to work on – club coverage, cliquishness/friendliness
- “Other” items included:
  - Cheating
  - Lack of marketing
  - Lack of diversity (age, race, sex)
  - Too many rules

ACC Awards

Pam is Canadian and the oldest of eight (seven girls, one boy). Her father, an RAF pilot in WWII, taught all of them cribbage when they turned eight years old. Pam belongs to West Covina Club 68 (directed by Norm Nikodym), where she earned her Silver Award. Her first tournament win was Antioch in 2000; she now has eighteen sanctioned wins to her credit. Her toughest opponents are Bob Bartosh and Jimbo Borren and “all those tough women players out there.” She has codirected many tournaments with Don Brown, Gary Sumner, Roy Cook, and Judith Beay. Pam’s other interests are five grandchildren, reading, gardening, and body surfing in Carlsbad.

Pamela Pomeroy
(Norwalk CA)
Life Master (★) #101

Terry’s dad taught him to play cribbage at an early age. Terry joined the ACC in 2007 and is a member of Madison Metro Club 1. His first tournament win was the June 2011 Schaefer Shuffle in Slinger WI; he now has nine sanctioned wins. He earned the last few points for his Life Master when he won his semifinal match at the Hampton Roads consolation in Virginia Beach VA. His favorite tournament is Reno, and his toughest opponent is Emilio Perez. Terry holds the longest current streak of making the Central Region All Star Team, which has won three of the last four All Star tournaments in Reno. Terry gives a special shout-out to Dan Selke, his longtime friend and travel partner. When not playing cribbage, Terry likes to work on restoring his ’56 Chevy pickup.

Terry Weber
(Madison WI)
Life Master #231

[In Beth’s words] After my husband died in 2008, I discovered cribbage and was given a few lessons here at Laguna Woods. I had played scrabble for almost thirty years, but I was very happy to discover that cribbage had many more tournaments. I love the exuberance and camaraderie of cribbage. I appreciate the generous help from both Ken Slama and Art Kaai; they were both awesome mentors, especially kind to a new player. Also, barely surviving, bloody, and battered, I’ve had some more painful lessons from the twin terminators—Cy Madrone and Roland Hall, both of whom I rarely manage to defeat. Very helpful was DeLynn Colvert’s Play Winning Cribbage. This past year I’ve been high qualifier six times, but only made it to first twice. I’ve been first twelve times total. I was club champion once.

My favorite cribbage moment this year was when I pegged out playing Cy. He was just one point short of going out, and he leaped up with a scream of true shock and pain. One of the more satisfactory moments of cribbage. Besides cribbage, I enjoy reading, TV, genealogy, and stamp collecting. I enjoy driving the open roads and seeing so much of California, Arizona, and Nevada while on route to various tournaments.

New Cribbage Masters

Changes to BOD

In mid-February Henry Bergeron (Webster NH) tendered his resignation from the ACC's Board of Directors. The ACC policy manual calls for the next available candidate from the last election to fill out the remainder of an incomplete term, and so Pat Llewellyn (Bellingham MA) was therefore appointed to the BOD. Pat has directed Club 161 since 1992 and the Tri-Valley Open/Corned Beef and Cribbage since 1994.

Art joined the ACC in 2008, but soon thereafter his wife fell ill and he did not attend tournaments until her passing. He won his first tournament in November 2012 and was co-Rookie of the Year in 2012-13, when he earned 873 MRPs in his first season. Art captured a spot on the Central Region All Star teams in 2013, 2015, and 2016. He has won ten sanctioned tourneys.

RECRUITMENT TIP OF THE MONTH

by Valerie Nozick (Seattle WA)

Instead of the regular format showcasing tactics that clubs have used to recruit new members, I am going to share some ideas based on the 2017 member survey findings (see pages 10–11).

The best people to reach out to are ages 50–64, at the point where their kids are out of the house and they are looking for new ways to socialize and have fun. Grass Roots is the perfect place for them to spend their newfound free time!

Some ways to reach them (based on our own member interests):

- Flyers at golf courses, shooting ranges, outdoor shops.
- Wear your ACC gear to the local sports bar (especially bar poker nights!).
- Reach out to local walking/running groups. Maybe you can invite them to join for a special session of cribbage after a run one evening!
- Print out a coupon for a half price entry for your club (for new participants only), and leave them at neighborhood clubhouses or community centers.
- Donate a cribbage board to your local bar, coffee shop, or game store, with your club information engraved into it.

Or come up with your own ideas. The key is to think about your potential members, and where else they may be hanging out. There is a full list of member interests in the Member Survey, which is posted to the Grass Roots website and to the ACC Facebook Group (American Cribbage Congress – Community). Be sure to let me know what you did, and how it worked. Like always, I'm at vnozick@gmail.com.

and policies they plan to enact or have already enacted.

BOD CANDIDATES

Dave O'Neil (Clarkston GA): it has been my honor and privilege to serve as a member of your BOD since 2012. I am once again soliciting your support for another two-year term. In addition to serving as a BOD member over the past six years, I am a senior judge, have served as a local Grass Roots club director (twelve years) and statistician (twenty years), have directed two Grand Nationals (2003 and 2013), and have been a Grass Roots regional commissioner since 2015. Since joining the ACC in 1995, I have directed or codirected over sixty sanctioned tournaments. Your vote for an additional BOD term would be greatly appreciated.

Terry Weber (Madison WI): member of Club 1 and an ACC member since 2007. Recently earned my Life Master and a four-time Central Region All Star. I have nine ACC sanctioned tournament wins and am also a certified judge. I have served on the Executive Committee the past two years. Also received the 2017 Central Region Volunteer of the Year award. I am an ACC tournament director having conducted twenty-one tournaments. Currently coordinating four tournaments a year. Will be directing Grand National 37 in Milwaukee on September 18-23, 2018. I originated the idea of the hybrid Q-Pool that is now being used at a number of tournaments around the country, including the JPW/ACC Open and the TOC in Reno. Additionally served on the committee studying the long-term finances of the ACC. I would appreciate your vote for the BOD in order to help solve issues such as member retention and tournament attendance. Please vote for your BOD.

Robert Milk (Queen Creek AZ): I am running for BOD after a hiatus of two years. It was an honor and a privilege to serve on the BOD for twelve years, from 2003 to 2015, as a representative of both the Eastern Region and Western Region. I have been blessed with the opportunity to play in every region on the Tournament Trail. I actively participate in the BOD meetings, frequently challenging the status quo. I served as the internet commissioner from the early days of conception through 2013. I negotiated a no-expense business partnership that has brought in over $70,000 into the ACC general fund. I am a judge and assist at nearly every tournament I attend. One of the major areas the BOD needs to focus on membership—retention and expansion. This is the area I intend on working during this upcoming term. Thank you for considering my return to the BOD. Even if you do not vote for me, take the time to review each candidate from across the country and vote for those who you believe will provide excellent leadership for the ACC.

BOD CANDIDATES

Willie Evans (Kennewick WA): I have been a member of the ACC since 1984 and am presently a BOD member. Along with my late wife, Joann, we started the first sanctioned ACC tournament in the State of Washington. Prior to this tournament, the Washington State Championship was played in Oregon because cribbage was illegal in Washington State. We appeared before the Washington State Gambling Commission in 1985 and convinced them that cribbage tournaments were an activity that should be allowed. We were successful in our efforts and went on to run the Washington State Championship in the Tri City area for many years. We also started a Grass Roots club the same year. Club 39 is still active and I believe is the oldest club in the state. Since I retired in 2003, I have traveled extensively to many tournaments in all three regions. I have earned my Gold Award, my Life Master (2★), all after a mere thirty plus years of mediocre play. I want to continue to establish ways of retaining and increasing our membership. Please vote.

Valerie Nozick (Seattle WA): in my thirteen years in the ACC, I have not just talked about change—I make it happen. Several years ago I introduced the idea of posting online brackets in real time at tournaments, something that is now common. I help run the ACC Facebook group. Just recently I did the first live broadcast of a tournament finals online—drawing hundreds of viewers. I feel passionately about giving back to the ACC. I am on the Cribbage World advisory board; I volunteer on the marketing and internet committees; I codirected a tournament in Georgia; and was an internet tournament director. In my professional life, I am a strategy manager for Expedia. My primary responsibility there is to grow a multimillion dollar business. I want to bring those skills to the ACC, so we can grow and I can play well into my own retirement. I have been honored to meet so many amazing cribbage players over my career. I humbly ask for your vote, so we can all enjoy cribbage for years to come. Please reach out to me at vnozick@gmail.com with your ideas on how we can make the ACC even better!

Patrick Barrett (Wisconsin Rapids WI): 55, wife Linda, two children, five grandchildren. Thirty-seven years as an ACC member and tournament player. Member of the BOD since 1995. Past VP of Operations. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 2012.

Current chairman of the ACC Hall of Fame voting. Central Region Tournament Commissioner since 2007. Member of the Ethics Committee. Director of GN 16 in Wisconsin Dells and GN 25 in Wisconsin Rapids. Founder of Club 120 in 1990. Nine-time Club 120 champion. Director of over fifty sanctioned tournaments including Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin Rapids, Waupaca, St. Point, and current codirector of the Wisconsin State Championship in Lac du Flambeau. Senior judge and has attained Life Master (★) and Grass Roots Gold Award. Winner of ten sanctioned tournaments including GN 16 and the 2009 JPW/ACC Open. Also on the ground floor of the ACC website formation as well as the development committee for the GN director's manual. Please consider this ACC veteran in your BOD vote.

Paul Gregson (Antioch CA): we need BOD members who don't just talk a good game, but get things done. In my seventeen years in the ACC I have programmed the ACC website, currently program the Grass Roots website, and I'm rewriting the MRP program. I have actively supported all three areas of the ACC—earning All American, Grand Master, Silver, and eMaster honors across weekend tournaments, Grass Roots, and online play. Playing in each division, I understand their unique challenges and concerns. I'm proud dad to the ACC's reigning youth champion, so continuing to grow and teach the game is near and dear to my heart. Professionally, I am a web developer and marketing manager in the SF Bay area. I believe that experience and perspective over the last two years on the BOD has been an asset to the ACC. As a current BOD member I in no way think we've already accomplished what we need to yet to get the ACC on track. I am looking forward to continuing to try to improve the ACC with and for you.

James Morrow (Sunnyside WA): I am currently a member of the BOD and chairman of the public relations / marketing committee. I would like to be considered for reelection to the BOD. I have been an ACC member for twenty-one years. This year my two sons, Colton 13 and Jackson 7, both joined the ACC as youth members. Director of Club 156 for seventeen years. I have been directing sanctioned tournaments for seventeen years, currently directing five sanctioned tournaments a year in Washington State, with the help of my wife Cher. I am a senior judge and serve as the head judge in many tournaments including the TOC and JPW/ACC Open for the past six years. If reelected I will continue to be open minded and consider all information and requests presented to me. I will continue to make all decisions that will be beneficial to the organization and the members. I would like to continue to help the ACC expand, reaching new members through the youth, Grass Roots, sanctioned tournaments, internet, and public relations/marketing programs. Thank you for your consideration in making me a part of this great organization's BOD.

Don Hannula (Lake Linden MI): age sixty-six. Retired Michigan State Police (wife Debbie). Joined the ACC in 2001. Grass Roots director and judge since 2006. Senior judge since 2010. Region VI statistician since 2009. Director of Lake Superior Challenge (Ishpeming MI) since 2009. Director of Yooper Spring and Fall Classics (largest tournaments held in the Midwest) (Watersmeet MI) since 2014. In 2013 became director of the Tournament of Champions held in Reno NV. Since becoming director of the TOC I have reduced the expenses by 99%. I am asking for support in running for a fourth term on the BOD to continue to listen to both sides of the issues and vote for what is best for the membership of the ACC. Thank you in advance for your support both past and future and please exercise your right to vote.

Kevin Harris (Palm Bay FL): originally from Spokane WA, works as an Auditor for Department of Defense for past thirteen years, retired US Navy 1982–2003. Member of ACC since 2004, including memberships in Lone Star Club 106 in Dallas TX, Space City Skunkers Club 281 in Houston TX, and currently Space Coast Peggys Club 336 in Merritt Island FL. Directed ACC-sanctioned tournaments 2010–14 in Shreveport LA, New Orleans LA, and Daytona Beach FL. Worked as volunteer at Grand National 35 in North Bethesda MD, and scheduled to serve as volunteer for Grand National 36 in Lincoln City OR. Currently responsible for posting tournament results on ACC Facebook page for all Florida and Georgia tournaments, have also posted for New Hampshire tourneys as well. This is my third effort to run for BOD election, and this year I bring more experience and exposure than my past two attempts. My traveling to selected tournaments across the country gives me what I believe is necessary to serve in such an important position, and I will work hard at all tasks assigned to keep our organization intact. I support recruiting new members and finding ways to encourage players to participate in our national tournaments. Thank you for your support.

BOD CANDIDATES

Jeff Gardner (Ada MI): I am forty-two years old, a former college registrar, and recently completed a certificate program in Geographic Information Systems (GIS). GIS is the use of computer systems to analyze spatial data. I'm currently working on a project analyzing areas with significant ACC membership that are not currently being served by a Grass Roots club. I have been an ACC member since 2004. I play in Grass Roots, as well as weekend tournaments throughout the Central Region. I am a certified judge, directed the Detroit Open for four years, and serve as codirector for tournaments in Grand Rapids. I served as guest lecturer to teach cribbage to college students. I developed several Excel programs to assist tournament directors, including a cross-checking program, and the payout calculator that was used in Grand National 35 (Bethesda MD). I also composed the program booklets for Grand Nationals 28 (Grand Rapids MI), 29 (Virginia Beach VA), and 35 (Bethesda MD). My goals as a BOD member would be to continue attracting and retaining new members, as well as to advocate for the development of technology to assist tournament directors in running and reporting their events more easily.

Rick Shea (Eureka CA): in my fourteen years as an ACC member have earned my Life Master as well as Life eMaster. I have directed or codirected many tournaments, including the ACC Open, the Humboldt Bay Classic, and several in Sonoma. I serve as a senior judge and will be one of the directors of the 2017 Grand National in Lincoln City OR. I would like to continue to work as hard as I can for the advancement of the ACC. My goals for the ACC would be to continue the efforts in looking for ways to gain new members and maximizing the retention of all members. Having been recently appointment the Western Region tournament commissioner, I am looking forward to serving in that capacity as well as a member of the Ethics Committee. I have enjoyed my last term on the BOD and would be honored to serve again if elected.

BOD CANDIDATES

Diane Waite (Oakdale MN): I would like the opportunity to serve on the BOD to help keep our membership strong and to assist in our mission of making the game of cribbage fun and fair for people of all ages. I am the ACC webmaster for cribbage.org. I've held this position since 2004. I've been playing in ACC tournaments since 1998 and am about 600 MRPs away from achieving my Grand Master rank. I received my Bronze Award for Grass Roots play. I started the Tom Winter tournament in remembrance of a cherished club member. I codirect the Capital City Cribbage Tournament and the Cribbage Bowl in Reno, where I am also part of the tabulating committee. In addition, I am a certified ACC judge. I received the ACC President's Award in 2005 for my work on the website and again in 2015 with my husband, Todd Schaefer, for our volunteer work in support of the ACC. I would appreciate your vote.

Henry Bergeron (Webster NH): I was on the BOD from April 2014 to February 2017. You can review my bio (education, work history, etc.) in the April 2015 CW. I would like to mention two things: (1) I was chair of the ad hoc Additions to the Website Committee. My hope is that the website will contain the minutes from past BOD meetings so that all members will know what goes on in these meetings. It should also include the recipients of the President's Award, Volunteer of the Year Award, and Rookie of the Year Award. (2) I have stated before that directors should be held accountable for their votes so that the membership knows where they stand on various items brought before the BOD. We, as directors, should let our constituents know that. There is no reason why we should not make our votes public! I will continue to push for director accountability. I will also scrutinize the financial condition of the ACC. There are other items still to be dealt with, and I would like the chance to help shape those decisions. Thank you for your past support and I hope that you will vote for me again.

BOD CANDIDATES

Keith E. Widener (Clemmons NC): many of you know me as I travel extensively across the country playing cribbage. Over the years I have served as ACC VP of policy, been a member of and chaired numerous committees, codirected several tournaments, and only missed one BOD meeting in ten years—all without any form of compensation whatsoever. As a charter member of the ACC, I have earned the Silver Award, Life Master (2★), and been All American four times. As a senior judge I strive to administer the rules in a fair and just manner. I don't think my college education as an engineer has anything to do with cribbage, but I am a logical thinker and am not afraid to think outside the box and introduce new ideas. I have already proven that I can work with members from every region for the good of the ACC, and I would very much appreciate your vote. For me, serving the ACC is strictly a labor of love. All y'all vote! And let's have fun!

Mark Soule (Woolwich ME): I have been a member for nearly fifteen years. I started playing cribbage when I was eight and was taught by my grandmother and fell in love with the game. I have been a certified judge for over ten years. Currently ranked Life Master and was Rookie of the Year in 2005. I received my Bronze Award in Grass Roots. I also run two tournneys yearly in New England. I recently received the Volunteer Award in Maryland. Having traveled around the country playing tournaments I have made quite a few friends throughout. One of the major issues the ACC has is declining membership, I would like to come up with ideas to promote the ACC with hopes to attract new members. I also feel advancing our technology will attract members of all ages. If elected, I will be presenting these ideas for improvement. As a new face on the BOD I will also bring some fresh ideas to the ACC. I will listen to all members and represent their ideas at the BOD meetings. It would be a pleasure to serve as a BOD member. Please consider me when making your vote.

David Campbell (Parsonsfield ME): age 51, I have now served seven terms on the BOD. Currently Life Master (★) and director and codirector of tournneys each year in Eastern Region. I ran the Grand National in Maine in 2007. I am currently on the Ethics Committee and on the Executive Committee as Vice President Operation. I am also presently the Eastern Region tournament commissioner. I am in charge of two committees, one being the Technology Committee, where we are currently working on reprogramming our current MRP software. If reelected to BOD I would like to find ways to attract new members and help the ACC catch up technology-wise where we should presently be to attract new players. I would appreciate your vote for the upcoming election. Lastly, please take the time to vote for any and all candidates you think will help the ACC grow, whether it is me or anyone else. Thank you for your consideration.

Jeff Shimp (Grand Haven MI): a founding member of the ACC; BOD member since its inception. Tournament official (director, chief judge, chief tabulator) for the JPW/ACC Open, TOC, Grand Nationals, and others. Founder and codirector of annual (now in its twenty-eighth year) Potawatomi Peggys Pow-wow (MI). Commissioner of ACC judges program. Perfect attendance at BOD meetings for decades. Elected to Hall of Fame in 2001. Awards include Life Master (2★), Grass Roots Gold. All American twice, and outstanding ACC volunteer. Will continue to focus on clearer, more concise rules, and player protection. Appreciate the opportunity to serve on the BOD and solicit your support to allow me to continue to help build the ACC. Everybody please vote.

BOD CANDIDATES

Audrey Hatto (Edmonton AB): for several years, I have been asked to consider running for the BOD and committed to running once I retired. I retired from the Canadian Federal Government last October after thirty-two years of service. My friend and mentor, Delynn Colvert, wrote my bio. In his words: "Audrey is throwing her hat into the ring, running for the upcoming BOD election. A longtime member of the ACC with an outstanding track record leaves her election to the BOD an easy choice. Her appointment to the BOD is a follow-up for her volunteering duties for directing tournaments in Edmonton and Missoula. The Missoula codirectorship for five years has greatly increased members' enjoyment. She is an outstanding competitor, driving many miles in competition throughout the Northwest and playing with great sportsmanship, running her point tally to earn a Life Master rating. She is queen of cribbage in her longtime association with the local Edmonton club and has earned her Silver Award. She has been on the executive committee of Club 261 for over ten years. If elected she will continue her outstanding support of the ACC."

Gordy Wise (Tacoma WA): I joined the ACC in 1999. Best thing I ever did. I am blessed to live in an area where I can play Grass Roots four times a week and easily attend twenty plus tournaments a year. I have obtained my Master and Silver Award and look forward to achieving the next levels. I am also a certified judge for ACC and have been since 2010. Over the years I have met many wonderful people through the ACC. These people have become my friends and family. I have found the ACC to be more than a card-playing organization. It's also a place where people get together and share life stories and experiences. Recently retired I will be spending more time traveling and playing cribbage promoting ACC. I want to help in anyway to expand ACC now and for future generations. Thanks for your consideration and please take time to vote.

Fred L. White (Kailua HI): I'm seeking reelection to the BOD. I'm semiretired and consulting for the firm I have been with for almost four decades. This allows me the flexibility to spend time between New England and Hawaii, attend and direct direct tourneys in the Eastern Region, and this year I will hopefully be running a tourney in NH as well (my fourth state). For more than twenty years, I have been the director of Club 110 and have co-directed over one hundred tourneys in Hawaii. I am a certified judge, and volunteer at every tournament I attend, to tabulate and help in any way I can. I have been the ACC archivist for over a decade. During that time I have scanned all of the existing CW issues. I am also in the process of going through existing documents for transport to Reno. This year, as a result of my past efforts to promote and support the organization, I am honored and humbled to have been nominated for election to the ACC Hall of Fame. Please take the time to vote to elect the people that you feel will best represent your interests for the ACC. Mahalo!

Roland Hall (Napa CA): I joined the ACC in 1987, but had my own appraisal business to run, two children to raise, and couldn't devote much time to cribbage. Since 1999, when my children became adults, and I retired, I have been very active in the ACC. From 1999 to 2005, I was director, treasurer, and statistician for the Napa/Yountville CA Grass Roots club. I resigned in 2005 to move back to Vermont to care for my mom. I have directed six GRNTs, five GRRTs, and ten sanctioned tournaments. Our Grass Roots club has run a booth in Napa promoting cribbage. I served on the BOD the last eight years, have been a member of the Rules Committee for six years, and have presented several proposals including a proposal to implement special procedures to help retain new players. I've played cribbage in twenty-two states and two Canadian provinces and am always willing to talk with members and present their good ideas to the BOD. I support youth cribbage, special procedures for new players, and efforts to increase our membership. I want to see the ACC grow and be here for our children and grandchildren. Please support me again. Thank you.

BOD CANDIDATES

Valerie Sumner (Sparks NV): I am a current member of the BOD and am seeking reelection. I serve on the executive board as the vice president of policy and am the chairperson of the Ethics Committee. I serve as a senior judge during tournaments, and I am the national Grass Roots secretary for the Board of Volunteers. I have served on the Rules Committee and as the recording secretary. I retired from military after twenty-nine years; also worked for the Nevada Division of Emergency Management. I am the director of the July tournament in Reno and the November tournament in Topaz Lake; I am the codirector of the November tournament in Reno and the spring and summer tournaments in Topaz Lake. I have been director of Club 11 in Reno for many years and enjoy the weekly interaction with our friends. I obtained Life Master and received my Silver Award for Grass Roots. I am asking for your vote so I can continue to work to ensure members rights, ideas, and concerns are always considered. I enjoy the game of cribbage and being able to socialize with people all over the nation. Thanks for your consideration.

Cy Madrone (Santa Barbara CA): I am a charter member of the ACC, having played tournament cribbage prior to its founding. I codirect three tournaments yearly and have assisted directors in seating arrangements, serving as head judge, troubleshooting, crosschecking, and flyer design. I have played in eighteen states in three regions and value the diversity of our lifestyles, religious and political beliefs, ethnic origins, occupations, ages, disabilities, and economic positions. We are in a transitional period with a new Western Region tournament commissioner (Rick Shea) and the continuing progression from an analog to digital world (Paul Gregson). As a current BOD member I introduced an agenda item that gives redress to players banned from specific tournaments. I also made a convincing argument to keep muggins in the TOC. This should not be a popularity contest or be based on how many times one has been All American. I have the experience of having served as president, vice president, and treasurer of other organizations. If you value my ability to articulate and frame the issues at hand, think outside the box, not be afraid to speak truth to power, and be accessible to all members then I would appreciate your vote.

Jeanne Jelke (Redding CA): cribbage is a fascinating game, and I promote the ACC at every opportunity. Having served as recording secretary since September 2015, I have had opportunity to become familiar with the issues facing the ACC. I believe that I have the experience, skills, and interest necessary to serve the membership of the ACC in a leadership capacity. An avid player, I joined the ACC in 1999, earned my Life Master (2★), and am a four-time All American. Additionally, I understand how organizations work, particularly the BOD. Throughout my long career in the nonprofit sector, I have successfully worked with boards as an executive director, including with the Papua New Guinea Red Cross and American Red Cross. An active Rotarian since 1994, serving the community is part of my DNA. Since retiring in July 2013, I have dedicated many hours of voluntary service to the ACC. I became the director of Club 205 (Redding Peggers) and began directing ACC tournaments in Redding CA, Carson City NV, and two cribbage cruises. If elected to the BOD, I pledge to apply the work ethic, persistence, keen sense of responsibility, and organizational skills that are my hallmark to strengthening the ACC.

Rick Allen (Richmond VA): I am running for reelection to the BOD and would sincerely appreciate your vote. I have been an ACC member since 1991 and am a life member. I am a judge, director of the Virginia Championship tournament for twenty-six years, the ACC internet statistician, director of the Richmond Cribbage Club and have been club champion, have won eleven tournaments, and was recognized as an Outstanding ACC Volunteer in the Eastern Region in 2014. I have reached the level of Grand Master, attained the Grass Roots Silver Award, and am an Internet Life eMaster. I have played in tournaments in all three regions and have assisted with tournament operations at several Grand Nationals, ACC Opens, and other events. If reelected, I will continue to bring my experience and observations to BOD service to improve the quality of our events, retain current members, increase our membership, and consider new and innovative ways to improve our organization. Thank you for your consideration.

Todd Schaefer (Oakdale MN): I am running for the BOD and would appreciate your vote in the upcoming election. I began playing cribbage when I was eight years old and have loved playing ever since. I have been a regular tournament participant since 1995. I have directed the Capital City Cribbage tournament for eighteen years and the Cribbage Bowl in Reno NV for eight years. I served as director of Club 240 for thirteen years. I am the awards chairman for the Grass Roots membership and have been fortunate enough to attain my Life Master (★), earning two All American awards along the way. I served seven terms on the BOD beginning in September 1999, and I believe I have ably served our membership in many capacities since then. I was elected to the position of executive vice president in September 2010 and have served on the Ethics Committee for many years. If elected for another term, I will strive to help maintain the ACC as what I believe to be a great organization. Thank you for your consideration.

David Aiken (Ada MI): club director for ten years, director/co-director of sixty sanctioned tournaments in seven states since 2005, cribbage geek since 1983. I love meeting cribbage players from all across the country and discovering how much we have in common. The #1 job of the BOD is to promote cribbage and the ACC and to retain members. Let's play smart, play fair, play fast. Most important, let's have fun playing the greatest card game ever invented!

John Schafer (Battle Creek MI): I have been a member of the ACC since 2002. I am an online tournament director for the ACC internet program, hosting the 9p best-of-three tournaments at ecribbage.com on Mondays. I have worked with

Game Colony so we could continue holding tournaments at their site. We have enlisted a volunteer Game Colony TD to assist with the host of a tournament. I play cribbage anytime I can get someone to play, this includes Grass Roots, weekend tournaments, and on the internet (both at Game Colony and ecribbage). I have board will travel kind of person. I was one of the people in the background when ACC decided to expand to the internet for play. I also aided in creating the original Cribbage Cup at ecribbage. I also helped with the change of the Cup to a Grass Roots style at ecribbage. I have volunteered to judge at the TOC/ACC Open in Reno for the last ten years. I urge the entire ACC member to vote. I know that you don't know all the candidates, but again, at least vote. Thank you.

Tammy Gibbons (Portland OR): I joined the ACC in 2008 and cannot imagine my life without these wonderful friends that now form my family. I am a judge and have been a codirector of the Cascade Cribbage Classic in Oregon for five years. I have been director of Club 118 in Portland for six years and an internet tournament director for seven. Three years ago I had the privilege of being appointed as the internet commissioner; working with my assistant John Schafer, we have recruited new directors and have expanded the number of tournaments. The internet is a very important recruiting tool for the ACC. It allows people to play from anywhere at no cost and exposes potential new members to the ACC. As more people take to social media, we need BOD members who embrace this technology and know how to use it to our advantage. I am ready to step into the future and bring a fresh mindset to the ACC. It's time to put an Oregonian back on the BOD! Thank you for your support.

Pat Llewellyn (Bellingham MA): I am a current member of the BOD and would appreciate the chance to be reelected and help, in any way necessary, the organization that I so desperately love. I have been an avid well-known player among the cribbage community for many years. My experience includes serving as club director since 1992, director of Tri-Valley Open/Corned Beef and Cribbage since 1994, an ACC judge since 1994, and I was awarded one of the original volunteer awards by the ACC. I have also run the New England Long Match for many years. I would consider it a great honor to serve on the upcoming BOD. I have always worked vigorously to promote the great game of cribbage and will always bring that passion with me if reelected to the BOD. I am devoted to helping to find ways to recruit and ultimately keep new players in the ACC. Thank you for your consideration in this upcoming election.

Richard (Frosty) Frost (Berlin WI): married forty-eight years, three children, ACC member for twenty-six years. Life Master (2★), judge, senior judge, member of the Rules Committee. Director or co-director of several sanctioned tournaments. Achieved Silver Award in Grass Roots play, club champion in three different clubs multiple times. I do travel to all regions to play in tournaments. I represented the ACC membership by getting MRPs awarded to all players who qualify. I believe I bring a practical approach to problem solving and will make decisions based on what is important to the ACC and its members. As my second term comes to a close, I promise I will represent all ACC members as we move into the future. With your vote and continued support, I will be able to represent all ACC members and give back to the game I love and respect.

Marsha Mahan (Appleton WI): I have been a member of the ACC for twenty-five plus years (Grand Master ranking) and am a member of Club 1118. I love the game of cribbage as both social entertainment and in tournament play. I have been encouraged to “submit my name” for consideration for the BOD. During my working career with a Fortune 500 company (formerly Aid Association for Lutherans—AAL—and now Thrivent Financial), I have held offices on both state and national boards. I served on the Wisconsin State Fraternal Congress board for several years. In addition, I also held the office of president of the state fraternal congress section of the National Fraternal Congress of America (now American Fraternal Alliance). My past involvement on these boards has prepared me for further committee service. If voters choose to select me to serve, I would be honored to represent all members of the ACC on behalf of the Central Region. Among my goals would be to include finding more and new ways to attract membership in this wonderful organization. Thank you for your consideration.

Ruling Points . . .

Judges frequently hear “after the fact” situations that may or may not need judges to resolve. During judge calls, opportunity is given for both players to tell their account, and judges work hard to achieve a fair result. If a player disagrees with the call, they have the option to call for a third judge, and senior judges are frequently asked to take on that role. The humongous tournament attendance at the TOC and JPW/ACC Open in Reno produces more than a few interesting tidbits, and the most compelling thing that came out was that calling judges is the best way to learn how a rule works and to solve problems. Calling a judge is not a bad thing, it is good judgment, and in no way should cast shade on any player. In rare cases, judges have problems making the correct call, that’s why two are mandatory each time they are called. Have a doubt? Call for a judge!

Ruling Points is written by Patrick & Michael Barrett (Wisconsin Rapids WI). The brothers have been ACC judges since the early 1990s, and Patrick has been a senior judge since 2002. If you have a question about the rule-book or a judge call, send it to them at barrettsauctions@gmail.com.

Cribbage Board of the Month

BY JAY FULWIDER

ACC member Halley Georgeson (Hawthorne CA) sent me an email and photos detailing two cribbage games played in 1943 on the USS Wahoo submarine while on patrol in the Yellow Sea. Halley was visiting the submarine museum at Pearl Harbor and thought the story would be of interest to Cribbage World readers. The story definitely piqued my interest.

After an internet search, I contacted Nancy Richards, curator at the USS Bowfin Submarine Museum. She sent me some photos and excerpts from the book Wahoo: The Patrols of America's Most Famous WW II Submarine by Richard H. O'Kane. I will try to keep the following story short and relative to cribbage and the experiences of USS Wahoo Executive Officer O'Kane.

On March 18, 1943, Commanding Officer Dudley Morton and Executive Officer Richard O'Kane were playing their regular evening game of cribbage while on patrol aboard the Wahoo. Playing cribbage was a way to escape the tension of war patrols. During the game, Morton dealt O'Kane three 5s and the Jack of Spades. O'Kane cut the 5 of Spades for a perfect 29-hand. Within hours of that 29-hand, the Wahoo encountered and sank two Japanese ships.

On March 21 Morton and O'Kane sat down after breakfast

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards from his home in picturesque Washington State, where he also enjoys golf, fishing, and racquetball. His philosophy on the key to life: "Just keep your pegs moving." Ideas for and questions about this column may be sent to him at budandotis@msn.com (put "Cribbage Board" in the subject line).

and gave O’Kane a board to commemorate the games (see photo). A second for another game. With Morton dealing again, O’Kane scored a 28-hand. Shortly after, the Wahoo sunk a Japanese merchant ship.

On this one patrol, the Wahoo sank nine ships. After that, the men and officers considered the phenomenal cribbage hands to be good luck. The officers who had watched the games in the wardroom signed both sets of cards for O’Kane.

O’Kane went on to become commanding officer of the submarine USS Tang. On October 25, 1944, after a fierce battle and sinking several ships, the Tang was sunk. O’Kane was captured by the Japanese and held captive until the end of the war. O’Kane was later awarded the Medal of Honor for his daring attacks on two Japanese convoys during the Tang’s fifth and final patrol. O’Kane retired from the Navy at the rank of rear admiral in 1957. He passed away in 1994.

The story is not over however. Officers and crew aboard the Tang had heard about the 29- and 28-hands

Tang was built under the sponsorship of O’Kane’s wife Ernestine, and it became “The Guardian of the Cribbage Board.” When the second Tang was decommissioned, the cribbage board was passed to the USS Kamehameha, then the oldest submarine in the Pacific Fleet. Since then “The Guardian of the Cribbage Board” has been the USS Parch, USS Los Angeles, and USS Bremerton.

There is a ceremonial passing each time this cribbage board moves to the oldest submarine in the Pacific Fleet. Needless to say, the US Navy is steeped in customs, courtesies, rituals, and traditions. Rear Admiral O’Kane’s cribbage board has been keeping submarine and cribbage tradition alive for more than seventy years.

I want to thank Halley Georgeson, Nancy Richards, and Submarine Force, US Pacific Fleet Public Affairs Story no. NNS070516-04 (5-16-07). All provided information for this article. CW

CORRECTION

I want to apologize for a huge mistake that I made in my March article. Somehow I got it in my mind that I lost in the Mount Rainier Open finals to Elmer George “Ras” Rasmussen. In reality, I lost to DeLynn Colvert. In fact, DeLynn ran through the finals brackets and lost only a couple games. I was only close in one game against him. So to correct the record and my article, I have made it to only one consolation final and lost to Ras. In my only main final I lost to DeLynn. Bottom line is that I am sorry for the error, but happy that my two finals losses both came against ACC Hall of Famers. —JW

24 Years and Going Strong!

February 25 marked the twenty-fourth annual Sierra Youth Cribbage Tournament. It was attended by 35 young cribbage players. A lot of excitement and fun was had by all, with the Gregson boys—Austin (12) and Zack (9)—stealing most of the thunder, although Keegan O'Sullivan (16) had a lot to boast about, beating Austin in the finals to capture the championship in the 12 and over division (23 players, nine games). Zack, on the other hand, won this big event for the second year in a row in the 11 and under division (12 players, six games), and is the all-time leader in Youth Rating Points (YRPs) by a considerable margin. Nathan Wilson (13) won the consolation (16 players, four games).

A huge thank you to Don Howard for managing ACC youth registration signups and calculating YRPs, as well as serving as a judge for the tournament. Many thanks also to the Sands Regency Reno for their generous donation, making it possible to give each player a set of custom pegs and help make the lunchtime raffle extra special. A final thank you to ACC member Bob Schmitt, who once again arrived early and stayed late to help with many of the tournament logistics.

Grass Roots Corner

We get a few regular emails from club directors sending us info about grand slams and other notable milestones, but they are few in number. Hopefully more directors will heed the call, as we want to print more!

Beginning with the 2017–18 season, Grass Roots members will be able to earn GRPs in any club they play in—not just their home club. Ron Logan and Wayne Momen came up with the basics of this idea; Annette Eiffert put work into the document; and Paul Gregson helped make it easy to understand for the rest of us and will create the software to implement it. Watch for more details in the coming months.

Club 267 (Yuma AZ) has played seventeen tournaments and had five grand slams, by Arnie Bangs, Jerry Blackman (twice), Jim

Blakeley, and Mike Watson. Jim's 21/9 +234 was the highest.

Grass Roots cribbage has been around long enough that some directors have nice milestones to mark. Phil Martin has directed Hartford Metro Club 26 in Hartford CT for twenty-five years! Patrick Barrett is in his twenty-sixth year of directing Club 120 in Wisconsin Rapids WI. Please let us know about other long-term clubs.

In late March Dale “Mr. 28” Magedanz of Milwaukee Club 6 gave a 28-hand to Rudolph Rogutich and defeated him. The following week he gave a 28-hand to Wayne Owen and lost. During the JPW/ACC Open in Reno, he gave Dennis Morin (Lincoln CA) a 28-hand and was skunked!

The President's Column

by Jeanne Hofbauer

I would like to share with you something that happened to me recently. I am a member of a big box store that requires membership. I lost my membership card, so I went to the store to get a new card. I approached the membership line, which was about twenty feet long and outlined in yellow stripes. There was a young woman standing outside the stripes, but looking toward the front of the line, where three employees were helping people. She was standing about ten feet behind the people in line. I asked her politely if she was in line, whereupon she turned to me and called me the B-word and said I was not going to cut in line ahead of her. At about that time, three other people did cut in line ahead of her, because she had left such a gap, that they had probably assumed that she was just standing there. I, who had treated her with politeness, was verbally assaulted, but she did not say one word to those who had actually disrespected her. I apologized to her and told her (respectfully and gently) that I had not meant to upset her, that I had just tried to determine if she was or wasn't in line. Her only acknowledgment was a glare.

Maybe it is because of my age, or the lessons I have learned, but I chose not to engage with her in the same manner as she chose. However, I must admit, that in younger years, I might have reacted quite different verbally. But after it was over, I felt better, having not interacted with her in any confrontational way.

I use this story as an example of how we each can choose our own behavior. In our own small society, the ACC, there are sometimes misunderstandings and disagreements. I know that not everybody likes everybody else, but we should remain civil and polite. There are bound to be disputes, that is why we have judges.

Civility is behavior that recognizes the humanity of others, allowing us to live peacefully together in a society. To exist in any society, civility is an obligation. Restraint, awareness, self-control, empathy, and respect are all elements of civility.

When there is an argument at a tournament, it involves not just the participants, it encompasses all others within range, detracting from their experience and making them, at the least, uncomfortable.

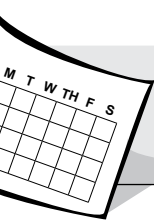

We should all be concerned with our declining membership. If we want the ACC to grow, in fact to survive, we should all take the step of examining our behaviors when in the arena of competition.

IN MEMORY OF CRIBBAGE FRIENDS

William Anschutz

William Anschutz (Sturgeon Bay WI) passed away on February 7. Bill's greatest love was his family. He enjoyed being outdoors, logging, riding his ATV, woodworking, fishing, rabbit hunting, and big game hunting out west. He was a strong, compassionate caring man with a strong faith to guide him. He will be remembered for his joke telling, playing poker, sheepshead, cribbage, and canasta. He and wife Sarah were members of the ACC and came to tournaments in Green Bay area. He was always a gentleman on the cribbage board.

Harold Dean Bauman

Dean "Doc" Bauman (Newport OR) has played his last tournament. He died on February 15 from complications after his first chemo treatment for prostate cancer. Dean was born in Harper KS in 1942 and married Mary Ellen Drake on his nineteenth birthday in 1961. In 1967 he received his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from Kansas State University, after which he entered the US Army, proudly serving in Vietnam. Doc, as everyone called him, enjoyed meeting people and always found ways to serve his community. His passions were cribbage, flying his airplane, cowboy poetry, and spending time with family. Doc loved his work as a veterinarian, having practiced twenty years in Corvallis and twenty-three years in Newport. He traveled to Iceland with Keiko (of Free Willy fame) and was proud to have served for eight years on veterinary teams on the Iditarod dog sled race. He had earned his Grand Master rating and his Silver Award in Grass Roots play. Doc was codirector of the Newport doubleheader every April and will be missed by his friends all around the country.

William E. Jones

WWII veteran and cribbage player William E. "Bill" Jones passed away February 9 at his home in Hermiston at the age of 93. He was 254 points away from his Gold Award. Bill served in the US Army Air Force from 1943 until his honorable discharge in 1945 during WWII, spending much of his time in Italy. He spent many years working as a prospector, mining throughout the area. Bill enjoyed cribbage, playing cards, traveling, spending time with his family. He was a life member of the Halfway VFW and the Columbia Grange, as well as Oregon's First Cribbage Club 2. Bill was club champion for several years in Hermiston. He was a quiet gentlemen and cribbage mentor to many club members. He will be missed by many.

Dwight Van Cleve

Club 23 in Aurora CO is mourning the passing of our club's frequent champion and good friend, Dwight Van Cleve. Dwight loved the game of cribbage and was, to the frustration of many opponents, both very skilled and very lucky. We lost count of how many times he won our club championship, but each victory was well deserved. Club 23 and cribbage in Colorado will definitely not be the same without Dwight.
